GREAT MEETING OF THE MONTH

Preparation for the Baptist Young People's Union.

WHERE DELEGATES WILL STAY.

A List of Those Who are Willing to Accommodate Them — Grand Work of the Choir—"The Resurrection."

Considerable interest is now being manifested in the International Convention of the Baptist Young People's Union, which will assemble in Richmond on July 13th and remain in session until the 18th.

Should the weather be pleasant it is probable that 10,000 or 12,000 persons will be present, and the lowest estimate places the number at 8,000.

The Baptists of Richmond and the citizens generally are making every effort to provide suitable accommodations for this vast host, and there is no doubt that they will be entertained in a manner which will fully sustain that reputation for hospitality of which Richmond is justly proud.

COMMITTEES PREPARING.

For weeks committees appointed by the local unions of the Baptist Young People's Union have been engaged in making extensive preparations for the event, and they have received the earnest co-operation from the people of Richmond in their efforts.

The question of furnishing accommodations for the thousands of visitors is recognized as quite a serious one, and the committee in charge of that branch of the work have been very anxious on that point.

Richmond College has come to the rescue, however, and it is believed there will be no further trouble. The buildings and dormitories will be turned over to the visitors. Hundreds of cots will be put in the rooms and halls, and a very large number can thus be accommodated. The campus is a very cool place, and those who are lodged there will doubtless be very comfortable.

Another feature of the convention which the appropriate committee has been arranging for some weeks is in regard to furnishing amusement and recreation for the city's guests.

In this line considerable headway has been made, and those who come will have no occasion to complain of lack of attention.

THE CONVENTION CONCERT.

In preparing for the coming of the convention probably no committee has had so difficult a task as that which has confronted the Music Committee. From the first it was the purpose of these gentlemen to have the music of the convention of 1899 the best that has ever been furnished. With this idea in view they began a systematic canvass of the various churches of all denominations, both in Richmond and Manchester, and enrolled a choir of over 300 picked singers, and for three weeks this great chorus has been meeting three times a week for rehearsal. Eight rehearsals have been held in Richmond and three in Manchester, and the committee feel that they have the work well in hand. Prof. H. W. Porter, the competent musical director, has been untiring in his efforts to have the musical part of the programme a grand success, and has imparted to his choir a great deal of his zeal and enthusiasm. In this work he has been ably assisted by Prof. Ernest Cosby and Prof. Leslie Watson, his accompanists.

THE RESURRECTION.

Besides the usual hymns to be sung during the convention, the great chorus is rehearsing Prof. Porter's cantata of "The Resurrection," with the purpose of producing this work, with soloists, orchestra, and the full chorus, on the evening of July 12th. This concert will give the people of this city the opportunity of hearing the chorus at its best and will give the visitors a chance to hear some of Richmond's best soloists.

Arrangements have been made with Mrs. Gunn, Miss Diggs, Mr. Bowes, Mr. Lohman, Mrs. Brown, and Captain Cunningham for the solo work of the cantata, or for individual numbers. The cantata was written by Prof. Porter in prayer and both words and music suggest the piety and consecration of the author. The words were selected from the Scriptures, from the poems of Ter Steegen von Sass and others who loved God in past centuries, with supplementary poetry by Mrs. M. E. Shorey, of Baltimore. They are throughout scriptural and are earnestly recommended to the thoughtful consideration of those who may hear them. The music of the cantata was written by Prof Porter alone. It constantly yields to and is swayed by the thought of the words, and so is intensely dramatic in the best sense of the word.

A FULL CHORUS.

The first number, "The Glorious Name," is a full chorus, opening with a chorus of male voices, and introducing a mixed quartette. Number two, "Sharing His Sorrow," is a bass solo with male quartette. Number three, "The Dawn is Now Breaking," is a chorus for female voices with tenor recitative. "The Walk to the Republ-here," the fourth number, introduces five of the soloists in solos, duets, and trios. The fifth number, "Behold there was a Great Earthquake," is a chorus with tenor solo. This is followed by "The Thirst of God," a soprano solo with choral accompaniment, one of the sweetest numbers of the cantata. Number seven, "With the Rosy Light," is a bass recitative with duet for soprano and alto. Number eight is a male chorus with tenor solo. Number nine, "Now is Christ Risen from the Dead," is a chorus with soprano solo. Number ten is a mixed quartette, "Behold! He Cometh." Number eleven, "Christ Being Raised," is the closing number, and consists of a chorus with solos for four voices.

The choir are so much pleased with the cantata and have attacked the difficult passages with so much enthusiasm that the director has been able to accomplish this great work with much less difficulty than was at first anticipated.

Too much praise cannot be given them for their constant attendance upon the rehearsals and the excellent work they have done. There will be full rehearsals at the Second Baptist church, corner of Main and Sixth streets, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday nights of this week, and all the singers are urged to attend.

The Unions will hold a big meeting at the Second Baptist church, when there will be speeches by the chairmen of various committees outlining their work. Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson will also make an address.

The office of the Entertainment Committee has been established at No. 1212 east Main street, in the office of the Washington Life Insurance Company. It will be open each day from 9 A. M., to 7 P. M., and all information required will be cheerfully given.

The committee in charge of arranging stopping places for the delegates to the convention has been busily at work, and up to the present time has enrolled the names of a number of residents, who will take care of 3,004 of the visitors. INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE.

Epworth Leagues to Meet July 20th in Indianapolis

The fourth International Conference of the Epworth Leagues of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada, the Methodist Episcopal Church (North) and the Methodist Episcopal Church (South) will convene in Indianapolis, Ind., July 20-23.

Those who will go from this city and vicinity will go by the way of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, leaving here July 19th at 2:45 P. M., and arriving at Indianapolis the next morning at 11:30 A. M., thus giving those who attend from our city an opportunity to be at the opening exercises.

This convention will celebrate the tenth anniversary of the League in the Methodist Church. The ablest preachers and speakers from the three great Methodisms will be on the programme and the young people will have an opportunity of seeing and hearing men of national reputation.

The singing will be of a high order. Professors Excell, Hemphill and Black will conduct the singing at the different places of meeting.

Bishops from the Northern and Southern Methodist Churches will also be there.

During the meeting President McKinley, who is an Epworth Leaguer, will take part on the programme.

Revs. E. H. Rawlings, C. L. Bane and W. B. Beauchamp, of our city, will make addresses at the convention.

It is expected that between seventy-five and one hundred will attend the convention from Richmond and Manchester. The New England and Brooklyn delegates will visit Richmond after the convention and will make the Jefferson their headquarters during their stay here.
