FOUR IN FIELD FOR CLERKSHIP

A Pretty Race For a Very Desirable Office.

ALL ARE MEN YOUNG IN YEARS

Messrs. Bigger, Boykin, Gooch and Mann the Aspirants—Something Personal About the Aspirants.

There are only four candidates in the field for Clerk of the House of Delegates and Keeper of the Rolls of Virginia, but several other persons are likely to enter the race.

This position was filled for many years

THOMAS H. BIGGER.

by the late Colonel John Bell Bigger, who made a model officer. After his death Governor Tyler appointed the Colonel's son, Mr. Thomas H. Bigger, to fill out the unexpired term. He is a candidate for election to the full term. His opponents are Messrs. Clarence T. Boykin, of Richmond; W. S. Gooch, of Louisa, and William Henry Mann, of Petersburg. The fight promises to be a very lively one. All the candidates are hustling and are organizing their forces. The nomination for this position will be made by the caucus of Democratic members of the House the night before the General Assembly convenes in December.

MR. T. H. BIGGER.

Mr. Bigger will be thirty-five years old in September. He is the eldest son of the late clerk, and inherits many of the noble qualities of his father. For many years he was associated with Col. Bigger in the office work, and served two terms as his chief clerk. Col. Thomas Whitehead, the late commissioner of agriculture, appointed him a clerk in his office and Commissioner Redner retained him in that position, which Mr. Bigger recently resigned to succeed his father.

Mr. Bigger is one of the most courteous officials of the State Government. He is polite by nature as well as by training. This is a quality his father possessed in an eminent degree.

The young clerk has a wide acquaintance with members of the Legislature, and with other public men. He is exceedingly popular with all who know him.

MR. C. T. BOYKIN.

Mr. Boykin was born in Suffolk, Va., on February 6, 1859. He is a son of the late Major Samuel H. Boykin, who represented his county and district in the House of Delegates and the Senate, resigning when appointed by Governor Kemper, register of the land office, which position he filled until his death. Mr. Boykin attended the Richmond schools and afterwards travelled for a Richmond tobacco house. Several years ago he became a reporter on the Washington Post, resigning it to engage in journalistic work in Richmond. He has held a position on the Dispatch for about six years, during which time he has reported the proceedings of the House of Delegates for his paper.

Mr. Boykin is widely known among the members of the Legislature and public men generally. Many of them are his staunch friends. He has had opportunities of becoming quite familiar with the duties of the office, and his friends believe that he would make a capable and useful official should the honor come to him. He has always been a Democrat and worker for his party.

JUDGE W. S. GOOCH.

Judge Gooch was born at Louisa on August 4, 1836, and has spent most of his life there. He is a son of Mr. S. D. Gooch, the well known railroad contractor. He was educated at home and at Norwood College and the University of Virginia. In 1880 he commenced the practice of law at Louisa and was elected Judge of the County Court by the Legislature chosen in 1885. He served four years on the bench and resigned in 1890, and went to Roanoke to live. In 1884 he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney of that city, but served only a short time; a Republican succeeding him as the result of a contest which the courts decided in his favor. The judge gave up the practice of law and quit Roanoke in 1895. It was his purpose to engage in the railroad contracting business, but scarcity of work prevented this. Col. Bigger made him enrolling clerk of the House in 1895, and reappointed him in 1897. In 1896 he was elected secretary and purchasing agent of the Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind, which position he now holds. He has always been a Democrat and taken an active interest in all political campaigns and was especially identified prominently with politics in the Eighth Congressional District. The idea of becoming a candidate for the position of clerk of the House of Delegates was first suggested by some of the most prominent members of that body.

Col. Bigger wrote of Judge Gooch a few years ago:

"He has a splendid memory, hardly ever, if ever, forgetting faces and the place where any particular bill or act could be found in the crowded receptacles for each. His habits are excellent, and the amiability of his nature stands boldly out along with his firm observance of official obligations. Judge Gooch has large personal acquaintance with gentlemen in all avocations and his pleasure in giving a hearing to the humblest whose visit has not been heralded by any special lofty deed of mind or body is equal to that in which he gracefully extends to the more favored in what is called the higher walks of life. He is a believer in the all-merciful Saviour, 'who doeth all things right, and he recognizes that he who acts well his part is entitled to the honor and fame which is awarded to true merit.'"

MR. WILLIAM HENRY MANN.

Mr. Mann is about thirty years of age, and is a member of the House from Petersburg, his native city. He has been active in politics ever since he was a boy, and there are few, if any, Democrats in the Fourth District who have rendered the party more faithful service. He comes of a family noted for its excellent men and women. Mr. Mann became one of Col. Bigger's assistants nearly ten years ago, and was regarded by the colonel as one of the most efficient men that ever served under him. He was a great favorite of the late lamented clerk.

Mr. Mann was admitted to the bar a few years ago, and has since practiced his profession. He was made assistant and district attorney under Mr. Cleveland's last administration, and went out of office with Major Lassiter. They lost their positions for participation in politics in the exciting campaign of 1896.

When Governor Tyler came into office he made Mr. Mann a member of his staff.

Mr. Mann is popular with all who know him. His manners are agreeable and he makes friends wherever he is known.

They will reach Philadelphia at 2:30 P. M., where they will be met by a Reception Committee.

The crew is now in pink of condition, and is confident of winning. The Virginia Boat Club has been given the choice position on the course, and the other crews that will row against the Virginians are from the Crescent Boat Club, of Philadelphia, and of the University Barge Club, of that city.

The crew of the Virginia Boat Club will stop at the Colonade Hotel, and the headquarters will be at the Malta Boat Club. The prize to be given will be a banner to the winning crew, and a gold medal to each of its members.

OUR NATIONAL DEFICIT.

For the Fiscal Year Was Less Than at First Predicted.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Contrary to expectations of the Treasury officials, the government expenditures during the fiscal year closed yesterday exceeded the receipts by only $38,875,269. One month ago, the officials predicted that the deficit might not exceed $100,000,000, but at no time up to a few days ago was it expected the amount would be less than $50,000,000. This unlooked for result is accounted for by exceptionally heavy receipts from customs and internal revenue sources, and a marked falling off in expenditures.

It is not expected that this condition will continue during the coming months when the new appropriations become available. A deficit for July may be looked for, although there was a surplus for the month of June of $15,854,143.

DANVILLE'S NEW ATTORNEY.

Geo. C. Cabell, Jr., Succeeds His Father—Suit Compromised.

DANVILLE, VA., July 1.—Special.—At a called meeting of the City Council, held to-day, Colonel George C. Cabell, Jr., was elected city attorney to succeed his father, Hon. George C. Cabell, Sr.

Messrs. H. R. Miller and N. T. Green were his opponents. The following additional officers were elected: N. F. Reid, fire marshal; William Taylor, clerk of the market; C. D. Slaughter, keeper of cemeteries.

The case of George E. Lutz vs. J. Goldsmith & Co., which has figured in the courts for two years, and has once been to the Supreme Court of Appeals, was to-day compromised, the defendant paying the plaintiff $800, and the costs of the case.

JAMAICAN RECIPROCITY.

A Treaty Concluded with that Island and the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—A reciprocity treaty with Jamaica was concluded at the State Department to-day at a conference between Commissioner Kasson, on behalf of the United States, and Mr. Trower, the British Charge D'Affaires. The Jamaican treaty is now being forwarded to Kingston, for the approval of the Colonial authorities, and when this is given the formal signing of the instrument will occur. The Jamaican Tariff Commission left this afternoon, going first to Ottawa to confer with the Canadian authorities. All parties concerned in the negotiations here have been placed under the strictest reserve and it is said that the discussion of the details of the convention just concluded might prove prejudicial to both countries. It is known, however, that the convention concluded to-day is under Section 4 of the Dingley tariff law, providing for a reciprocity treaty, and is not a mere "arrangement," as provided for by Section 3, of the act. The concessions given to Jamaica differ materially to those allowed the other British West Indian colonies, mainly because of the recent tariff law, enacted by Jamaica, which had special application to the United States.

Its Anniversary Celebrated Yesterday at Fort Thomas.

CINCINNATI, O., July 1.—The anniversary of the battle of San Juan was celebrated at Fort Thomas to-day. Citizens of Cincinnati, Covington, Newport and vicinity have placed on one side of the stone water tower at Fort Thomas, a fine tablet in honor of Colonel Egbert, who fell at Manila. On the other side of the tower is a rich tablet in memory of other fallen heroes of the Sixth Infantry. These tablets were unveiled to-day before a multitude of people, with addresses by Major-General Nelson A. Miles, Senator Foraker and others.

Miss Wetherill, a daughter of the late Captain Wetherill and Miss Mason, a niece of the late Lieutenant Ord, unveiled the tablets amid the national salute, followed by music by massed bands.

Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The statement of the public debt at the close of the fiscal year 1899, shows that the debt less cash in the Treasury amounted to $1,105,220,275, which is a decrease as compared with June, 1898, of $11,217,171. This decrease is accounted for by a corresponding increase in the cash on hand.
