THE SONG OF PROSPERITY. Of late The Times has had a great deal to say about prosperity.

THE TEST OF DEMOCRACY. The test of a series of meetings arranged by the New Zealand Bimetallist League in the interest of "bimetallism" was held at Crescent Park, Richmond, R. I., on Sunday afternoon.

THE TEST OF DEMOCRACY. We are told also that Hon. William J. Bryan recently addressed a political meeting at West on Sunday, all of which is in evidence of the fact which has been mentioned from time to time in these columns.

THE TEST OF DEMOCRACY. In the commercial and industrial world are a score of standard indications which have recognition as safe business barometers.

THE TEST OF DEMOCRACY. In addition to this The Times prints an interview with President Marvin Hughitt, of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway.

WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN. The utterance of Mr. John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, which we printed on Sunday, upon the subject of free silver, is suggestive of a good deal of thought.

WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN. It is to be hoped that the lesson of events has taught other leading public men in the Democratic party that it will be more than folly for the party to pursue such a course.

a kind Providence pours riches into our lap with a generous hand, but it evokes no expression of gratitude from these professional dealers in calamity.

MERCHANT THE MIDDLE MAN.

The announcement is made from Madison, Wisconsin, that the American Tobacco Company will hereafter buy leaf tobacco direct from the Wisconsin farmers.

There are those who will say that the Tobacco Trust is to be condemned for thus driving the middle man out of the field and depriving him of his occupation.

The fact that their scheme was not eminently successful has nothing to do with the point which we would make that the farmers cut the first stone at the middle man.

THE BEST EFFORTS OF DISTINGUISHED FORGERS in the upper circles of French aristocracy do not compare in artistic vermiculite with the every-day banquets of common criminals.

With two hundred and fifty millions of gold dollars in his vest pocket, Uncle Sam is not looking for cheap money.

A special from Atlanta says that the sub-treasury plan which was advocated by the Farmers' Alliance so strenuously in 1892 is about to be put in practice by business men.

At the end of his two weeks' vacation, waiting a third week, he telegraphed his employer: "Very sick. Please hold my job."

THE POLITE DEER. A dignified deer, with sprangling horns, stepped into a hatter's and said: "I am pleased with the stock which your windows adorn."

new pushing along in a career of prosperity that is without parallel in the history of the world.
