INTERESTING TALK WITH HIM. He Expects a Large Attendance of Delegates—All the Speakers to Be Present—Charleston After the Convention of 1901.

Dr. E. E. Chivers, of Chicago, General Secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union, and editor of the official organ of the Union, arrived in Richmond yesterday and established his headquarters at the Jefferson, where he will assist in arranging for the great union which begins here next Thursday.

Dr. Chivers is a most pleasant and approachable man and possesses great force of character and intellect.

He is enthusiastic concerning the work of the Baptist Young People's Union, which, he says, along emotional lines, is doing great good throughout the country.
