RELIGION A SOLACE. Dr. Talmage Speaks Comforting Words for the Righteous. Discourse for Those Whose Lives Have Many Anxieties—All is Well for the Believer—Trust Thoroughly in God.

never realized until last summer what water could do in play, or in strange caprice, or beautification, or when climbing the ladder of the light, or when skillful workmen took hold of it to toss it, or whirl it, or shape it into crowns, or hoist it into columns, or spring it into arches, or lift it into stars, or turn it into crescents, or build it into temples.

He kept His Leg. Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and my leg was sound and well as ever."

He Couldn't Have Stood It. "If he'd had itching piles I think I should have been able to stand it," said a man who had been suffering from piles for years. "I had tried every remedy, but nothing would do me any good. I was almost blind with pain. One day I was reading in the paper an advertisement for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a bottle and used it. I was cured in three days."

Love, Love is trusting, love is waiting, Love is hope, delight, despair, Love is madness, love is hatin'.

So also misinterpretation and slander came to all who live active lives. Our actions, thoroughly honest and above board, may come under suspicion. Every courtroom of the delusion of what is called circumstantial evidence. Innocent men are fined or imprisoned or electrocuted because of an unfortunate conjunction of events.

With still more abundance is the air distributed. An earth full of it. A sky full of it. Swiftest and strongest engine cannot fly so high as not to have it in the nostril or under the wing. And what affluence of sunlight! No one but the infinite God could dispense so much of it.

Let a man pray that none of his womankind should form a just estimation of him.—Thackeray.

Not Dependent. Teacher—And why should we endeavor to rise by our own efforts? Johnnie Wise—"Cause there's no tellin' when the alarm clock will go wrong.—Baltimore American.

Unavoidable Discretion. Mamma—it was very wrong of Freddy Smith to smack your face, and you were a dear good boy to say you forgave him for his wickedness.

Where Ignorance is Bliss. Ned—You women will follow any kind of a style, no matter how unbecoming it is to you. Now just see that hat that Miss Passe is wearing!

Mother's Friend. Will do for every woman what it did for the Minnesota mother who writes the above letter. Not to use it during pregnancy is a mistake to be paid for in pain and suffering.

Children of an Older Growth. Bluffer—In the matter of reading, the tastes of the man and the boy are alike.

Polite Refusal. "Let us go out and get some ozone," said Gilfoyle to Bunting as the curtain went down at the close of the second act.
