of dollars. For our part, while we think of course, that every point should be well guarded so as to protect public interests.

AS OTHERS DO NOT SEE US-FORTUNATELY.

The Washington Post says: "An example of the manner in which anti-American prejudice is fostered in some portions of Europe has been brought to the attention of the State Department in the issue of La Post Marcellais, of Marseilles, France, of the 7th instant.

Why this should have been brought to the attention of the State Department of the United States Government is not very apparent.

The French publication is, of course, a libel upon Virginia since we have no law for punishing malefactors by flagging.

There is much anxiety in South Carolina concerning the condition of Governor Elieher.

but if Sarah is left to herself we should say she would play it lean.

Those enthusiastic young office-holders who wanted to buy Dewey a house are nearing the stage where they will have to appoint a "Cohn" Harvey collector.

Testa says he can signal to Mars. Of course he can, but can Nick get Mars to do anything in the line of reply.

The interest in Grover Cleveland's fishing trip looks very much like the old ante-nomination symptoms of other years.

The Lake City S. C. citizens are requesting the re-establishment of the postoffice there. The government will see that the next colored postmaster there is fully armored.

SOUTHERN NOTES.

It is not all fun and merriment in the Senatorial campaign in Mississippi.

At one of their discussions the other day Allen charged that the Governor had promised the attorney of Ivo Miller, the young man who recently killed Banker McDonald, of Greenwood, for the alleged betrayal of his client, to pardon Miller should the trial result in his conviction.

Allen said that he had received his information from Judge Coleman, Miller's attorney, and it is now a question of veracity between that gentleman and the Governor. It is feared that there will be a fight before the difficulty is finally settled.

There is much anxiety in South Carolina concerning the condition of Governor Elieher.

Allen Joe, a famous character in Florida, arrived in Miami the other day bringing with him the largest crocodile ever captured in that section of the State.

The town of Albion, Ga., has set up a little Confederate museum of its own under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy.
