

CONTEST IN THE SECOND.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.

Engineers Visit the Navy Yard—A German Steamship Fined for Not Having a Bill of Health—Religious Notes.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 23.—Norfolk's new electoral board will not go into office until 1895, and the present board, composed of Mr. H. L. Smith, J. Frank East, and N. B. Jones, will appoint the judges for the spring and fall elections.

The Second District Contest. Colonel Fulton Day, of Isle of Wight county, is here and has announced himself a candidate for Congress. He expects to get a number of delegates in Norfolk. His own county will give him his solid vote, and he will develop strength, so his friends claim, in all the counties.

Mr. Tyler has many strong friends here and will, beyond question, lead the race, but as this is the hardest district in the State to satisfy and the disappointed applicants for office can be numbered by the hundred, he will not have a walk over as he did at Newport News two years ago.

The Episcopalians of Norfolk have erected a handsome church at Lambert's Point, which will be dedicated Sunday. The Baptists of Norfolk have also nearly completed Lambert's Point, which was a truck farm about six years ago, now has a population of about 1,000, which is increasing rapidly.

Headsville Matters. HEATHSVILLE, Va., Feb. 23.—Special.—J. T. Hazzard, while working at Bevia saw-mill a few days ago, had one of his hands badly cut.

Funeral of Captain Ellis. ASHLAND, Va., Feb. 23.—Special.—The funeral of Captain L. P. Ellis took place in Ashland on Thursday afternoon, and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, consisting of persons in every station of life in the town, for all honored him. The services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Green, assisted by Rev. G. W. Green, and Bishop Grambery delivered a most beautiful tribute to the life of the departed, noting his faithfulness and strict integrity in every department of life.

Handsome Donations Made to the Institution—Open to Both Sexes. RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 23.—Special.—The trustees of the University of North Carolina held a meeting here to-day in the Governor's office and transacted much business of importance.

Blaze on Franklin Street. An alarm of fire was turned in last night about 11 o'clock, and a fire broke out in a building on Franklin street, next to the W. W. Company's building.

Triumphal Oration. If it be asked, as it doubtless will, "What is the mid-winter fair for, and what will it accomplish?" the answer must be twofold.

Two Men Killed by an Explosion. The following resolutions in regard to football were passed by the board of trustees of the inter-college games of football on the part of the university.

Atlanta Exposition. ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 23.—The city council of Atlanta to-day voted aid to the proposed Cotton States and International Exposition, to be held in Atlanta in 1895 to the extent of cash assistance to the sum of $75,000.

Three Clever Sisters. Miss Klumpke, the American girl who lately took to the sea, is now in the Sorbonne in Paris, as remarked upon by all the newspapers.

Two Assignments in Galford. WINSTON, N. C., Feb. 23.—Special.—William G. Crutchfield, of Galford County, and Paul Crutchfield, of this city, assigned to work, Captain R. B. Glenn is trustee. Liabilities aggregate $6,352. Assets not known.

A Large Crowd of Business Men Before the Committee on Roads. The Senate Committee on Roads had an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon. The main question under consideration was the granting of a charter to the Richmond and Danville railway.

Troop's Genius. A clever man once said in speaking of the novels of the late Anthony Trollope, that he always read them with a peculiar sense of their variety.

TRENHOLM'S RASH DEED

A WELL-KNOWN SOUTH CAROLINIAN CUTS HIS THROAT.

Nephew of the Late Secretary of the Confederate Treasury—Mr. Pearson a Candidate for Congress—Indian Bride.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 23.—Special.—Savage D. Trenholm, of Flat Rock, Henderson county, cut his throat and probably killed himself at that place yesterday. The deed was committed in a fit of depression brought on by excessive drinking.

A Candidate for Reporter of the Supreme Court—Musical Matters. WYTHEVILLE, Va., Feb. 23.—Special.—The municipal authorities have issued a license for the Benchler-Blackwell glove contest, set to be "pulled off" in Gloxton's Hall on March 30, and it is now said that about 40 tickets have been sold.

Funeral of Captain Ellis. ASHLAND, Va., Feb. 23.—Special.—The funeral of Captain L. P. Ellis took place in Ashland on Thursday afternoon, and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, consisting of persons in every station of life in the town, for all honored him.

Handsome Donations Made to the Institution—Open to Both Sexes. RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 23.—Special.—The trustees of the University of North Carolina held a meeting here to-day in the Governor's office and transacted much business of importance.

Blaze on Franklin Street. An alarm of fire was turned in last night about 11 o'clock, and a fire broke out in a building on Franklin street, next to the W. W. Company's building.

Triumphal Oration. If it be asked, as it doubtless will, "What is the mid-winter fair for, and what will it accomplish?" the answer must be twofold.

Two Men Killed by an Explosion. The following resolutions in regard to football were passed by the board of trustees of the inter-college games of football on the part of the university.

Atlanta Exposition. ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 23.—The city council of Atlanta to-day voted aid to the proposed Cotton States and International Exposition, to be held in Atlanta in 1895 to the extent of cash assistance to the sum of $75,000.

Three Clever Sisters. Miss Klumpke, the American girl who lately took to the sea, is now in the Sorbonne in Paris, as remarked upon by all the newspapers.

Two Assignments in Galford. WINSTON, N. C., Feb. 23.—Special.—William G. Crutchfield, of Galford County, and Paul Crutchfield, of this city, assigned to work, Captain R. B. Glenn is trustee. Liabilities aggregate $6,352. Assets not known.

A Large Crowd of Business Men Before the Committee on Roads. The Senate Committee on Roads had an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon. The main question under consideration was the granting of a charter to the Richmond and Danville railway.

Troop's Genius. A clever man once said in speaking of the novels of the late Anthony Trollope, that he always read them with a peculiar sense of their variety.

Two Assignments in Galford. WINSTON, N. C., Feb. 23.—Special.—William G. Crutchfield, of Galford County, and Paul Crutchfield, of this city, assigned to work, Captain R. B. Glenn is trustee. Liabilities aggregate $6,352. Assets not known.

A Large Crowd of Business Men Before the Committee on Roads. The Senate Committee on Roads had an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon. The main question under consideration was the granting of a charter to the Richmond and Danville railway.

Troop's Genius. A clever man once said in speaking of the novels of the late Anthony Trollope, that he always read them with a peculiar sense of their variety.

A WAITING CONDITION.

BUSINESS HESITATING UNTIL SOME THING OF THE FUTURE IS KNOWN.

Prices Again Greatly Depressed—Volume Inadequate to Employ the Circulation Available—Southern Reports.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade to-morrow will say:

A waiting condition of business is one which weekly fluctuations mean nothing. Business of all kinds is hesitating until more can be determined about the future, and meanwhile orders, which will keep hands at work for a time, are given and accepted, this week increasing as in some others decreasing without affording reasonable indications of the future.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

extent: She left it not only with her husband's consent, but at his request. He seemed to be irritated that her health was poor, that she was nervous and homesick, and apparently growing worse.

THE WINNERS WELL PLAYED. CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 23.—There was another good day for favorites at Roby to-day, and the bookmakers had the worst of it, as in each race the winner was well played.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Feb. 23.—The track was fast and the finishes close. Out-riders took four out of the six events. Attendances, 3,000. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 23.—The day was rainy and cold and the track very heavy. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

THE WINNERS AT NEW ORLEANS. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 23.—The day was rainy and cold and the track very heavy. Summary: First race—eleven-sixteenths of a mile—Zender first, Hango second, Cleofus third. Time, 1:31.9.

THE WRESTLING MATCH AT NORFOLK FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP. NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 23.—A catch-as-catch-can wrestling match for the championship of Virginia took place in the armory of the Fourth Virginia Regiment to-night.

PAYMASTER SMITH'S SENTENCE. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The action of Rear Admiral Scott, commanding the fleet, in releasing the court-martial proceedings and findings of the court-martial that tried him on charges of drunkenness, was quashed by the Supreme Court.

HARDSHIPS AT SEA. LONDON, Feb. 23.—The British bark Montgomery Castle, Captain Hines, from New York, arrived at Antwerp, East India, for orders, has arrived at Fayal seriously damaged.

VARIOLA ON THE CONCORD. WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The conflict between the United States and the United States ginseng Concord, at Yokohama, were definitely settled at the Navy Department to-day through a letter from Rear Admiral Scott, commanding the fleet.

SOME OF DAVID HUDLEY FIELD'S FRIENDS. When last I saw Mr. Field I asked him how he liked his new home at Lincoln.

COLUMBIAN HIGH ART. BOOK OF THE BUILDERS. BRING FIVE COUPONS FROM DAILY TIMES TO THE TIMES OFFICE, WITH TEN CENTS IN COIN, AND RECEIVE ONE PART OF BOOK OF THE BUILDERS.

THE HOLY LAND PHOTOGRAPHED. Nos. 1 and 2 Ready. Bring or send two coupons of different dates, together with ten cents in coin, to the Times office, with ten cents in coin, and receive one part of THE HOLY LAND PHOTOGRAPHED.

PICTURESQUE AMERICA. BRING THREE COUPONS FROM DAILY TIMES TO THE TIMES OFFICE, WITH TEN CENTS IN COIN, AND RECEIVE ONE PART OF PICTURESQUE AMERICA.

THE COLUMBIAN ALBUM OF ART. IS NOW COMPLETED. Nos. 1 to 14. Bring this to the office of The Times or send by mail, with ten cents in coin, and you will receive one part of the great portfolio of art.