

THE TIMES offers its readers a splendid illustrated work, entitled "THE HOLY LAND PHOTOGRAPHED." Two coupons and ten cents will get one part.

Where would you find a more beautiful and picturesque country than our own America? Read THE TIMES' announcement of its offer of the grand book "PICTURESQUE AMERICA" for three coupons cut from the paper.

BLAND WANTS TO VOTE.

THEY TO ENTER THE DEBATE ON HIS SEIGNIOURSHIP BILL.

The Republicans, however, wish to give their views on the subject a full airing with Reed—The Discussion.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—After some unimportant business in the early hours of the session of the House today Mr. Reed called attention to the fact that Messrs. Quigg and Straus, members-elect from New York, were present, and, although their credentials had not yet been received, there was no unanimous objection that they take the oath of office.

A letter from Mr. Brawley (Dem., S. C.) was read, stating that his resignation as a member of the House of Representatives had been forwarded to the Governor of South Carolina.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today. He was also asked to take the floor on the bill.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

CIVIL-SERVICE LAWS.

A REVEALING AND GROWING OPPOSITION TO THEM.

Postmaster Cullingsworth's Assistants—The Leesburg Post-Office—Other Interesting Virginia Matters.

WASHINGTON, February 14, 1894. A subject of legislation, which is being much discussed in the committee rooms and private conferences, and which before very long will assume some tangible shape and prove a fertile and interesting subject of debate, is the repeal, or, at least, radical modification or change in the present civil service laws.

The bill, therefore, went over till to-morrow, when it is to be taken up after the routine morning business of the House. Mr. Platts, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, has introduced a bill and pending amendments are to be voted on, unless the Senate may have made some change in the present civil service laws.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

CIVIL-SERVICE LAWS.

A REVEALING AND GROWING OPPOSITION TO THEM.

Postmaster Cullingsworth's Assistants—The Leesburg Post-Office—Other Interesting Virginia Matters.

WASHINGTON, February 14, 1894. A subject of legislation, which is being much discussed in the committee rooms and private conferences, and which before very long will assume some tangible shape and prove a fertile and interesting subject of debate, is the repeal, or, at least, radical modification or change in the present civil service laws.

The bill, therefore, went over till to-morrow, when it is to be taken up after the routine morning business of the House. Mr. Platts, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, has introduced a bill and pending amendments are to be voted on, unless the Senate may have made some change in the present civil service laws.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

Mr. Bland asked unanimous consent that general debate on the seigniorship bill close at 5 o'clock, after which he would be asked to take the floor today.

IDENTITY DISCOVERED.

THE BOMB-TROWER'S NAME IS EMILE HENRY, NOT BRETON.

He is Well Educated, Especially in the Sciences, and is a Son of a Colonial of the Commune—Visited America.

PARIS, Feb. 14.—After considerable trouble the police finally established the identity of the man who threw the bomb in the Cafe of the Hotel Terminus, Monday night. The authorities believed that the name "Leon Breton," given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

IDENTITY DISCOVERED.

THE BOMB-TROWER'S NAME IS EMILE HENRY, NOT BRETON.

He is Well Educated, Especially in the Sciences, and is a Son of a Colonial of the Commune—Visited America.

PARIS, Feb. 14.—After considerable trouble the police finally established the identity of the man who threw the bomb in the Cafe of the Hotel Terminus, Monday night.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

The man was arrested, was an alias, and the name "Leon Breton" was given by the man when he was arrested, was an alias.

IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

THE Y. M. C. A. ASSOCIATION'S MEET AT ROANOKE.

To-day the Body Will Begin Work in earnest—The Local Officers Elected.

ROANOKE, VA., Feb. 14.—Special.—The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

THE Y. M. C. A. ASSOCIATION'S MEET AT ROANOKE.

To-day the Body Will Begin Work in earnest—The Local Officers Elected.

ROANOKE, VA., Feb. 14.—Special.—The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.

The secretaries conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia convened here to-day. The discussions were confined to the work of secretaries.