

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

A VERY PRETTY WEDDING AT THE MEMORIAL CHURCH.

No Fraud in Chesterfield County—An Old Negro Man Goes Insane—Personal and Other News of Interest.

MANCHESTER BUREAU (RICHMOND TIMES), 111 HULL STREET, BEATLE BLOCK, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock Miss Helen Cabell Hancock was married to Mr. Frank H. Hancock by the Rev. J. J. Clifton, pastor of that church.

The bride was given in white crepe de chine, with lace veil. She was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Gertrude Weigler.

The groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. S. P. Nottingham, of Baltimore. The bridesmaids were Misses Bessie Gill, Julia Morris, Annie Walker, Ella Mayo, Nina Caution, and Marion Lyland.

The following gentlemen acted as usherers: Messrs. J. C. O. James, F. H. Hancock, W. B. Hall, and Collins Hancock.

The bride is an attractive daughter of the late Dr. Phillip S. Hancock, of Chesterfield.

The groom is the popular traveling salesman for R. M. Sutton & Co., of Baltimore.

DANGER JUST AHEAD.

A Prominent Professor Speaks About the Threatening Things Afoot at this Time of the Year.

"It is surprising how many people are suffering to-day from so-called colds, colds and influenza. I know the remark was made of a very prominent professor, connected with one of the leading New York hospitals. Continuing he said:

"It is not these things that are troubling people, but it is an advanced form of our old enemy, the grip. People feel out of sorts, sneeze, have pains in the muscles and bones, have no appetite, lose all interest in the world, and wonder what is the matter. It is the grip; nothing is the matter.

Now, all such symptoms need to have prompt treatment. The attack must be met and repelled at once, or it is certain to run into something serious. I know of but one way to certainly avoid these troubles which are now so common, and that is, to immediately counteract them by using a good, pure, strong stimulant, which is fast and efficient.

Nothing of the ordinary kind, but something pure and scientific. For this purpose nothing has ever equalled Duty's Joyous Mint Whiskey, which is acknowledged to-day by physicians and scientific people to be the only pure, medicinal malt whiskey upon the market.

The words of the professor are true, and they carry a wonderful meaning to my men and women who are suffering or may slip in its advanced stages. For all such people we offer a sure means to overcome these troubles, and do not permit any dealer to swerve you from your purpose to have that which has given itself by years of use to be the best and purest stimulant in the world.
