DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medicinal triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid, dropsy and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found to be the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the masses too poor to purchase relief, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Elmhurst, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

Honesty Pays Better Profits Than Tricky or Deceit.

Senator Chauncey M. Depew Preaches a Sermon to Young Men Who Want to Become Rich and Respected.

Honesty is too much talked about as if it were scarce in these days. The business principles of to-day are better, purer and more universally honest than they were in the days of our boyhood. Then the motto of life ran something like this: "All is fair in love, war and trade." But this generation has introduced that maxim and business methods were never better or more reputable than they are at this moment.

Many immense fortunes, says Chauncey M. Depew, in the Chicago Chronicle, have been made by men of this generation who employed strictly honest means to attain their ultimate success and great wealth. Take DeWitt as an apt illustration. He invented the steel which was used so extensively as an apt illustration. He invented the steel which was used so extensively as an apt illustration. He invented the steel which was used so extensively as an apt illustration.

STICKLER FOR GOOD GRAMMAR.

Guest—Can you give me a room and a bath?
Clerk—I can give you a room, but I'm too busy to bathe you just now.—Fun.

TO REACH MAN'S HEART.

O woman, if seeker
Your way to gain
Over man, the weaker,
The means are plain:
Would you be able
Vain man to rule,
The dinner table
Let be your school,
You need no ballot
To win your part;
Just tickle his palate—
You touch his heart.
—Good Housekeeping.

A TRIFLING DELAY.

Philanthropist—Poor fellow! After you get out of here wouldn't you like to come and join our church and teach a class in Sunday school and—
Convict—Yes, lady, I will—less as soon as I kin kill Spike Hennessy an' Kid McGurk, wot peached on me an' put me in here.—Judge.

CLERK'S WISE SUGGESTION.

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and sour stomach," writes M. S. Meab, leading pharmacist of Acton, Mass. "I could not eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which I did with most happy results. I have had no more trouble and when one begins to eat mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, their digestion must be pretty good. I endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily." You don't have to diet. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food.—Anderson Drug Co.

MR. WHEELER GOT RID OF HIS RHEUMATISM.

"During the winter of 1901 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year.—R. WHEELER, North Wood, N. Y. For sale by The Winston Drug Co.

SOMETHING THAT WILL DO YOU GOOD.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup.—Cridlin Bros., C. MARRIAGE IS NEVER A FAILURE IF THE ALIMONY IS BIG ENOUGH.

Dear Ned—About a year ago, having arranged to go on a hunting trip, I found myself unable to raise my arm, having an attack of rheumatism. I went into your office and asked if you could help me out, as I did not want to be disappointed. You sold me a bottle of your "Dixie Nerve and Bone Liment" which I used freely, rubbing vigorously with it that night, and I was most agreeably surprised, when getting up the next morning, to find the rheumatism entirely cured and my arm perfectly well. I am glad to say I have had no return of rheumatism since.

I HAD THE ABOVE BY A FRIEND SUFFERING THE SAME WAY, AND HE TRIED YOUR "DIXIE NERVE AND BONE LIMENT" AND WAS AS SPEEDILY CURED.

Your true Bohemian is the fellow who is poor and proud of it.

The Last Heard Of It.
"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says E. D. Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it.—Anderson Drug Co.

The first shopkeeper will in the meantime be sitting unthought of and uncared for, agitated at the crowds that daily throng the counters of his competitor and bitterly bewailing the bad luck which has followed his own venture into trade. Yet he has no one to blame for it but himself.

Some persons might consider that old Commodore Vanderbilt was dishonest because he
