FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1899.

New England is for Bryan and so "say we all." Defeated once, but "he wasn't born" to be defeated second time.

In Chicago they are introducing male chamber maids. The experiment will be watched with interest. They may know how to sweep, but make a bed—never!

Representatives of the Masons of the English-speaking world, will assemble in Alexandria, Va., next December, to do honor to the memory of the immortal Washington.

Some people are foolish enough to say that what the people need is "elasticity," and not more currency. This is folly. India rubber stretches so far and no further. A rubber ball will rebound so far and then fall to the ground.

Another Grant, this time a granddaughter of the great General, has made a marriage venture with a foreign count. Her predecessor, the General's daughter, tried and failed. Success rarely attends any such lottery drawing.

Dreyfus rejoices in his liberty as a child does at play. He knows now what freedom means. And, by the way, he may spend the winter in Texas, and then if he follows it with a summer in Farmville, his cup of happiness will be full.

We pay $180,000,000 a year to foreign owners for carrying our goods, wares and merchandise across the seas. Let's stop the folly. Build bigger ship yards at Newport News, Richmond and elsewhere South and become independent of outside help.

Ex-Speaker Reed, in his farewell address to his Maine constituents said: "Other men have had to look after their districts. My district has looked after me." Happy man! And yet he must go to Wall street, and get to be rich too.

There is trouble in the Republican camp of Maryland. Senator Wellington, chairman of the State Committee, has resigned and now there is bitter war waged by him on Governor Lowndes, who is a candidate for re-election. Political brethren are not dwelling together in love anywhere in the land, and our hope is if they all "fall out," the people "will get their dues."

Some of our Governors with their Attorney Generals, met in St. Louis recently, to continue the fight on trusts. Politics forced a way into the meeting, and a family row followed. They did reach a practical conclusion in that they proposed to make certain combinations absolutely criminal. Now if that can be actually accomplished and sure punishment results we will feel hopeful.

On last Saturday a monument was unveiled at Front Royal, Virginia, in honor of seven of "Mosby's men," who were shot and hung there during the war of '61-'65. An immense crowd gathered on the occasion, enthusiasm ran high and a fine oration was delivered by Mayor Richards, of Louisville, Ky. No braver men ever died in defence of homes, and the monument to their memory cannot be built too high.

Admiral Dewey is at home again and such a reception has been accorded him as is rarely given to man. He is now the guest of big New York, which has been made bigger and brighter because of his coming. Washington will shake his hands on the 2nd of October, and for two days the city will be in her best dress. On the 3rd at noon, the President will present to him that $10,000 sword, the people's gift, and on the 12th Richmond hopes to welcome him and General Fitzhugh Lee on the same day. All Virginia ought to be there.

A few of our Democratic exchanges are complaining of the Virginia election laws and some go so far as to say that the Democrats have so long been in power that their management should be looked into. And by whom, pray? Republicans? We have no objection to the looking-in process so it is done from the outside, but to install a Republican administration with the hope of purifying conditions is too silly to be tolerated for a second much less for a session. If the Democrats of Virginia cannot be trusted with the conduct of Virginia affairs, then somebody must be imported for the work, for without doubt the home field won't furnish what is needed.

Hobson, a negro town down South, is out of money. Let them borrow some, and we would suggest that they apply to the Richmond Times, who has money "to burn," or knows the fellow who has.

The press of the Northern States is respectfully reminded that a wholesale lynching of negroes took place in Illinois recently.

The Baltimore Sun got things powerfully mixed in its issue of the 25th. Under "obituary" heading marriages were recorded, and under "weddings" death notices were given. The Sun has really been in eclipse ever since it became an assistant Republican.

Mrs. Potter Palmer says the marriage of Miss Grant to the Russian Prince, was a "love match," and yet adds that she smoothed the way for the young lovers," forgetting that "the course of true love never did run smoothly."

Booker Washington says the "South was never guilty of the crime of shooting colored men down who simply wanted honest work." No, that has been left for the State of Illinois, the home and burial place of Abraham Lincoln.

Boston, through Wm. Lloyd Garrison, is making a piteous appeal for outside aid to help care for that family of negroes, who were induced by a silly girl to go North on a sentimental, and sensational, and a sectional tour. Shame upon the Hub! You have the elephant, now care for it.

We have been reminded of late that Abraham Lincoln "found time, although loaded down with the war responsibilities of his last months on earth, to hunt up a place to which the American negro could go with a fair prospect of success and happiness." Surely he was a friend of the negro, and this no one of them doubts, and why was it then that this question gave him concern? He it was who said that the country could not be "half free and half slave," and no doubt he thought, too, that white and black could no more live together than white and red. The Indian has been driven from home and fatherland to make room for churches and civilization, and the negro may have to go in order to the preservation of the peace and purity of the homes built by the white man after the red man had been driven out. It rests largely with him to say whether or not he shall stay or go. The "old issue" may be glad to remain, the new may be forced to go.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Sept., 25, 1899.

A distinction without a difference is that made by Republicans who say that Mr. McKinley will not make some speeches in Ohio, but will probably make speeches from the rear platform of the train upon which he will pass through Ohio on his coming trip to and from the West. It really looks as though that trip had been arranged solely for the purpose of giving Mr. McKinley an opportunity to make some speeches in Ohio, which he has been assured by his party managers are very much needed. He and his party managers may call them "rear-platform" or any other kind of speeches they please, but the people will know them for the stump speeches they will be, and they will not be inclined to think any more of the President of the U. S. who is willing to engage in such business, even to help pull his party out of a very deep hole.

Boss Platt has been in Washington, and it is believed that he tried to make a deal for the Vice-Presidential nomination for a New Yorker, it being now pretty generally understood that Mr. Hobart is to "voluntarily" retire, and that Governor "Teddy" doesn't want the nomination. It is said that Platt told Mr. McKinley that any man from his state would please him, but suggested Senator Depew and Secretary Root as available men. One of Mr. Depew's close friends says that having just secured a full term in the Senate he would not for a moment think of giving it up to accept the Vice-Presidential nomination. Secretary Root might take it if he could get it.

Since Reed's retirement there has been much talk about members of the House being allowed more liberty at the coming session of Congress. Those who did this talking believed in it, but an announcement of Speaker-to-be Henderson's programme for the Republican financial bill, does not indicate an increase of liberty for members; only a transfer of silent obedience from Czar Reed to King Caucus. It is said to be Mr. Henderson's intention to bring the financial bill before a Republican caucus, as soon as Congress meets and to get it endorsed and ordered passed. Then the bill will be railroaded through the House before the committees are announced. The excuse given for this action, which will be decidedly unusual, in dealing with one of the most important subjects that Congress is ever called upon to handle—the country's money—is that if the bill was allowed to take the usual course, it might never get out of the committee on Banking and Currency, to which it should properly be referred after being introduced in the House, or might be changed by that Committee. If this programme is really to be carried out, the House Caucus should first vote to abolish the banking and currency committee.

Representative Berry, of Ky., has been somewhat annoyed by being misrepresented as to his attitude towards Col. Bryan. While in Washington, a day or two ago, Col. Berry took occasion to say, with an emphasis which left no doubt of his meaning every word: "My opinion is that Bryan will be the nominee of the democracy, and I have a further opinion that he will get votes enough to elect him President of the U. S."

The kicking of Senator Wellington out of the Chairmanship of the Maryland Republican State Committee has, in the opinion of those who know the situation thoroughly, made the carrying of the state by the Democrats a certainty. A Maryland Republican is quoted as having said: "I would not be surprised if Smith should be elected Governor by 40,000 plurality. The Wellington incident, the independent revolt, and the Schley affair have given the Democrats an advantage that cannot now be overcome." Democrats have expressed confidence in redeeming the state from the beginning of the campaign. The turning down of Wellington makes it certain that he will join Senators Hoar and Mason in attacking the Philippine policy of Mr. McKinley, in the Senate, and with the assistance of Democratic Senators, they can and will give the administration considerable trouble. Take it all in all, Mr. McKinley has no reason to look forward to the coming session of Congress with pleasant anticipations.

Late advices do not bear out the statement so often made in official documents, that Filipino private soldiers only participate in the war because they are afraid of their officers. Gen. Otis believed in that theory once, but since he offered $40 cash and personal immunity to every Filipino soldier who surrendered a gun, he has changed his mind. Only one Filipino offered to take advantage of that offer, and before the money was paid to him, it was found out that he was acting in partnership with one of our own soldiers, who had captured the gun surrendered, and was trying to secure some pocket money through the credulity of Gen. Otis. Speaking of the Philippines, there is much talk in Washington concerning the recent activity and daring of the Filipinos, who seemed to be able to operate during the rainy season, even if Gen. Otis cannot. Their attack on a train within 35 miles of Manila was certainly not the act of cowards.

Humiliating Blood Diseases.

Humiliating blood diseases can be cured. This is not a theory, it is a fact. Cures are being made every day, though they are not made in a day. The reason why so many suffer without hope is because they have been so often induced to try impossible remedies. The man who says that a blood disease can be cured by a local application or operation is a fraud There is but one way: the blood must be purified. When that is done the disease disappears. The best purifier is David's Sasaparilla. It does the work when others fail. For sale by Winston & Gray.

Keep your cough and you will soon find it necessary to keep something worse. Better invest a quarter in a bottle of David's Cough Syrup—the remedy that cures when others fail.—For sale by Winston & Gray.

THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with you water and let it stand twenty four hours: a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty cent and one dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention that you read this generous offer in the Farmville HERALD.
