

The Times.

THE TIMES COMPANY.

THE DAILY TIMES is served by carriers on their own account in this city and Manchester for 2 cents a week...

THE WEEKLY TIMES—issued and mailed in two parts—One dollar a year by mail—anywhere in the United States...

THE TIMES is always indebted to friends who favor it with orders and remittances...

THE MAILING LIST IS ONLY PRINTED ABOUT TEN DAYS THEREFORE, DO NOT FEEL UNEASIFIED...

WE DESIRE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF ALL PERSONS SENDING POLITICAL NEWS AND OTHER COMMUNICATIONS TO THE TIMES...

WHAT WILL THE ISSUE BE? Less than one year since between this and the time when the various States...

WE have nothing to do with the efforts of the Republicans to bring forward a platform upon which their party can unite...

WE are firmly convinced that the candidate and platform of 1890 cannot win in 1900, and in this we have from every direction the most confirming reports...

THE cycle will say Dewey's letter is diplomatic, and any sort of a letter is excused in diplomacy, provided it be polite and good mannered...

IT seems strange at first sight that German sympathy should have been so strongly against us in our war with Spain as it appeared to be...

IT looked to me at the time as if the silver issue would be strong enough to carry the country. The fight was made—and its defeat followed...

THE "midway," of course, will blossom as the rose, and the aggregated eccentricities of the world will combine in glorious fashion to contribute to the unity of nations...

WE were confident that when it came to patent churns, bicycles, folding beds, and threshing machines our country was all right...

AMERICAN police have been notified by the German Ambassador at Paris to arrest Alphonse Melani, aged thirty-five years...

THE other day I changed to meet within a certain town. As I was walking down the street...

So serious and grave looked he I really did not know him. The usual, sudden bow...

When first upon the slender hand he slipped the little shining ring. A dewdrop trembling on a band...

So serious and grave looked he I really did not know him. The usual, sudden bow...

Smith's life saved by Pocahontas. The Pamunkeys inhabit their own island in the James river...

The noble red man should be added to the full limit of the country's exchequer. Send over the Pamunkeys by all means...

The Baltic Sea averages one wreck a day, and thus becomes something of a rival of the matrimonial sea.

Sampson evidently used the wireless telegraph for his congratulations on Schley Day.

Croker's telegram to Tammany arrived before he heard of the remarks of ex-Governor Hogg.

Von Dietrich is apparently allowed freely on the firing line as long as he throws nothing but bouquets.

Jerry Simpson finds that his remarks got a larger circulation in the Congressional Record than they got in the Bayonet.

Roosevelt's declaration in favor of McKinley has a flavor of a "paid reading notice" about it.

The Chicago platform is displaying the fact that a good deal of sap lumber was used in its construction.

Hon. Jobaily seemed to get through the patriotic season without exploding a single oratorical fire-cracker.

The preparations of the South Carolinians for a big octopus hunt will be hailed with joy by the newly-appointed colored postmasters.

We hope in event of the Pamunkeys playing in Paris that John Smith will not be made too lean.

Mr. James Hay is in favor of dropping Mr. Bryan's military record. The country ought at least to be as willing to drop it as "Colonel" Bryan was.

There is a purpose now on foot in South Carolina to form an alliance of farmers, merchants and others to fight the trust. They are getting ready for a big fight.

While fighting a gasoline stove to prepare breakfast the other day, Mrs. Martha Thomas, of Chattanooga, was burned to death.

Milly Stevens, an antebellum negro, died at her home in Lexington, Ga., several days ago, aged 84 years.

Two young men of North Carolina have gone to Florida, where they will engage in the operation of a chicken farm on a large scale.

A negro minister has been arrested in Tampa, Fla., charged with arson. The evidence shows that he set fire to his store in order to get the insurance carried on it.

Not only is the boll worm ruining the cotton crop in Georgia, but the farmers are threatened with a new disaster in the shape of a blight or "black rot."

Tutt's Pills Cure All Liver Ills. Save Your Money. One box of Tutt's Pills will save many dollars in doctors' bills...

Hindenburg, while she was stopping at a hotel in Pisa, Italy. An aggregate reward of about $500 is offered for the suspect's arrest and the recovery of the jewels.

W. J. Elliott, former Superintendent of State Printing, Ohio, and editor of the Sunday Capital, who killed Albert Osborne, a rival editor, and killed an innocent bystander, on February 23, 1891...

Edward H. Kinsey Post III, G. A. R., of Boston, has presented a sword to General Joseph Wheeler. In his letter acknowledging the gift the General says: "That a warrior of the gray should, after these long years, receive so arduous a testimonial from the wearers of the blue, proves that the nation's heroes are not forgotten."

A battle is imminent between a sheriff's posse and Elias Hatfield, Jr., and his sympathizers, who have been cornered in the mountains of Kentucky.

Mr. Henderson refused to say when the committee inquired in default, after which he paid the fine under protest and will now test the loyalty of the court's action.

Mr. Henderson's troubles with the Mabel Committee arose over his refusal to answer certain questions. He was finally ordered to leave the room, and on his refusal to do so Sergeant-Army Crawford was ordered to remove him.

Decided. "So you have decided to spend the summer in the country this year?" "No, sir, I have not. My wife has decided it."—Philadelphia North American.

A Frank Confession. Watchmaker—Your watch seems to be erratic. Have you had it near a powerful magnet? Customer—(confused)—Why, I was carrying it last evening with Miss Bright.—Jewelry Weekly.

Getting at the Facts. Grandma—What time did Mr. Lippincott leave last night, Gracie? Gracie—Why, grandma, he started home at— Grandma (mildly)—Never mind when he started; I asked you when he left.—Brooklyn Life.

A Second Victor Hugo. "Man, he could describe a hankering house, dried beef supper in such language that your mouth would water with desire."—From What-to-Eat.

Blazing the Way. First Explorer—Great Scott, man! what's that striped animal that last snake? Second Explorer—That's a timber rattlesnake. You don't get a pound each mile. Now we can't get loaded, and I'll—Truth.

Unpatriotic. I felt a cracker into the air; It threw a cracker near my grandpa's chair. What he did then was more despotic, To my child's mind, than patriotic. —Philadelphia North American.

Tobacco. The girl who smokes No aid invokes No aid invokes She breathes the swain, Since it is plain, She has one friend—to back her. —London Punch.

Real Mean. Flossie—I don't care, I think Jack Townley is real mean. Flossie—He was to me from Florida, saying he had shot an alligator seven feet long, and said when he shot another he would have a pair of slippers made for me.—Harris Life.

Accommodating. "I was going to ask you to take lunch with me today," said one Board of Trade man to another, "but Sims says he has invited you. Sorry he got in ahead of me." "What time do you lunch?" "At 11." "Fortunate, Sims takes his at 12. I'll be with you."—Detroit Free Press.

Dan Caud, B. A. The other day I changed to meet Within a certain town. As I was walking down the street— Dan Caud was walking down; His air was sober and discreet— He wore a cap and gown.

So serious and grave looked he I really did not know him. The usual, sudden bow...

When first upon the slender hand he slipped the little shining ring. A dewdrop trembling on a band...
