Manchester Bureau Richmond Times, 1112 Hull street, Seattle Block.

Mr. W. T. Carr, a Hull-street merchant, died suddenly at his home, at Seventeenth and Hull streets, last night about 9:10 o'clock. The cause of his death was heart disease. He had been complaining for the past few days, but was attending to his duties in the store up to a few days ago.

Mr. Carr was a most worthy citizen. He had been engaged in the grocery business for the past seven months at his present place of business. Previous to merchandising he was a house and sign painter.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. Mr. Carr was a member of the Baptist church, and was a member of the Hull-street church.
