

WEDDINGS OF THE CARNIVAL DAYS

Rev. A. Bender and Miss Johanna Chamber United. THE REAMS-BUTLER NUPTIALS. Popular Young People of Fulton Made Husband and Wife—Mr. E. Reams and Miss Watkins Wed.

A very quiet wedding took place from St. John's German Evangelical church yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, when Rev. A. Bender, of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and Miss Johanna Chamber, of this city, were married.

Miss Chamber is a stately young lady of the golden brunette type and very pretty. She is the daughter of Mr. Martin Chamber, of this city. She was clad in a suit of dark gray with white trimmings and carried a white rose.

Mr. Bender is a prominent young minister of the German Lutheran church and is now the pastor of a strong church in Johnstown. He resided in Richmond last winter when he was substituting at St. John's for Rev. Dr. Menzel. He has many friends in Richmond who remember his stay here with pleasure.

The bride entered the church with the groom unattended save by two sisters in white. Her hair was styled in the latest fashion, and she wore a crown of white flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Menzel, who performed the ceremony.

Immediately after the marriage the happy nuptials were celebrated at the home of the bride in Johnstown.

Reams-Butler. One of Fulton's most popular young ladies and most enterprising young business men were married at the Apostolic church in Fulton yesterday morning at 11 o'clock when Mr. E. Reams and Miss Watkins were united.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Andrew M. Butler and is a very pretty and attractive young lady. She wore a tailor made suit of brown cloth with hat and gloves to match and carried a white rose.

Mr. Reams is a prosperous young merchant of Fulton and the son of Mr. J. W. Reams, the superintendent of the Richmond Ordnance works. The bride was the daughter of Mr. Andrew M. Butler and is a very pretty and attractive young lady.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Daugherty, the pastor, assisted by Rev. B. Cabell Bering, of the Fulton Baptist church and Mr. Reginald Walker, pastor of the organ at the church.

Timberlake-Pomfrey. Quite a pretty wedding took place from the residence of Mr. William Wright Wednesday night when Miss Cornelia W. Pomfrey became the wife of Mr. J. Walton Timberlake.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joel T. Tucker. The bride wore a becoming tailor-made suit of blue cloth and carried white chrysanthemums. The groom wore Messrs. Draud Whitlock and Willie Stewart.

The bride and groom are both from New Kent County, where they enjoy the esteem of a large circle of friends.

Enbank-Watkins. Mr. John Enbank and Miss Fleda E. Watkins were married yesterday afternoon from the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. L. Womack, No. 201 West Cary street.

Rev. J. Calvin Stuart officiated and the ceremony was exceedingly beautiful. After the ceremony the couple left on the train for Keysville, Virginia, which will be their future home.

WEDDINGS IN BERRYVILLE. Brilliant Tableau Ceremony—A Bride at Fourteen. BERRYVILLE, VA., Nov. 2.—Special.—The marriage of Miss Edith Howard Allen, daughter of Mr. R. O. DEEPER CHANNEL IS NOW WANTED

Trigg Company Making Preparations for Big Contracts. YARDS ARE BEING ENLARGED. More Water Only Is Needed for Richmond Builders to Construct a Battleship—An Appropriation to be Secured.

That one, at last, of the new cruisers recently provided for by Congress will be built at the Trigg Company's yards, is accepted as a fact and this with the possibility of securing the contract for another, turned yesterday into a day of general rejoicing at the yards.

Although every facility to build cruisers is now possessed by the Trigg Company, the force of men will necessarily have to be considerably increased. This award will prove a good thing for Richmond in more respects than one.

The yards are large enough to build torpedo boats and cruisers now and the only thing that is needed is the dredging of the James river in order to secure the necessary water facilities.

Work on the interior of the Shubrick was resumed this morning and will be steadily pushed to completion.
