RUSSELL GIBBINS
AT SEASHORE
Squire Lonnie Gove Does the Honors in the Police Court.

HAS TO DEAL WITH THE JONESSES
A Case Comes Up from Black Byrd Incident Illustrating Certain Social Rules in That Locality - A Pitchfork and a Knife.

Justice John took a rest yesterday from his onerous labors and Squire Lonnie Gove occupied the bench while the Great Dispenser was sporting in the briny along with a Sunday school picnic at Buckroe Beach.

Everything passed off just as nice as if he was there and the result of the forings showed that there was an old hand at the helm.

The Joneses are the beta pair of the Great Dispenser, and hearing that another of the Jones boys were under arrest, he fled the city.

Another Jones.
W. T. Jones was the representative of this great family name yesterday in company with Charles Houser answered to three charges.

Drunk and beating on the street.
Being disorderly in the Second Police Station and cursing and abusing the officers.

Defacing the property of the city at the Second Station.
Policeman Walton found them annoying every passer-by and arrested the precious pair. He was quite a hero in the eyes of the force for having successfully landed them and taken them to jail.

At the station house the men amused themselves by calling for water and when it was brought to them throwing it in the officers' faces.

Thomas Farmer was charged with beating Mary Conway, with assaulting and making proposals to Daisy Conway, 25 years old, and with teasing Joseph Conway.

There was also a charge against Mrs. Mary Conway for assaulting Thomas Farmer with a rock.

Mr. Farmer told all about it first. He said Mary Conway's father died and she started out to sell the two cows that she had on the farm.

Mr. Farmer would not surrender his bargain, though Mrs. Conway accused him of the back fence and when she caught him outside the yard she chased him with a big rock.

Mr. Farmer had a fine array of witnesses to testify to the standing of the Conways in Black Byrd Island society and the charges made against him by the Conway family in this case.

Thomas Light appeared in court with his head in Aseptic dressing according to the most approved style of modern surgery and on the stand told how Grant Walker most aggressively picked a row with him while they were peacing stems in a car at 24th and Cary Streets.

Thomas Light did not put them on the pile to suit Thomas Grant Walker and after having each other for the space of some hours they got into a mix-up on the floor of the car, and then Light was cut over the forehead.

PITCHFORK AND KNIFE.
The testimony was that there was a pitchfork in the car and the etc. of a colored lawyer was to make it appear that the wound was made by the pitchfork.

Dr. Goode said it was a knife or some other sharp cutting instrument, and the wound had not been made with a pitchfork.

Squire Lonnie played trumps and sent the case to the grand jury.

He disposed of several other tramping cases and cleared the docket without having perspired a bit.

A DISTINGUISHED GUEST.
Mrs. Stonewall Jackson at the C. M. I.
S. Meeting.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society held its last meeting of the summer at the Confederate Museum yesterday at noon, Mrs. Joseph Bryan presiding.

TRUSTEE'S AUCTION SALE OF THAT HIGHLY IMPROVED AND VERY VALUABLE STOCK FARM, KNOWN
"WHITBY," FRONTING ON JAMES RIVER, ABOUT TWO MILES FROM RICHMOND, IN CHESTERFIELD
COUNTY, VA.

By virtue of a deed of trust, dated April 15, 1898, and recorded in the clerk's office of Chesterfield County Court, in D. B.
No. 150, page No. 484, delinquent, having been made in favor of the undersigned, trustee, and being directed to do by the holder thereof, the undersigned, trustee, will offer for sale, at public auction, on the premises, on TUESDAY, THE 11TH DAY OF JULY, 1899, at 5 o'clock P. M., the Farm known as "WHITBY," containing about 100 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, fronting on James River, and being improved with a Petroleum Turbine, and other buildings.

This land is in the highest state of cultivation, and embraces about one hundred acres of very fertile land, which easily yields sixty bushels of corn per acre. The annual hay crop is about one hundred tons. The buildings are a very handsome manor, containing four bedrooms, bathroom and modern conveniences, a two-story house, quarters, stable for seventy (70) horses, hay racks, etc. This property has been in the hands of the trustee for some time, and is in the highest state of cultivation, and is one of the most valuable farms in the vicinity of Richmond.

In addition to the above, there is a stock farm containing about 100 acres, and an attractive country place, all exceptionally valuable for the following purposes:

1. Its frontage of about one-half a mile on James River, which at this point is about two feet deeper than at Richmond, makes it a valuable site for manufacturing and shipping purposes. The probability is better site than this for a large shipyard and dry-dock.

2. Its location on the James River, and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

3. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

4. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

5. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

6. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

7. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

8. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

9. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

10. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a
quarry or for the manufacture of brick.

11. Its location on the James River,
and its proximity to the city of Richmond, makes it a valuable site for a quarry or for the manufacture of brick.
