

RANGE OF THERMOMETER. The following was the range of the thermometer in the Times office yesterday: 6 A. M., 44; 12 M., 50; 3 P. M., 54; 6 P. M., 63; 9 P. M., 50; 12 M., 44; average, 49.14.

VOL. 14, NO. 228.

THE DEMOCRATS WILL CONTROL BOTH HOUSES.

Two Republicans Are Elected and One Other in Doubt.

WM. SHANDS DEFEATS R. E. BOYKIN

Southampton Piles Up a Splendid Majority for the Independent.

ESTIMATED AT SIXTEEN HUNDRED VOTES.

Judge W. H. Mann Polls a Magnificent Vote in Nottoway that Will Be Hard to Overcome—Wellford Defeated Pinkard in Richmond and Lancaster—A Very Close Vote Between Honaker, Republican, and Kegley in Smith and Bland—Worthen Makes a Fine Showing in Warren and Clarke—Buntin Likely Defeated in Pittsylvania.

The election in Virginia yesterday justified the Times estimate of the situation, published Sunday, in that it resulted in an overwhelming Democratic victory. Returns from all the Senate and 56 per cent. of the counties and House districts indicate that there have been elected less than a half dozen Independents and even fewer Republicans. The vote was the lightest polled in recent years.

Shands; the other two will reduce Boykin's lead. Jones (Dem.) won over Dr. C. J. Bradshaw (Ind.) by about 200. Ten precincts heard from in Southampton give Shands a lead of 120 over Boykin, the others, Chairman John C. Parker says, will make Shands' lead 1,200. Jos. S. Musgrave (Tyler Dem.) is elected to the House without opposition.

FRANKLIN, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Seven precincts out of a total of eleven in Southampton county give Shands 1,417 and Boykin 11. The other four precincts will probably increase Shands' vote to 1,775 and Boykin's to 75, giving Shands a majority of about 1,700 in Southampton. Boykin's friends in Nansamond claim that the returns from that county give Boykin about 60 majority, and Chairman Day, at Smithfield, claims a majority of about 20 in Isle of Wight for Boykin. This would elect Shands by a majority of about 60. Other reports from other sources in Isle of Wight and Nansamond would change these figures to a majority of about 1,200 for Shands. The negroes did not turn out very largely in the district, but a large majority of those who did turn out voted for Boykin.

COURTLAND, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Independent, one hundred and eighty-three at this precinct. Boykin, regular Democrat, nine votes in the county. Shands' majority probably 4,300.

ROCKY MOUNT, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Shands carries Rocky Mount by about 30. Helms' by about 100, and Boone's Mill by about 60. Indications are that he has an overwhelming majority over Hale, Independent.

CLAYVILLE, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Following are the votes polled at Dorset precinct. Powhatan county: For Senate, W. W. Baker, 22; D. L. Toney, 30; Cosby, 16; Joseph W. Holt, 4; George W. Holt, none.

POWHATAN C. H., VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Vote in county very small. 1 special official count as far as heard from: Powhatan Courthouse Precinct—Number of votes cast, 31; P. V. Cogbill (Dem.), for Senate, 20; L. Toney (Dem.), for House, 4; W. W. Baker (Dem.), for House, 2; N. B. Cosby (Ind.), 4; Joseph W. Holt (Ind.), 2; scattering, 0.

WEST POINT, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—J. W. Fleet, Dem., elected to House in King and Queen, no opposition. Small vote polled.

SHACKLEFORDS, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—King and Queen county, J. W. Fleet (Dem.) for the Legislature. There was no opposition, therefore a very small vote was polled. Mr. Fleet favors Governor Tyler for United States Senator to succeed Hon. T. S. Martin.

FAUQUIER COUNTY. WARRENTON, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—The election here today was an extremely quiet one. The voters, about 125, which is about one-sixth the usual vote. The same condition prevailed throughout the county. T. C. Fletcher and W. H. Lewis, Democratic candidates for the House of Delegates, had no opposition. They will vote for the returns of Thomas S. Martin to the United States Senate.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—The election here was very quiet, only a small vote being polled. Hon. A. T. Embrey was re-elected to the Legislature without opposition. He will vote for Martin for United States Senator. There were election for State Senator, Dr. G. M. Wallace being the hold-over member in this district. In Stafford and King George counties, Henry T. Garnett, a Democrat, and a supporter of Martin for Senator, is elected over W. E. Grigsby and Joseph Caswood, Independent.

WASHINGTON COUNTY. ABRINGTON, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Abington cast about four hundred, which is a scant half vote. The vote in the county is very light, and as the Republicans refused to vote, of course Price and McClung, Democratic nominees, are elected, the vote being almost unanimous for them. The full vote of the county, including lister county, would approximate 6,000.

BRISTOL, TENN., Nov. 7.—Special.—The election in Washington county and Bristol, Va., today resulted in the election of J. W. Price and C. H. McClung, the regular Democratic nominees to the House of Delegates.

EAST RADFORD, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Cowan's majority in city, 60; Lyle's majority, 111. Cowan is certainly elected. Einstein, Cowan's opponent for Tyler for Senate, A very light vote was polled. Claytor (Ind.), for the Senate, received 51 votes of the 219 cast for senator in this city.

PULASKI, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—In Pulaski county, S. Pollock, Democratic nominee, elected. Vote small. No opposition. Tyler ran, but was defeated.

NEW RIVER, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—D. S. Pollock, Democratic nominee, had no opposition. Very light vote polled. Only 25 votes cast at this precinct.

PULASKI CITY, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—In Carroll county Dr. Robinson (Dem.) is reported elected by more than 100 majority over Martin (Rep.). Election in Carroll stormy.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—The election here today was a quiet one of interest, and the returns received indicate an exceedingly light vote. Hon. D. Gardiner Tyler, candidate for the

WORSHAM WAS BADLY SCRATCHED

He Secured Only 167 Out of 2,727 Votes.

APATHY PREVAILED. The People Took Little or no Interest in the Election.

COL. ANDERSON LED THE TICKET

Mr. S. S. P. Patteson Was a Close Second—The Vote Received by Each Candidate and that Cast in the Several Precincts of the City.

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. George Wayne Anderson 2,545; S. S. P. Patteson 2,522; John E. Epps 2,521; E. C. Folkes 2,513; S. L. Kelley 2,498; A. C. Worsham 167.

There has never been a more quiet election in Richmond than that of yesterday. The history of the city will show that when the Democratic party is menaced the voters will rally to its support, but when no peril threatens the people are apathetic and indifferent.

Such was the case yesterday, little or no interest was taken in the result, despite the fact that the Democratic leadership had personally urged the citizens to go to the polls early, and show the only Republican in the field under.

IN CLAY WARD. In Clay Ward, as usual the heaviest vote was cast, the aggregate of the five precincts being 25. Monroe Ward came next with a total of 23. The other wards, in order were: Madison, 22; Marshall, 20; Jefferson, 18; while Jackson brought up the rear with a total of 18.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. First Precinct: Anderson 250, Epps 261, Kelley 252, Patteson 262, Worsham 6. Total vote in precinct, 262. One ballot thrown out.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. Second Precinct: Anderson 113, Epps 111, Folkes 115, Kelley 114, Patteson 113, Worsham 9. Total vote in precinct, 116.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. Third Precinct: Anderson 118, Epps 119, Folkes 118, Kelley 118, Patteson 120, Worsham 5. Total vote in precinct, 122.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. Fourth Precinct: Anderson 160, Epps 161, Folkes 159, Kelley 155, Patteson 160, Worsham 11. Total vote in precinct, 162.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. Fifth Precinct: Anderson 127, Epps 127, Folkes 128, Kelley 125, Patteson 129, Worsham 22. Total vote in precinct, 162.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. Monroe Ward: Anderson 110, Epps 109, Folkes 106, Kelley 107, Patteson 110, Worsham 9. Total vote in precinct, 114.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. Second Precinct: Anderson 124, Epps 124, Folkes 124, Kelley 122, Patteson 122, Worsham 8. Total vote in precinct, 114.

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Votes. Third Precinct: Anderson 72, Epps 72, Folkes 70, Kelley 72, Patteson 71, Worsham 3. Total vote in precinct, 72.

(Continued on Third Page.)

OPERATIONS IN MANILA.

General Wheaton Supposed to Have Landed at Dagupan.

MANILA, Nov. 7.—4:45 P. M.—General Wheaton's orders were to land at or near San Fabian, a fishing village twenty miles northeast of Dagupan. The insurgent force there only numbered about three hundred men, entrenched; whereas, at Dagupan, there are some thousands of insurgents and five miles of strong trenches. Mounts river is blocked.

General Wheaton is supposed to have landed today, though communication with him is not expected until tomorrow. The weather has been good since he started, and he should have been able to take the trenches without great loss of life.

General Lawton is supposed to have control the roads of escape from Tarlac to the west and east, making a junction with General Lawton.

General MacArthur will begin his advance toward Tarlac to-night. General Lawton will resume his advance tomorrow, though in the face of great difficulties, rains in that district having destroyed all the bridges in the vicinity, including several engines built for the movement.

General Lawton has been working hard for several days to get rations forward. The Thirty-fifth regiment reinforces him tomorrow.

A force of 300 insurgents attacked the Fourth Cavalry last night, making three full charges before killing three men. The Americans lost none.

The first raft ac, on the ferry at Cabanatuan was carried away by the swift current. It had sixteen men of the Third Cavalry on board with their horses, but only one of them was drowned.

MR. HOBART GROWING WEAKER.

Impossible to Say How Long the Vice-President Can Last.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Vice-President Hobart is growing weaker. Dr. Newton did not give out any official bulletin this morning, but when asked regarding the condition of his patient about 8 o'clock said:

"The Vice-President's night was not a restful one. He did not get as much sleep as was hoped for. The restlessness and lack of sleep during the critical hours of the night offset the good effect of the day yesterday, which was the best in a week."

The doctor added that the Vice-President's heart was growing weaker gradually. Dr. Newton said the Vice-President had taken very little nourishment, but his mind was in a fairly good condition. It was impossible to say how long Mr. Hobart might last.

JAYHORN, N. J., Nov. 7.—At a late hour tonight Vice-President Hobart's condition was reported to be more favorable than it had been for some time. Mr. Hobart had been able to sit up in a chair for a short time, and had eaten some solid food, something he had not done in three weeks. He was less nervous to-night than he had been for some days, and his family felt encouraged over his apparent improvement.

Dr. Newton, who remained at the house tonight, would not offer any encouragement as to the Vice-President's recovery. During the day Attorney-General Cresswell had had a short interview with the Vice-President. Mr. Hobart was cheerful and he told Mrs. Hobart that he hoped to be able to take her out for a drive before long.

DISPATCH FROM BULLER. LONDON, Nov. 7.—The following is the text of a dispatch from General Buller from Cape Town, dated November 7th, 1899, P. M.:

"The following dispatch has been received from the general commanding at Estcourt, dated November 6th: 'Since our arrival here there has been a cessation of hostilities. A note was sent that day to General Joubert by General White, at the request of the Mayor, asking permission for the non-combatants, sick and wounded, to go south, General Joubert refused the request, but agreed to allow them to go to a special camp four miles from Ladysmith. The townspeople refused to accept this offer. The sick and wounded and a few of the inhabitants were moved yesterday. A few shots were exchanged yesterday at the outposts. Friday's bombardment was heavy. Shells fell in the hospital and one burst in a hotel during luncheon. No one was injured. The only casualty in the town from the shells thus far is a Kaffir killed.

DISABLE A GUN. "There was a smart action Friday toward Dewdrop. The troops under General Breekheurst drove the Boers back a considerable distance and disabled a gun. "There was also fighting near Bulwana. Our loss altogether is about eight killed and about twenty wounded. Ninety-eight Durdee wounded have arrived. They were sent here Saturday. All are doing well.

"The position here is now believed to be entirely safe. It has been greatly strengthened during the last twenty-four hours. The people have deserted their houses and are living in bomb-proof places safe from shell fire. There is plenty of good stores of all kinds. "Captain Knapp and Lieutenant Drabant were killed in Friday's action.

"The foregoing is an exact copy of a press-censored telegram brought here by a Kaffir runner. There is no other official news."

STREWN WITH SLAIN BOERS. ESTOURT, NATAL, Nov. 5.—Sunday, November 5.—A reliable native has brought confirmation of Friday's light south of Ladysmith. A reconnoissance in force was made by British division, the object being to relieve the Capleno column, which had been attacked by the Boers. The British infantry charged the Boers, who were strongly posted on Goble'skloof Hill, and drove them down on the plain, toward the Tugela river. Then British cavalry, exploiting a fine flanking movement, charged the Boers, almost annihilating them. The plain was strewn with slain Boers.

(Continued on Second Page.)

MCLEAN AND GOEBEL HAVE LOST THE DAY

The Fight is a Very Close One in Ohio and Kentucky.

REPUBLICANS CLAIM BOTH STATES.

The Returns So Far Received Have Practically Substantiated These Claims.

MAZET IS BADLY BEATEN IN NEW YORK.

The Chairman of the Investigating Committee Discovers that He is Not Popular—Maryland Elects Holcomb and the Majority—Nebraska Elects Holcomb and the Fusion Ticket—Heavy Republican Losses in Pennsylvania—Returns From Other States—They Generally Indicate Gains for the Democracy Everywhere.

The battle of the ballots raged yesterday in many states in the union, but the scenes of the fiercest conflicts were Ohio and Kentucky. Returns up to an early hour this morning leave the question of which party has won a victory still in doubt.

turns are meagre and leaves the situation in doubt. Taylor (Republican) is probably elected by a majority of from 4,000 to 5,000. Secretary Hampton, of the Republican Committee, is claiming Taylor's election by 19,000. Chairman Long and Governor Bradley are confident of Taylor's election, and say he has carried the State by a safe plurality, but they decline to give figures.

Opposing chairmen and party organs are still making claims, but there is nothing in the figures so far received to back up their assertions.

The Courier Journal, from its figures, says the result is in doubt.

In Kentucky, to which all eyes have been turned, and where Goebel has been making the fight of his life, Taylor, the Republican candidate, is elected by a good majority, though Goebel's friends by no means allow that such is the case.

The Past (Democrat) which has opposed Goebel, claims Taylor's election by 19,000 majority.

There seems little reason to doubt that McLean is beaten in Ohio. "The adherents of Nash, Republican, claim his election by a majority ranging from 10,000 to 20,000. They also claim the Legislature.

FRANKFORD, KY., Nov. 7.—Goebel carries the city of Frankfort by from 150 to 250, and Franklin county by about 900 majority.

Maryland has gone overwhelmingly Democratic, Smith being elected to the gubernatorial chair. In Nebraska, the indications are that Holcomb and the Fusion ticket are elected by a large majority.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 8.—Chairman Long gave out the following statement at 1 A. M. regarding the next Legislature: "The Republicans have elected ten Senators out of nineteen seats. Three more are believed to have been elected, but the returns are not complete, while one is in doubt. There are two Republican hold-overs and six anti-Goebel hold-overs.

In Greater New York, Robert Mazet, (Rep.) candidate for Assembly from the nineteenth district was defeated. Dillon, (Dem.) was elected in the eighteenth Assembly district, New York. (Rep.) defeated Goldswaite, (Dem.) by a small majority. The returns in Brooklyn show that Cary, (Rep.) candidate for Treasurer received 74,755 votes and Kimball, (Dem.) polled 54,125.

In the House the Republicans have elected forty-one members certain, the Democrats thirty-five, and the anti-Goebel Democrats one. The districts in doubt and not heard from, number nineteen, which include Campbell and Kenton counties, and three districts in the city of Louisville.

At midnight 31 out of 110 precincts in the county were returned, giving Nash, 4,458; McLean, 3,332; Jones, 3,528.

This insures a fusion majority in the House against the Goebel law and probably a Republican majority.

Jones cuts deeper in the Democratic vote than was expected, and harmed the Republicans less than they feared.

FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 7.—Senator Blackburn and others at Goebel headquarters at midnight admitted the returns from many Democratic counties are disappointing, but claim this is partially offset by private dispatches from the Elizabeth district, indicating a falling off in the Republican vote. Blackburn now claims that Goebel will win by 5,000. This is a reduction of 2,000, as compared with claims made two hours earlier.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, Nov. 8.—At 12:30 p. M. the Republicans claimed that their final rally would exceed 20,000 with over 19,000 for Jones out of a total of less than 60,000. The Republican majority in the Legislature is larger than usual, but no senator is to be elected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The election in the four counties that make up the city of New York resulted in the election of every Democrat on every county ticket, except Gray, Democratic candidate for election in Kings, who was beaten because of his refusal to put in an appearance before the Mazet Investigating Commission before the Mazet Investigating Commission.

(Continued on Second Page.)

(Continued on Second Page.)

STATE SENATOR WILLIAM SHANDS.

of about 1,200 for Shands. The negroes did not turn out very largely in the district, but a large majority of those who did turn out voted for Boykin.

A LARGE LEAD. NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Shands is elected Senator from district consisting of the counties of Nansamond, Isle of Wight and Southampton. His majority over Boykin is in rounded figures, 60 votes. Practically complete returns from Isle of Wight county give Boykin a majority over Shands of 253.

IN NANSAMOND COUNTY Boykin's majority is 700. Indications are that he has a large lead by 1,500 votes over Shands.

WINDSOR, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Returns from the entire county give Boykin and Jones a majority of about 200 over Shands. Powhatan, Independent, Boykin and Jones each favors Martin.

SIXTEEN HUNDRED. NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Returns from all precincts in Southampton county, save one, give Shands a majority over Boykin of 1,600.

ROCKY MOUNT, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—Shands carries Rocky Mount by about 30. Helms' by about 100, and Boone's Mill by about 60. Indications are that he has an overwhelming majority over Hale, Independent.

SENATOR WILLIAM SHANDS.

Colonel R. E. Boykin Defeated by a Large Majority.

SUFFOLK, VA., Nov. 7.—Special.—William Shands, Independent Democrat, is elected over Colonel R. E. Boykin, Democrat, from thirty-second senatorial district, by a majority estimated at 800 to 1,000. Today's ballots settled one of the bitterest factional contests ever witnessed in this district. Shands and Boykin were candidates for the nomination at the convention which met here August 24th and resulted in a split. Boykin was recognized by the State Executive Committee, but Shands' friends continued their battle undaunted.

The report sent from Isle of Wight C. H., to-day, that a negro had been killed was untrue. There was a big row, but no lives were lost.

Ten out of twelve precincts in Nansamond give Boykin 694 plurality over Shands. Walter Jordan (Martin Dem.) wins without opposition for the House. The only precinct Shands carried in Nansamond was Suffolk, where he had seven votes to spare. About one-half of a full vote was cast here.

Nine precincts out of eleven in Isle of Wight give Boykin 100 plurality over

SUMMARY OF TO-DAY'S NEWS.

Local.—The Republican candidate in Richmond snowed under. Democrats win by large majorities in Henrico, Manchester and Chesterfield. General Pitt Lee arrives in the city. Mr. George Julian Zolnay here. Congratulations on every county ticket. Confederacy. Mrs. Jefferson Davis and Mrs. Hayes arrive. Local commission men organize. A schedule of taxation for lawyers, doctors, dentists and retail liquor dealers. General Pitt Lee talks. State.—Lula Smith sentenced in Bedford for being January 12th for the murder of her husband by poison. State election gives overwhelming Democratic majority in both houses. Annual meeting of Seaboard Air Line in Norfolk. Rev. A. S. Lloyd resigns as rector of St. Luke's, Norfolk. A lady runs over by a Norfolk and Western train. General.—Taylor elected in Kentucky. Brown's vote very small. Nash probably beat McLean in Ohio, both sides claiming the victory. Jones polled a very good vote. Foreign.—Operations in Philippines. Further particulars of situation in Transvaal.