BUSINESS MEN OF MANCHESTER

Kansas City Firm Wants to Locate Across the River.

BUSINESS IN MAYOR'S COURT.

Secret Societies Elect Officers—Pretty Marriage at Bon Air—His Wheat Burned—Cake Walk—Personal and News Notes.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, 1112 Hull street, Beattie Block.

Mr. Clarence Vaden, secretary of the Business Men's Association, has received a letter from a large manufacturing house in Kansas City, asking for information in reference to locating here.

The firm has heard of Manchester's superb location, and they are desirous of locating in this section of the country.

Secretary Vaden sent all information concerning inducements that may be offered here in reference to taxation, location and railroad facilities.

The association meets in regular session next Wednesday night at Toney's Hall, and business of some importance will be transacted. The Editing committee will report progress on the proposed pamphlet description of the city and its advantages, and the committee appointed to wait upon the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina railroad in reference to the location of shops here, will also probably report.

A large attendance is expected at this meeting.

MAYOR MAURICE'S COURT.

Mayor Maurice had several cases before him yesterday morning.

Mr. W. S. Burton, the Richmond billposter, was charged with posting bills in this city without first procuring a license.

He was fined $2.50 by the Mayor, and when he evinced a tendency to argue the point he was fined an additional $5. This brought out further argument on the part of Mr. Burton and the ante was raised $10 more. Then a halt was made in the arguments, and a compromise was effected by Mr. Burton's placing $5 in hands of the treasurer.

James Dame, colored, was fined $2.50 for keeping an unlicensed dog, and was required to secure a license as well.

A prominent merchant was fined $10 because the license on his wagon was not properly displayed. He promptly took an appeal.

The following officers of Davis Council, No. 27, J. O. U. A. M., have been elected:

Junior Past Councillor, M. M. Maynor; Councillor, T. M. Carr; Vice-Councillor, C. E. Walthall; Recording Secretary, J. C. Munn; Assistant Recording Secretary, J. F. Neister; Financial Secretary, A. L. Simpson; Treasurer, S. H. Andrews; Conductor, W. S. Adams; Warden, W. E. Gill; Inside Sentinel, T. L. Turner; Outside Sentinel, R. S. Taylor; Chaplain, W. L. Huband.

TALCOTT—SMITH.

A pretty, but quiet marriage took place at the Presbyterian church at Bon Air, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Loverna Smith became the bride of Mr. Frederick Earl Talcott, Rev. Dr. J. K. Hazen performing the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated. The bride wore a lovely steel-colored dress, trimmed with white, with white hat and gloves. Her father gave the bride away, and her brother was best man. The bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, well known and respected people living near Bon Air. The groom is a young painter of Rio Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. Talcott will live with her parents for the present.

They received quite a number of handsome presents. Just as they started off there was a great shower of rice thrown on them for "good luck."

Howard, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Booth, who died Thursday afternoon at the residence of his parents, 217 east Fifth street, was buried yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in Maury cemetery.

The funeral of the late Miss P. O. Thomas was held from Bainbridge Baptist church at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The interment was in Oakwood.

FIRE DESTROYS WHEAT.

Mr. T. J. Pierce, who lives on his farm just below the city, lost about sixty bushels of wheat Thursday afternoon by fire that caught from sparks blowing from a threshing machine. This is a considerable loss. Mr. Pierce some time ago lost his home by fire, and several times he has lost considerably from high water in the river.

Mr. John Cole, of Broad Rock road, gave his friends a most enjoyable entertainment at his residence Wednesday night. There was a large number present, and they all had a good time.

The event of the evening was the cake walk by little Misses Blanch Tignor and Skipple Cole.

Opachista Tribe, No. 76, Red Men, met Thursday night and elected the following officers:

Prophet, Chas. T. Jones; Sachem, J. H. D. Johnson; Senior Sagamar, G. A. Moore; Junior Sagamar, G. S. Barrett; Chief of Records, R. E. Criddle; Keeper of Wampum, W. C. Clements; Keeper of Wigwam, W. H. Marshall; First Sannap, B. W. Criddle; Second Sannap, Homer Wills; Warriors, Jno. A. Jones, L. H. Clements, R. L. Jones, E. P. Howe; Braves, G. W. Temple, J. B. Turnley, T. L. Cersley, and C. L. Pettit.

I. O. O. F.

At a regular meeting of Henderson Lodge No. 165, I. O. O. F., held Thursday night, the second degree was conferred on one candidate, after which the D. D. G. Master, J. G. Saunders, of this district, assisted by Past Grand C. S. Wells of Henderson Lodge, as Grand Marshall, installed the following officers for the next term:

Past Grand, W. S. Green; Noble Grand, C. W. Roach; Vice-Grand, J. T. Bullock; Secretary, Matthew Morton; Treasurer, O. J. Markham; Chaplain, J. W. Toney; Warden, W. T. Hart; Conductor, C. S. Wells; R. S. to Noble Grand, W. H. Snead; L. S. to Noble Grand, Marshall A. Jones; Right Scene Supporter, H. A. Maurice; Left Scene Supporter, A. G. Belcher; I. S. Guardian, J. C. Jenks; O. S. Guardian, Ashby Claiborne; Right Supporter to Vice-Grand, J. F. Fege; Left Supporter to Vice-Grand, J. T. Anderson.

A number of the brothers of Stuart Lodge were present, and took part in the work. Several short addresses were made by Past Grand J. G. Saunders, C. S. Wells, Geo. W. Blankenship, E. A. Phillips, W. L. Richardson, W. T. Hart when the meeting adjourned and partook of light refreshments, and a sociable hour was spent and enjoyed by all present.

PERSONAL AND NOTES.

Mrs. Florence Jewitt is very ill at the residence of Mrs. Brown, No. 1812 Bainbridge street.

Judge B. A. Hancock left yesterday morning for Farmville, where he will spend a week or ten days with relatives.

Misses' Susie and Janie Dabney, of Charlottesville, and Mrs. Janvier, of Baltimore, are visiting the family of Mr. J. W. Bronaugh, on Porter street.

Mr. J. C. Dabney, a well-known Norfolk lawyer, who has been visiting in this city, has returned to his home.

Mr. J. H. Nicholas, who has been sick for several days, is better.

The lawn party given at Cowardin-Avenue church Thursday night was quite successful and was well attended.

Mrs. U. S. Rist, of Abbeyville, S. C., is visiting Mr. A. J. White, of east Eleventh street.

Miss Lucy Thornhill, who has been visiting friends in Chesterfield, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. John Goode and daughter, Miss Blair Goode, are visiting Mrs. D. L. Toney.

Miss Maud Jennings is visiting her brother, Rev. Walter Jennings, at Clair, Penn.

The Committee on Finance met in regular session last night and transacted routine work.

Mr. C. T. Bailey, who was badly hurt at Granite Thursday, is getting along nicely at the Retreat for the Sick.

Minstrels Going Away.

Carlin and Clark's minstrels close their most successful engagement at the Auditorium to-night. All the week this clever combination of fun-makers have been playing to large and pleased audiences and it is safe to say they would be welcomed here again with equally an enthusiastic audience. A matinee will be given at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. No vaudeville performances will be given at the Auditorium next week.

AUCTION SALES.—Future Days.

TRUSTEES' AUCTION SALE OF THAT HIGHLY IMPROVED AND VERY VALUABLE STOCK FARM, KNOWN AS

"WHITBY,"

FRONTING ON JAMES RIVER, ABOUT TWO MILES FROM RICHMOND, IN CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, VA.

By virtue of a deed of trust, dated April 15, 1898, and recorded in the clerk's office of Chesterfield County Court, in D. B. No. 95, page No. 484, default having been made in the payment of the note secured thereby, and being directed so to do by the holder thereof, the undersigned, trustees, will offer for sale, at public auction, on the premises, on at 5 o'clock P. M., the FARM known as "WHITBY," containing TWO HUNDRED AND NINETY-NINE (299) ACRES OF LAND, more or less, fronting on James river, extending to and fronting on the Petersburg turnpike.

This land is in the highest state of cultivation, and embraces about one hundred acres of river lowgrounds, which easily yield sixty bushels of corn per acre. The annual hay crop is about one hundred tons. The buildings are a very handsome mansion, containing fourteen rooms, bathroom and modern conveniences; overseer's house, quarters; stable room for seventy (70) horses, hay barns, etc., etc. This property has the reputation of being, and is in reality the most attractive and valuable farm in the vicinity of Richmond.

In addition to its value as a stock farm and an attractive county residence, it is exceptionally valuable for the following purposes:

First. Its frontage of about one-half a mile on James river, which at this point is about two feet deeper than at Richmond, makes it very valuable for manufacturing and shipping purposes. There is probably no better site than this for a large ship-yard and dry-dock.

Second. There is an excellent granite quarry on the property near the river, also, large deposit of brick clay. Splendid shipping facilities both by water and railroad; and—

Third. The electric line that has been recently surveyed from Manchester to Petersburg along the Petersburg turnpike passes immediately in front of the rear part of this farm, thus making it valuable for acreage lots.

TERMS: One-fourth cash and the balance in one, two and three years, deferred payments bearing interest from day of sale, and secured by deed of trust, or the purchaser can make a larger cash payment. If he desires so to do; interest on deferred payments to be paid semi-annually.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF THE EXCHANGE FOR A LONG TIME THE LEADING HOTEL IN THE CITY OF RICHMOND, VA.

In execution of decrees of the Chancery Court for the city of Richmond, in the suit of "Richardson, Trustee, vs. Stuart et als.," entered, respectively, November 17, 1897, January 27, 1899, and June 14, 1899, we will sell, by public auction, on the premises, on at 12 o'clock M., THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, situated at the southeast corner of Franklin and Fourteenth streets, in the city of Richmond, Va.

This hotel is architectually handsome, well planned, thoroughly arranged, and contains, in addition to parlors, offices, kitchens and some stores which will be presently mentioned, about 130 guests' chambers. Its location is near the proposed joint passenger depot of the C. and O. railroad and the R., F. and C. railroad, now an assured fact, which, of course, adds to its desirability and attractiveness as a hotel property. There are in the basement on the Franklin-street front several small stores or offices, which ordinarily command good rentals; and on the Fourteenth-street side are two or three large stores, besides some smaller ones, which add greatly to the value of this property. Of course there are other uses to which this property might be put, such as general offices for some railway system, and other kindred uses.

For particulars address the auctioneer or any of the commissioners.

TERMS: One-fourth cash; the residue on credits of one, two and three years, for notes, with interest added, and secured by deed of trust, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

FRANK W. CHRISTIAN, EUGENE C. MASSIE, JACKSON GUY, A. W. PATTERSON, Special Commissioners.

I hereby certify that the bonds required of the special commissioners by the foregoing decrees have been duly given.

COURT SALE OF

Attractive Villa Sites and Granite Quarries

IN HENRICO COUNTY, NEAR DUMBARTON,

RICHMOND, FREDERICKSBURG AND POTOMAC RAILROAD,

CONTAINING IN ALL 105 35-100 ACRES.

BEING A SUB-DIVISION OF THE FARM FORMERLY OWNED BY THE LATE F. A. SCHULTZ.

By virtue of a decree of Henrico Circuit Court, entered June 21, 1899, in the suit of Peter Copeland and wife vs. A. J. Chewning et als., Trustees, et als., the undersigned, special commissioners thereby appointed for the purpose, will sell, by auction, upon the premises, on at 5:30 o'clock P. M., the above VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, lying between Bloomingdale Stock Farm and Dumbarton, about four miles north of Richmond, on the south side of the county road. This priperty has been subdivided, and will be offered for sale in FIVE-ACRE LOTS, each fronting on the new county road, and running back towards the Brook. This sale offers a fine opportunity to those wishing to combine city with country life. The initiatory has already been made, in that several prominent gentlemen transact their business in the city and reside in this locality. The rear portion of this property, along the Brook, is confidently supposed to contain extensive and inexhaustive granite deposits, being a vein of the valuable quarry now owned and operated by Peter Copeland, will be offered separate. After the above property has been offered in sub-divisions as indicated, it will then be offered as a whole. Maps of the property can be seen at the office of the auctioneers, and also at the sale. This is an unusual opportunity to buy fertile land convenient of access to Richmond, either by daily trains, electric cars, or by private conveyance.

TERMS: One-third cash; the residue in two equal instalments at one and two years, with interest added from day of sale, for which notes are to be given, and title retained until the whole purchase-money is paid and a conveyance is ordered by the Court.

A. J. CHEWNING, EDWARD S. ROSE, CHARLES T. LOEHR, Special Commissioners.

Edward S. Rose Co., Auctioneers.

In the clerk's office of the Circuit Court of the county of Henrico—Copeland and wife, plaintiff, against Schultz, Exor., defendant:

I, J. E. Broaddus, clerk of the said court, do certify that the bond required of the special commissioners by the decree rendered in said cause on the 21st day of June, 1899, has been duly given.

Given under my hand as clerk of the said court, this 27th day of June, 1899.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF SOME OF THE HANDSOMEST

Vacant Lots

IN THE CITY OF MANCHESTER, VA., IN

"Spring Hill,"

NOW CALLED "BELLEVUE."

HERE IS A RARE CHANCE TO GET A HANDSOME LOT OR LOTS OVERLOOKING JAMES RIVER AND THE CITY OF RICHMOND.

ESPECIAL ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THIS SALE.

In execution of the deed of trust of the 7th day of June, 1899, from John C. Robertson to Alexander T. Britton and George E. Emmons, trustees, duly recorded in the clerk's office of the Hustings Court of Manchester, Va., being thereto required in writing by the party secured, the holder of the notes in said deed secured, the undersigned, trustees in said deed, will sell, at public auction, on the premises, on at 11 o'clock A. M. (said sale, if not completed, to be continued from day to day at the same time and place), that property known as "SPRING HILL," lying in the city of Manchester, Va., and bounded as follows:

TUESDAY, THE 11TH DAY OF JULY, 1899,

"All that certain piece or parcel of land lying and being in the city of Manchester, and in the county of Chesterfield, Va., known as Spring Hill, and bounded as follows: On the north by Richmond and Danville railroad, on the west by the line of the Southside Land and Improvement Company, east by Cowardin avenue, and south by a narrow strip of land dividing this property from Semmes avenue;" saving and excepting from said sale certain lots within said boundary more particularly mentioned in a deed of even date with this trust deed from John R. McLean and James J. Faran to said John C. Robertson, special reference being made herein for a more accurate description thereof.

The above-mentioned real estate has since the execution of said trust-deed been purchased subject to the lien thereon by the Bellevue Land Company, and platted and sub-divided into blocks and lots, which plat and sub-division will be exhibited on day of sale, and in the meantime can be seen at the office of the auctioneers; and the undersigned will offer for sale so much thereof, in accordance with said sub-division, as may be deemed necessary to satisfy the said trust-deed.

TERMS OF SALE: On each parcel of land sold, cash as to all proceeds of sales made, until same shall fully satisfy and discharge the expenses of executing the trust and taxes, and the amount of money then payable upon the notes remaining unpaid secured in said trust-deed, principal and interest of said unpaid notes being as follows: $1,883.33, balance of principal due on note for $18,833.33, payable two years from date, with interest on said balance from December 7, 1899, and the whole of note payable at three years after date for $18,833.33, with interest thereon from June 7, 1899, less payment of $900.00 on account of interest, all secured in said trust-deed, and the balance of purchase-money, if any, to be made payable at such times as the said grantor, or his assigns, shall direct, or, in case of his or their failure to give such directions, then upon such terms as said trustees shall see fit.

Elegant Granite Residence

BEING AMONG THE NUMBER.

In execution of a deed of trust from G. H. A. Ball to me, as trustee, dated November 19, 1892, and duly recorded in Henrico County Court, and in compliance with a decree of the Circuit Court of Henrico, entered June 23, 1899, in the suit of "Carneal & Davis, who sues, &c., against Ball's Curator et als.," I will sell, by public auction, on the respective premises, on at 5 o'clock P. M., in the order mentioned below, the following-described PROPERTY—to-wit:

TUESDAY, July 11, 1899,

(1) That LOT OF LAND, with the DWELLING HOUSE and other improvements thereon, fronting 82½ feet on the west side of Deep Run street and running back between parallel lines 150 feet 7 inches to an alley 20 feet wide, and being Lots 15, 16, and 17 in Square "Z" of the plan of the West End Land and Improvement Company. The dwelling upon this lot is an attractive, well-arranged two-story house, with nearly all the modern conveniences, and is the same house occupied by G. H. A. Ball, Esq., at the time of his death.

(2) That LOT OF LAND, with the PART GRANITE AND PART BRICK RESIDENCE and other improvements thereon, fronting 45 feet on the south side of Grove avenue, between Deep Run and Foushee streets, and between the residence of Mr. R. W. Coffee on one side and of Walter D. Simmons, Esq., on the other. This is an extraordinarily attractive house, and upon the lot, which is 135 feet deep, there are some handsome shade trees.

(3) That certain LOT at the southeast intersection of Grove road and Auburn avenue, fronting 100 feet on Grove road and running back 179 feet to an alley in the rear. This is the site of the former residence of the said Ball, and there is no more attractive lot in that favored section.

(4) That LOT OF LAND at the northeast intersection of Floyd and Auburn avenues, fronting 150 feet on the northern line of Floyd avenue and running back 179 feet to an alley. This lot as well as the one last mentioned, has handsome shade trees along its entire front.

All of this property is well situated, being in the trend of the city's best growth, and should attract the attention of home-seekers and others. The several parcels above mentioned may be further sub-divided, if in the opinion of the trustee it should seem wise to do so.

TERMS: One-fourth cash, and the residue in three equal instalments at one, two, and three years, for notes, with interest added, and title retained. Sale subject to confirmation of the court.

AUCTION SALE OF

248 1-2 ACRES OF GOOD LAND,

LOCATED AT SEVEN PINES, ABOUT 300 YARDS FROM THE ELECTRIC CAR LINE, AND THREE-FOURTHS OF A MILE FROM FAIR OAKS STATION, ON THE YORK RIVER RAILROAD, FRONTING ON THE WILLIAMSBURG TURNPIKE, AND KNOWN AS THE "KUHN FARM."

By request of the heirs-at-law of R. H. Kuhn, deceased, who have determined to sell to settle up the estate, we will sell, by auction, at the Henrico county courthouse, on at 12 o'clock M., that DESIRABLE TRACT OF LAND, located as above. About 75 acres of this land is cleared and in cultivation—the character of soil being such as will produce any crop raised in this section of the country—being now used for trucking and other crops.

The other portion of the land is well covered with wood of suitable size to be marketed. The dwelling and outbuildings are old, but there are several good building sites upon the property, fronting the main thoroughfare.

Any one with a little money, taste and industry can make this one of the most attractive and comfortable homes in the neighborhood.

Mr. George Jordan, the present occupant, will take pleasure in showing the property.

TRUSTEE'S PUBLIC SALE OF

The Commodious, Centrally and Pleasantly Located and Valuable

WINDSOR HOTEL

At the Northeast Corner Franklin and Eighth Streets.

In execution of a deed of trust from Mrs. Mary E. Cox, dated June 24, 1896, duly recorded in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, and in pursuance of a decree of the Law and Equity Court of said city, in the suit styled "Fannie I. Kilburn et als. vs. Ida C. Corrie, &c.," entered on the 5th July, 1899, the undersigned, trustee, will sell, by public auction, on the premises, on at 12 o'clock M., the REAL ESTATE referred to in said deed and decree, it being the above-named well-known and valuable "Windsor Hotel," at the northeastern corner of Franklin and Eighth streets, in the city of Richmond, Va., fronting on the eastern line of Eighth street, thirty-five feet seven inches, more or less, and extending back on the northern line of Franklin street one hundred and twenty feet, more or less, to an alley twenty feet wide.

The house is a neat and very substantial detached brick structure, containing about forty rooms of good size, well appointed, with ample light and ventilation, and in good order. Adjoining "Mozart Academy," the leading theatre of the city, equi-distant between the business section of Main and Broad streets, and but one block west of the Capitol Square, its location is most convenient and desirable. It has been constantly well patronized—its patronage at present being fully equal to its capacity—and with moderate means and properly conducted, it would doubtless quickly prove exceedingly profitable.

Possession may be had at once, and all persons interested are requested to inspect the property and attend the sale.

TERMS: For cash as to expenses of sale, city and State taxes to day of sale, and the sum of $8,121.37½, with interest thereon from July 1, 1899, and as to the residue, on a credit at one year, by the negotiable note of the purchaser, with interest added, and secured by a deed of trust. COMMISSIONERS' AUCTION SALE OF

A LARGE LOT

WITH IMPROVEMENTS THEREON, ON THE EASTERN LINE OF TWENTY-FOURTH STREET BETWEEN CLAY AND LEIGH STREETS.

Stratton vs. Stratton et als.—In the Chancery Court of Richmond. Decree of July 1, 1899.

Pursuant to the above-mentioned decree in said suit, the undersigned, appointed special commissioners thereby, will offer for sale, upon the premises, on at 6:30 o'clock P. M., the REAL ESTATE of which the late Henry P. Stratton died seized, consisting of a LOT, fronting 82 feet and 6 inches on the eastern line of Twenty-fourth street, just north of Clay street, and running back 122 feet to an alley.

TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1899,

The improvements thereon consist of a double frame dwelling, containing about seven rooms, and usual out-buildings, and with a small outlay can be greatly enhanced in value.

The property will be offered either as a whole or sub-divided, as may be deemed best at time of sale.

TERMS: One-fourth of the purchase-money in cash; residue in three equal instalments at six, twelve and eighteen months, the purchaser to give negotiable notes, with interest from the day of sale, and the title retained until the entire purchase-money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the court. Sale made subject to confirmation of Chancery Court of Richmond.

GEORGE AINSLIE, JAMES E. CANNON, Special Commissioners.

I certify that the bond required of the special commissioners by the above decree has been duly given.

Twelve Dwellings in West End AT AUCTION.

On TUESDAY, July 11th, at 6 o'clock P. M., I will sell the very COZY AND ATTRACTIVE DWELLING HOUSE situated at the southeast corner of Leigh and Howe streets. This comfortable old homestead has a large lot attached to it, on which there is plenty of shade, and has to be seen to be appreciated.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER, will sell the TWO BLOCKS OF DWELLINGS contiguous thereto, fronting on Howe and Leigh streets. They are double-tenements, and will be sold singly or in pairs, at option of purchasers. This property is convenient to the large stock yards, now being erected, the R., F. and P. shops, the breweries, etc., and should prove a good investment. This is a good opportunity, too, for heads of families to secure homes, as the most liberal terms will be given.

TERMS: Very easy.

TRUSTEE'S SALE, AT PUBLIC AUCTION, OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN ASHLAND, VA.

By virtue of two deeds of trust from J. M. Leake and wife, one dated June 4, 1890, to W. J. Leake and S. J. Doswell, trustees, and the other dated on April 23, 1896, to W. J. Leake, trustee, and of a general deed from J. M. Leake to S. J. Doswell, trustee, dated September 18, 1897, all duly recorded in the clerk's office of Hanover County Court, and, by direction of the creditors secured, we will sell, at public auction, on the premises, beginning at 5:15 o'clock P. M.,

JULY 27, 1899,

the following REAL ESTATE in the town of Ashland, Va.:

1. The new brick Store-House and Lot now occupied by D. B. Cox, fronting 32 feet on west side of Railroad street, and running back to Hanover avenue. This is a valuable improved property, and is occupied by a good tenant.

2. A Vacant Lot, adjoining the above, and fronting about 42 feet on Railroad street, and running back between parallel lines to Hanover avenue. This is a valuable lot for business purposes.

3. That beautiful Lot of TEN ACRES, fronting on Engleside and Caroline streets and the Telegraph road, with a good barn and a small house thereon. This property is in a high state of cultivation, and is valuable either for market-gardening purposes or for its easy susceptibility of subdivision into many desirable residential or building lots.

4. An undivided Fourth Interest in about 20 ACRES OF LAND, consisting of Lots No. 7, 11, 12, 13, 16, 17, 19, 20, 26, 27 and a part of 22, in the Oakland Addition to Ashland. This interest can be divided in kind.

TERMS: One-fourth cash and the balance on a credit of one and two years, for negotiable notes, with interest added, secured by trust-deed, or all cash, at purchaser's option.
