

ST. LOUIS LOSES HER FIRST GAME

The Orphans Bunched Their Hits—Hence Her Downfall.

ORIOLES HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

Two Out in the Ninth Inning Before They Made It Interesting—Rain Stopped the Game of the Giants and Senators.

Table with 3 columns: Club, Won, Lost. Lists standings for various clubs including St. Louis, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Chicago, Baltimore, Louisville, New York, Pittsburgh, Washington, and Cleveland.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table with 3 columns: Club, Won, Lost. Lists yesterday's scores for various clubs.

Where They Play Today.

Baltimore at Brooklyn, Boston at Philadelphia, New York at Washington, Cincinnati at Chicago.

Rain at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The game today was called at the beginning of the third inning on account of rain.

Philadelphia, 3.

Boston, 5. Philadelphia, 3. Pittsburgh, 7. Louisville, 5. Washington, 7. St. Louis, 4. Cleveland, 2.

Opening of Rowing Season.

The Members of the Virginia Boat Club Celebrate the Event.

The Virginia Boat Club celebrated the opening of the rowing season at their club house on Mayo's Island yesterday evening.

Fourth Ready to Return.

The Boys Present Lieutenant Spencer with a Hand-Sword.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 25.—Special—Just two more days remain and the Fourth Virginia Regiment will have completed its stay in this city.

Championship Season.

The Atlantic League Clubs Will Begin the Race Today.

The championship season of the Atlantic League begins today. The opening schedule is as follows:

Richmond at Wilkes-Barre, Allentown at Newark, Scranton at Lancaster, Lancaster at Reading.

The Richmond team left for Wilkes-Barre Tuesday night carrying Steelman, Hess, Calhoun, Dolan, Wrigley, Dundon, Shannon, Hargrove and Reynolds, and pitchers Chesbro, Dennovan, Bishop and Frannix.

Vignaux and Carr were released and Vignaux joins the Allentown team. Flattery and Goodwin did not leave with the team but will hold here as reserve ammunition and may join the club on the road.

The Cherubs will return here on next Monday week, after playing next week at Reading and Newark.

The season opens on May 5th with two games with Newark, to be followed with games with Lancaster, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre.

The official schedule has been received from President Barrow. There are several changes from the one already printed.

Instead of being at Newark as originally arranged, Newark will open here on May 5th.

Paternon will play here on May 26th, 30th and 31st, instead of Allentown. Allentown will play here on June 1st, 5th and 25th, instead of Newark, and on July 27th, 28th and 29th, instead of Paternon.

A very interesting game of baseball was played at Island Park yesterday afternoon between the Schley's and Hampsons, which resulted in a victory for the Schley's.

Score: R. H. E. Schley's 7, Hampsons 2.

Batteries: Schley's—Cass and Unger; Hampsons—Litch and Elmire.

ON THE TURF.

Time Maker Still Winning—Little Excitement at Newport Track.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 26.—John W. Seltzer's good colt, Time Maker kept up his winning streak to-day, winning the fourth race at six furlongs in the easiest sort of fashion.

First race—seven furlongs, selling—Johnnie Motile (5 to 1) first, Traveller (10 to 1) and 4 to 1 second, Celtic Bard (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:30.5.

Second race—four and a half furlongs—Donnyard (2 to 1) first, Florence Anetta (6 to 1) second, Toon (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:14.5.

Third race—one mile, selling, gentlemen riders—Braw Lad (3 to 1) first, Tony Hound (3 to 1) second, Bellamy (4 to 1) third. Time, 1:36.5.

Fourth race—six furlongs—Time Maker (2 to 1) first, Verity (4 to 1) and 3 to 2 second, Cherry Leaf (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:24.

Fifth race—seven furlongs, selling—Sea Robber (8 to 1) first, Foreman (3 to 1) and 6 to 1 second, Balkline (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:26.5.

Sixth race—one mile, selling—Our Nellie (2 to 1) first, Stimp (4 to 1) and 3 to 2 second, Savarin (8 to 1) third. Time, 1:44.

At Newport.

CINCINNATI, O., April 26.—There was no excitement to the sport at Newport today. The track was very heavy, and only a few favorites were first past the winning post.

First race—mature two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs—seventeen, selling—Allen Wilson (5 to 1) second, My Chick (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:26.5.

No Grip, Pain Hood's Pills

Or discomfort, no irritation of the intestines—but gentle, prompt, thorough, beautiful cleansing, when you take Hood's Pills.

Sold by all druggists. 25 cents.

CINCINNATI, O., April 26.—A quiet, but exceedingly pretty wedding took place last night at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. Clements Shafer, "Shadyhurst," contracting couple being Mr. George Booker Jennings, formerly of Danville, now of Atlanta, and Miss Eva Lawson, who is so well known in social and musical circles of Richmond.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's grandmother, the wedding was of a simple character, and only the immediate family and relatives of the bride couple witnessed the ceremony.

After the marriage and the congratulations of those present, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings left for a Southern trip. They will reside in Atlanta where the groom holds a responsible position with one of the leading insurance companies.

Many good wishes of friends followed the newly wedded ones on their bridal trip.

The bride will be greatly missed in musical circles here where her fine contralto voice has been so much admired.

Her many friends here will regret that she leaves Richmond to live.

Brophy—Chiton.

Mr. E. W. Brophy, of Charlottesville, and Mrs. Tillie Clifton, of this city, were quietly married at the First Baptist church, by Rev. Dr. Cooper, at 10 o'clock last night.

Mr. Brophy is a well-known and popular young book-keeper of Charlottesville, and the bride has been connected with Murphy's hotel as assistant housekeeper for some time.

Immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple left for Charlottesville, their future home.

The bride was handsomely gowned in gray Venetian cloth traveling dress, with hat and gloves to match, and carried brides' roses.

The ceremony was witnessed by many relatives and friends, and the happy occasion was very impressively performed by Rev. Dr. Cooper.

Quite a large number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, and it was very impressively performed by Rev. Dr. Cooper.

The ushers were Mr. James Valentine, brother of the groom, and Mr. Charles Richardson.

The popularity of the couple was evidenced by the large number of handsome presents received.

Goodwin—Moon.

A very quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hancock this afternoon at two o'clock.

The bride and groom were united in marriage by Rev. J. R. Daniel, only a very few near relatives were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin took the east-bound train and will go to Newport News, where they will make their future home.

Clark—Nock.

Mr. Walter Clark, of Portsmouth, and Mrs. Eva Nock, of this city, were married at Washington-Avenue Methodist church this afternoon by Rev. Asa Driscoll, of Gloucester.

It had been expected that the three battalions of the regiment would be paid off simultaneously on next Thursday evening, and that the mustering out would be completed at an early hour.

The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's father, near Red Hill, Albemarle county.

Tomlin—Gay.

This morning at 11 o'clock Mr. W. W. Tomlin and Miss Anna L. Gay were married at the residence of the bride's father, near Red Hill, Albemarle county.

Pravel—Falkenstsein.

LURAY, April 25.—A lovely April wedding took place today at 5 o'clock P. M., in the Main Street Baptist church.

The bride, Miss Lillian Pearl Falkenstsein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Falkenstsein, is a young lady of remarkable personal charm and rare excellence of character.

The groom, Mr. William A. Pravel, formerly a resident of this town, is now a stenographer in the office of the Southern Railway Company at Norfolk, Va.

The altar was banked with palm, fern and blossoming plants, and the church was crowded with the friends of the young couple, who are deservedly popular here.

The bride wore an exquisitely dainty gown of white organdy over silk, and carried Brude's roses.

Miss Ethel Lynn Berry, also wore white organdy, but carried La France roses.

Mr. Edward Weaver acted as best man.

At Berry's.

The presentation took place immediately after the speech of the bride, and the occasion was made by Captain Yateman, the adjutant of the regiment.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

MANY HAPPY APRIL BRIDES

A Pretty Wedding at Shadyhurst Last Night.

MR. JENNINGS; MISS LAWSON.

Mr. E. W. Brophy and Mrs. Tillie Clifton Married—Mr. Willie Valentine and Miss Mamie Schilling. Other Nuptial Events.

At Berry's.

The presentation took place immediately after the speech of the bride, and the occasion was made by Captain Yateman, the adjutant of the regiment.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over thirty years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is, of course, regarded as sacredly confidential.

Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce, what their exact trouble is, and tell to their physician. The local physician is very sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination," and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Feminine Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the most unimaginable cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of regular graduate physicians.

Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.—take his advice and be well.

Mrs. E. D. Monfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., O., writes: "I drop you a line this morning to let you know that I have received the Medical Adviser, and how I am with it. A crisp, new five dollar bill could not tempt me to part with it."

On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only, we will send free by registered mail a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's great tonic and blood purifier, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," in the same book bound in fine French cloth will be sent for 10 cents extra.

Over 100,000 copies of "The Common Sense Medical Adviser" are sold each year, and its popularity is daily increasing.

Dispensary Medical Assn., Buffalo, N. Y.

And Messrs: Robert Morrison, Robert McKim, Will Reynolds, and Allan Chapman.

Miss M. Caroline Weaver played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered the church; Benbenstein's melody in F during the ceremony, and the Lohengrin march at its close.

Impressive and tender, was performed by Rev. G. S. Kennard.

Mr. and Mrs. Pravel left Luray on the evening train for Baltimore, where they will spend some time before going to Norfolk, their future home.

The cordial good wishes of a host of friends follow them.

COLLEY—BURGESS.

Beautiful Home Wedding in Scottsville.—The Groom a Richmond Man.

SCOTTSDALE, Va., April 26.—Special.—Mount River View, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pitts, was the scene of a beautiful home wedding this afternoon at a quarter to three o'clock.

When the bride and groom were joined by Rev. L. T. Pitt, in the presence of a large number of friends.

The ceremony was witnessed by many friends, and the happy occasion was very impressively performed by Rev. L. T. Pitt.

The ushers were Mr. James Valentine, brother of the groom, and Mr. Charles Richardson.

The popularity of the couple was evidenced by the large number of handsome presents received.

Goodwin—Moon.

A very quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hancock this afternoon at two o'clock.

The bride and groom were united in marriage by Rev. J. R. Daniel, only a very few near relatives were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin took the east-bound train and will go to Newport News, where they will make their future home.

Clark—Nock.

Mr. Walter Clark, of Portsmouth, and Mrs. Eva Nock, of this city, were married at Washington-Avenue Methodist church this afternoon by Rev. Asa Driscoll, of Gloucester.

It had been expected that the three battalions of the regiment would be paid off simultaneously on next Thursday evening, and that the mustering out would be completed at an early hour.

The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's father, near Red Hill, Albemarle county.

Tomlin—Gay.

This morning at 11 o'clock Mr. W. W. Tomlin and Miss Anna L. Gay were married at the residence of the bride's father, near Red Hill, Albemarle county.

Pravel—Falkenstsein.

LURAY, April 25.—A lovely April wedding took place today at 5 o'clock P. M., in the Main Street Baptist church.

The bride, Miss Lillian Pearl Falkenstsein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Falkenstsein, is a young lady of remarkable personal charm and rare excellence of character.

The groom, Mr. William A. Pravel, formerly a resident of this town, is now a stenographer in the office of the Southern Railway Company at Norfolk, Va.

The altar was banked with palm, fern and blossoming plants, and the church was crowded with the friends of the young couple, who are deservedly popular here.

The bride wore an exquisitely dainty gown of white organdy over silk, and carried Brude's roses.

Miss Ethel Lynn Berry, also wore white organdy, but carried La France roses.

Mr. Edward Weaver acted as best man.

At Berry's.

The presentation took place immediately after the speech of the bride, and the occasion was made by Captain Yateman, the adjutant of the regiment.

Lieutenant Spencer, who was taken utterly by surprise, replied briefly in his well-known modest manner, thanking the members of the company for the presentation.

Just as the ceremony had all work would always form one of the proudest moments in the recollection of his army life.

Sergeant Dillard, of Company M, is held up at the general hospital with a fractured foot, and will not be able to go home with his company.

He received his injury several days ago while participating in some athletic exercise, but his condition is by no means serious.

PARTY LEADERS IN LYNCHBURG

Senator Martin and Other Well-Known Democrats There Yesterday

A VERY ROMANTIC MARRIAGE

Young Lady Visitor to the City Takes a Trip to Roxboro and Returns a Bride—A Home Wedding—Furnace Property Sold.

LYNCHBURG, Va., April 26.—Special.—Senator Thomas S. Martin is here today, and a number of other gentlemen well known in politics.

Senator Martin and other well-known Democrats were here yesterday for a short stay.

The number at the hotel where Senator Martin is stopping is quite large.

The Senator is expected to remain here for a few days.

At a meeting of the congregation of Grace-Memorial Episcopal church last night it was decided to make an addition to the church to accommodate the Sunday school.

Mr. Robert Gilmore Leftwich and Miss Lucy Lee Anderson, daughter of Mr. W. H. Anderson, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, on Eighth street, at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE

Mr. L. P. Dillon and wife are registered here, and when they will go to Indian Hook, where Mr. Dillon is engaged in business.

Mrs. Dillon was Miss M. E. Morton, daughter of Dr. Morton, of Pamplin, and for some time past has been visiting friends in this city.

She was here a day or so ago and has been staying at the Arlington. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Dillon, Miss Morton and their friend, Mr. H. M. Tutwiler, of this city, took the Lynchburg and Durham train to Roxboro.

They were met there by a minister of that town. This evening they returned to the city and are receiving the congratulations of friends.

OLD PLANT SOLD

Deeds were recorded today transferring from Henry Flanders, trustee, to the Lynchburg Hardware Manufacturing Company the old furnace property on the canal for $5,000 cash.

The company is the successor of the Lynchburg Brass Works and recently purchased the Norfolk Lock Works, of Roanoke. Machinery of the latter will be brought here and the plant put in operation as soon as practicable.

The industry will be an important one.

CUTTING OUT.

Potomac Fisheries Close—Interesting Ball Game—Old Fellows Meet.

PHOENIX, Ky., April 25.—Special.—At the celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of Old Fellowship, which was largely attended, speeches were made by Dr. James P. Thompson, Capt. S. J. Quinn, Messrs. R. McCallie, A. B. Howerling, J. M. McCoy, H. R. Grindling, and Dr. H. Ed. had been beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The bride and groom were preceded by the ushers, Messrs. R. J. Gould, R. Y. Baker, Charles W. Anderson and Earnest P. Burgess, and the little flower-bearers Misses Clara and Lottie Pitts.

After the ceremony, amid the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends, the happy couple boarded the east-bound train for Richmond, where they will make their future home at No. 215 North Twelfth street.

GILL—FOSTER.

Two of Farmville's Most Popular Young People Made Man and Wife.

FARMVILLE, Va., April 26.—Special.—At 4:15 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Nathaniel Madison Gill, one of Farmville's most popular young men, was married to Miss Martha Miller Foster, niece of Mr. D. T. Elam, of this place.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. McN. Simpson, pastor of the contracting parties, in Mr. Elam's