THE CURRENCY OF THE COUNTRY

Movement to Hold a Convention Here in October.

WELL KNOWN MEN MAY COME.

Invitations to Be Extended to John W. Daniel, W. J. Bryan and Bourke Cockran—Others Are Mentioned.

It is proposed to hold a National Currency Convention in this city during the month of October next.

Mr. E. V. Smalley, General Secretary of the National Sound Money League, was in Richmond yesterday consulting sound money men regarding the matter.

The league held such a convention at Omaha, Nebraska, last fall, which was attended by a number of prominent men, representing all phases of the money question.

Silver men were present in large forces, under the leadership of Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota; Senator DuBois, of Idaho, and George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, and the gold standard people were represented by several of their most conspicuous public speakers.

QUESTIONS OF FINANCE.

All questions connected with the currency of the country, whether gold, silver or paper, were in order, and the debate lasted for three days.

The league has now in view the holding of a similar convention in some Southern city as a prominent feature of its work this year, and the Executive Committee is disposed to favor Richmond as the most suitable locality.

The president of the league is the Hon. J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska, who was Secretary of Agriculture in Cleveland's Cabinet. The chairman of the Executive Committee is M. E. Ingalls, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. The vice-president for Virginia is William L. Royall, of this city.

Secretary Smalley left for the Hot Springs last night to report to Mr. Ingalls the result of his conferences in Richmond, and it is probable that a call for the convention will be issued some time in August.

LOCAL COMMITTEE.

A local committee composed of prominent Richmond men of both parties will be organized to take charge of the arrangements for the convention and of the invitations to speakers from this State.

Speakers from other States will be invited by the Executive Committee of the league.

The headquarters of the League are at 417 Monadnock Block, Chicago. It is a non-partisan organization and its work is chiefly of an educational character in the distribution of sold standard literature and in the holding of meetings for general debate on the money question.

It is said that invitations would be sent to Hon. W. J. Bryan, John W. Daniel, Bourke Cockran, and other men of national repute as speakers upon the currency question.

BROTHER MISSING.

Dr. S. C. Benedict Trying to Find a Lost Relative.

Dr. Samuel C. Benedict, of Athens, Ga., is making every effort to find his brother, John A. Benedict, who left home May 25th, to go to South Carolina on a business trip, and has not since been heard of. He gives the following description:

Dressed in a blue serge coat, with name of E. H. & W. F. Dorsey on collar, and a blue striped negligee shirt, striped trousers of black and white, black shoes and a straw hat with name of E. H. & W. F. Dorsey, Athens, Ga., within. He carried an open-faced gold watch, Elgin movement, and in case his wife's picture, the watch chain was small and round like cable and of silver and gold threads, and upon some rings. He wore a blood stone seal ring with "B" cut in it to the white. He was six feet tall, well proportioned, weighing 175 pounds, and was forty-one years old. He was clean shaven, except a light moustache of brown color, had brown eyes and parted his hair accurately in the middle. He had a large scar at corner of left eye and a small rounded raised one between chin and lower lip, and a deep cleft in chin. His teeth were perfect, regular and well-cared for. Upon left forearm was a tatooed blue star.

A reward of $250 is offered for him, dead or alive.

STREET-CAR DEAL.

Mr. S. D. Crenshaw, a Member of the Syndicate, in New York.

Mr. S. Dabney Crenshaw, a member of the local syndicate of business men trying to purchase the properties of the Richmond Railway and Electric Company, is in New York. His visit there is believed to have some reference to the proposed deal.

The local syndicate is composed of Messrs. Virginius Newton, James N. Boyd, S. Dabney Crenshaw, P. H. Mayo, and Thomas Atkinson. Messrs. Martin & Ainslie are their legal representatives. President Wilson, of the National City Bank, of New York, is said to be cooperating with the Richmond syndicate and he and his bank are largely interested in the deal.

DISCOVERED BY A WOMAN.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Owens & Minor's Drug Store. Regular size, 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

UNIVERSAL PEACE.

Is the Time at Hand When All Nations Will Abolish War?

The Baroness Bertha von Suttner, a lady whose name has been conspicuously and honorably associated with the movement for the advancement of woman, sets forth in an article entitled "Universal Peace," in the July number of the North American Review, her reasons for believing that the time is at hand when war will be abolished among the civilized nations of the world. The influence which will be exerted upon the direction of national affairs by women, when women finally attain rights and franchises equal to those now enoyed by men, will be, she contends, one of the most effective agencies in bringing about that most desirable consummation. Baroness von Suttner deprecates the general indifference to the work of the Peace Conference and the lack of understanding of its real purposes:

"People do not only forget to observe the magnitude of such an event as the meeting of an inter-governmental conference; they also forget, in speaking of the subjects under discussion, to open their eyes to the importance of them. They know what the point in question is, but they do not realize it. Like a person ignorant of music before a symphony of Beethoven, like a three-year-old child before a picture by Raphael, so do people stand before the chronicle of the conference. They hear and see, but the awe of comprehension does not thrill through them. "Universal Peace!" How few can comprehend the harmony and the glory that lie in these words. How few reflect, while discussing the problems lying before the conference, what is really at stake; the happiness or ruin of themselves and their children! For, that the regime of international justice would shower an undreamed-of abundance of more and material benefits upon the civilized world, and, on the other hand, that continued military equipments and the eventual employment of the increasingly deadly weapons of war must lead to ruin and annihilation, can be denied by none. Thus it is nothing less than our highest happiness or deepest misery which is being discussed in the Huis ten Posch. But the world looks on as though it were a question of customs duties or weights and measures; many boast of 'being indifferent to the matter.' They think thus to prove their superiority, and only show that they do not understand."

Manila Silent and Safe at Night.

Carriages are but little seen at night. The native driver of a public vehicle is not allowed out any more than a native pedestrian would be. Hence, there is no carriage to be had, unless you are the owner or lessee of a private rig, and even then you must be either official, or sufficiently near so, to be privileged to pass your driver by the sentry. Moreover, every time you are halted in a carriage, you must leave the carriage and advance on foot for inspection and questioning. Over in the San Nicolas district, around the port, the sentries are so thick that proceeding in a carriage is more tiresome by far than walking. Every little interval covered necessitates another halt, explanations, advance, and the same thing over again, about as fast as you can enter the carriage and alight. There is no pleasure in a night ride through the crowded parts of Manila.

But the end justifies the means. There are no native uprisings, and no possibility of one. No city in the world is as safe by night as Manila. Deserted and nearly as still as the grave it remains, under martial law, until broad daylight comes around again, when windows open, shutters come down, the populace swarms out, and the busy life of a great city begins like magic with the firing of the sunrise gun.—Manila Correspondent in Leslie's Weekly.

Aguinaldo's American Allies.

Mr. John Barrett, our former Minister to Siam, who is plain-spoken and courageous, has been expressing himself freely with regard to those New England philanthropists opposed to our policy of expansion. He says that their talk, by encouraging Aguinaldo, has prolonged the fighting in the East; so he thinks they ought to stop talking. It apparently has not occurred to Mr. Barrett that he is denying those philanthropists, who are just as earnest as he is, the very privilege that he uses so eloquently himself. As a matter of fact, in the history of the world, the suppression of free speech has never proved to be a healthful proceeding. It is generally recognized now that it is better to air opinions, even injudicious or wholly foolish opinions, than to force them to make their way from mind to mind in secret. It is marvellous to observe the vigor acquired by an idea when it has been suppressed by the law, and the new power that inspires an agitator when he is permitted to regard himself and to be regarded by others as a martyr to truth. The best way to expose a fallacy is to let it expose itself. We can bear with Mr. Hoar and Mr. Atkinson.—Collier's Weekly.

An Attractive Entertainment.

At the Masonic Temple on Friday night next will be given for the benefit of the Masonic Home of Virginia one of the most beautiful, chaste and enjoyable entertainments that has been given for a long time, under the auspices of Le Stamire Vivant Club. The programme will embrace in the first part some pretty musical numbers in which Messrs. Ritchie and Mountcastle, cornetists; Mrs. S. S. Perkins, piano soloist; Miss Matthews, soprano soloist; Mrs. G. B. Mountcastle, elocutionist; Mr. G. W. B. Crawford, humorist, will take part. Mr. Henry Rueger, whose magnificent baritone voice is the admiration of many, and Miss Colie B. Lovell, who has a sweet mezzo soprano have kindly consented to assist upon this occasion.

JUST BEFORE THE DIVORCE.

Mr. Flirt—Hum, yes, I might kiss you.
