LITTLE POETIC GEMS.

Gather Up the Fingers.
Let us gather up the fingers That are scattered on the green; Let us wrap them up and put them Where they'll never more be seen: Let us find a grain of comfort In reflecting it we see— That was the first finger that That has maimed our little man.

He had saved up all his pennies And he had a dime or two For the cracker and the fireworks And the sugar chasers, too; To do honor to the nation In his simple, boyish way. He went to the store and bought A Hold on Independence Day.

He was rosy with excitement, And his childish glee was shared, For the cracker and the fireworks When he wasn't quite prepared. Now his little hands are bandaged And he's lying very still; And he wonders why it happened To a boy who meant no ill.

Strange we never prized those fingers Till the giant cracker's roar Stripped them from the hand they grew on, And we'll never put our whiskers 'Not to thrust into our eyes; For to patrician order They have fallen a sacrifice.

—Peter Grant, in Chicago Record-Herald.

Success.

When those difficult lessons are mastered Quicker!

When we've learned to do things for love, not for spite!

When we've learned to forgive, though the wrong be grave.

And in the face of temptation stand firm and true!

That's success.

When duty controls our every-day life; When we've learned to withstand temptation's strife; When we've conquered our tongues, our minds and our hearts; When our every thought only purify impure!

That's success.

When our aim has been high and our efforts sincere; When we've scoffed at failure with a smile, not a tear; When the Golden Rule has been our great guide!

When we've done our best, whatever the odds— That's success.

—Martha L. Jones (aged ten years), in Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Living Sea.
How like the city is into the sea; The mighty wave of commerce breaks and beats In restless surges through the city streets; When we've conquered our tongues, our minds and our hearts; When our every thought only purify impure!

That's success.

When our aim has been high and our efforts sincere; When we've scoffed at failure with a smile, not a tear; When the Golden Rule has been our great guide!

When we've done our best, whatever the odds— That's success.

—Martha L. Jones (aged ten years), in Louisville Courier-Journal.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
