THE CROOKED MAN OF MANCHESTER

Police Think Frank Easton the Individual They Require

THE STORY THAT HE TELLS.

He Thinks Manchester Lawyers a Good Article to Touch—Not Much Interest In Politics—Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, 1112 Hull Street (Beattie Block).

In the person of Frank Easton, who was arrested Friday night in Richmond for drunkenness, the Manchester police think has been caught the individual who got the better of a lawyer of this city, as told exclusively in yesterday's Times.

Easton was identified by Mr. Charles Page, and was turned over at once by Detective Tomlinson to the authorities of this city. When Easton, which he says is his real name, was seen at police headquarters, he said:

"I have a brother in Lynchburg and a brother and sister in Roanoke. I have been working on the Western Division of the Norfolk and Western for three years as brakeman. Oh, I am a railroad man all right. Two weeks ago I got 'fired' and came here to get a job on the Chesapeake and Ohio, but the job was slow and I got to stopping with the boys. The seven I got soon went, and I thought since the Manchester lawyers were a good article I would touch them again. If the police had wanted me they could have gotten me any old time. I have been the biggest man on Broad street for several weeks."

Easton looks to be forty years old, and has a smooth tongue.

NOT MUCH INTEREST.

The small vote cast in the Manchester District, which embraces Swansboro, was no indication of the popularity of the candidates, for the men on the ticket were two of the most popular men in the county. It indicated that little interest was being taken in the contest.

At the Manchester primary the vote was also small, but not to the proportion of that displayed in the county primary.

The registered vote of Manchester is about 900, the vote at the primary was 328; the registration of the Swansboro district is about 700, while the vote was only 80.

It was not a question of popularity of the candidates, but an indication of lack of interest in the election.

Mr. Toney received a much larger proportion in his city than did Messrs. Cogbill and Baker in their county, so far as the Manchester district is concerned.

SCHOOL CROWDED.

The Grade Committee of the Manchester School Board met Friday night. The question before the committee was that of making arrangements to accommodate the increase in pupils. It was decided something must be done at once. The School Board is to meet to-morrow night. At this meeting something more definite will be decided upon. The primary rooms are crowded beyond endurance. Some talk is of purchasing the Central Methodist church and using it this session.

MR. TONEY'S DELEGATES.

The delegates elected who are for Mr. D. L. Toney are as follows:

First Ward, J. B. Rudd; Second Ward, C. L. Pettit and E. H. Wells; Third Ward, R. E. Owen and W. B. Pleasants; Fourth Ward, A. C. Atkisson, F. A. Lamb and W. B. Bradley.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mr. W. E. Smith has returned from Goldsboro, N. C. He has been away from home six months.

Little Harry Harding, child of Mr. and Mrs. Harding of east Fifth street, was reported somewhat better last night.

The Central Methodist church has appointed a committee of thirty of its members to work among the congregation and friends of the church in the interest of the new church fund.

The Street Committee meets to-morow night in the Council Chamber.

C. D. Mays was fined $1 yesterday morning by the Mayor for allowing his horse to run at large.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words, written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D.: "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Owens & Minor Drug Company. Regular size, 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing amendments to sections 1 and 2 of article 7 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

[Approved March 3, 1898.]

1. RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and is hereby, proposed and is hereby referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one of article twelve of said Constitution, viz:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia sections one and two of article seven, which are in the following words:

§ 1. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of the county one sheriff, one attorney for the commonwealth (who shall also be the commonwealth's attorney for the circuit court), one county clerk (who shall also be the clerk of the circuit court, except that in counties containing fifteen thousand inhabitants there may be a separate clerk for the circuit court), one county treasurer, and as many commissioners of the revenue as may be provided by law; and there shall be appointed in a like manner, to be provided by law, two superintendents of the poor and one county surveyor; and there shall also be appointed in the manner provided for in article eight, one superintendent of schools.

All regular elections for county officers shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November, and all officers elected or appointed under this provision shall enter upon the duties of their offices on the first day of January next succeeding their election, and shall hold their respective offices for the term of four years, except that county and circuit court clerks shall hold office for six years.

§ 2. Each county of the State shall be divided into so many compactly located magisterial districts as may be deemed necessary, not less than three; provided, that after there have been formed, no additional districts shall be made containing less than thirty square miles. Each magisterial district shall be known as ——— magisterial district of ——— county.

In each district there shall be elected one supervisor, three justices of the peace, one constable, and one overseer of the poor, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years. All regular elections for magisterial district officers shall take place on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November, and all officers so elected shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices on the first day of January next succeeding their election. And insert in lieu thereof the following:
