The Quarterly Review

Sunday School Lesson for Dec. 31, 1905. Specially Prepared for This Paper.

GOLDEN TEXT.—"Thou crownest the year with thy goodness."—Psalm 91. THE REVIEW.—To review the lessons in the truest sense is not to go over all the lessons separately, one after the other, to repeat titles and golden texts in order, to select certain truths which have been learned, and this is especially true on the lessons of the past quarter. "Reviewing," says Peloubet, "is looking backward from some tower or hilltop, over the landscape through which we have been traveling. The hills, the valleys, the cities, the villages, the forests, the fertile fields, we have been seeing in detail through the quarter we now see as one broad country, and we understand the meaning and power of the land as a whole."

With this thought in mind we need to strive to catch the movement of the whole period of the history included in the lessons, to study its meaning, to learn to what it is leading, and to see how each event, each character, bears upon this end, to help or to hinder. We need to see God in the history and to learn the lessons the whole period teaches.

THE PERIOD.—The time of the lessons of the quarter covers over 100 years, from about 538 to 430 B. C. It begins with the hard schooling and discipline of the 70 years of captivity, and then when the nation has sufficiently learned its lessons to make it safe for Palestine, they are permitted to return, and in a small way to start anew.

CENTRAL TRUTHS.—The lessons of the quarter are not very closely connected with one another, and a good way to spend part of the review hour will be to try and bring out the central teaching of each lesson. Opinions will differ as to what the central teachings are, but the following, offered as suggestions, are outlined by Dr. Torrey:

Lesson I. The folly of lifting one's self up against the Lord of Heaven, and not glorifying Him in whose hand our breath is, and whose are all our ways.

Lesson II. God is able to deliver the one who serves Him continually from every danger, no matter how appalling.

Lesson III. The certainty of every word of God.

Lesson IV. The duty of building for Jehovah and of separation from the world.

Lesson V. Victory is of Jehovah, not by might, not by power, but by the Spirit of Jehovah.

Lesson VI. Anyone in a position of influence and power is put there, not for themselves, but to use their power and influence for the interests of God and His people.

Lesson VII. The hand of God is upon all that seek Him for good, and He will deliver His trusting servants from the hand of the enemy, and from such as lie in wait for the way.

Lesson VIII. The character of true prayer begins with adoring contemplation of God, is persistent, is accompanied by confession of sin, is built upon God's Word of promise, appeals to the relation of God to His people, is intensely earnest.

Lesson IX. Things which are perfectly lawful, still ought not to be done if others will be injured thereby.

Lesson X. The one who works for God should trust in God, but at the same time should exercise all prudence in watching against enemies.

Lesson XI. The Word of God has power to convince of sin and to bring about joy.

Lesson XII. Jehovah is coming to refine and purify His people and to execute judgment upon sinners.

Lesson XIII. Jesus Christ is a wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, and of the increase of His government and of peace there shall be no end.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION.—The review of these lessons coming as it does on the last day of the old year suggests the need of reviewing our past lives and the events of the past year. As the rower looks backward that he may go forward, so we look at our past in order to make a better future. We look at our failures that we may learn the lesson they teach, and then forget them as God forgives and blots out forever. We look at what we have gained, in order that we may stand upon that past and go better.

It is well therefore to see: 1. What lessons we can learn for ourselves from the history we have been studying. 2. What the history has to teach our nation. 3. We can take courage from the fact that even with such imperfect people, and such hard times, real and great progress was made of which we are now reaping some of the results. 4. Let us see visions of better things and keep the divine ideals always before us.

Faith. Faith is the color-bearer in the army of the Lord.—United Presbyterian. Where faith goes out soul famine comes in.

The faith that believes in things unseen soon sees the things unknown. The strength of a man's faith is in inverse proportion to his singularity. The least prayer that reaches God's throne shakes His footstool.—Rams' Horn.

"I would rather walk in the dark with God than go alone in the light; I would rather walk with Him by faith than walk alone by sight."

Shot Actor Dead. COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 19.—Abbott Davidson of New York, a comedian in the "Nothing but Money" theatrical company, was killed by George Hasty, proprietor of a hotel at Gaffney, on Saturday night. The shooting was the result of an insult offered by Hasty. It is said, to two actresses of the company.

Italian Cabinet Resigns. ROME, Dec. 19.—The cabinet of Prime Minister Fortis resigned last night following a twelve hour debate in the chamber of deputies and the defeat by the opposition of the commercial modus vivendi with Spain. The sitting was a most exciting one.

Greek Cabinet Resigns. ATHENS, Dec. 19.—The cabinet of M. Balli resigned as the result of the defeat of the government over the election of a president of the chamber of deputies. King George has summoned former Premier Theotokis to form a new cabinet.

Montenegro Cabinet Resigns. BETHINE, Montenegro, Dec. 19.—The ministry has resigned.

THREE BANKS FAIL

Chicago National, Home Savings and Equitable Trust.

AID FROM CLEARING HOUSE BANKS

Assets of Institutions Involved in Coal and Railroad Investments of John R. Walsh, President of National Bank.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—The failure of the Chicago National bank, the Home Savings bank and the Equitable Trust company, all of Chicago, is announced here by representatives of the Chicago Clearing House association after a session lasting eighteen hours. James H. Forgan, president of the First National bank, as head of the clearing house committee of the Chicago associated banks, gave out the statement.

The assets of these institutions, it was asserted, were involved in coal and railway properties of John R. Walsh, president of the Chicago National bank.

A batch of several thousand persons surged in the street in front of the Chicago National bank building and a riot was feared.

The statement was issued in the office of the First National bank. It is as follows: "The citizens of Chicago will undoubtedly be surprised to learn that the Chicago National bank, the Home Savings bank and the Equitable Trust company, which have been controlled, managed and overseen by John R. Walsh and his associates, have concluded to wind up their affairs in Chicago, but they will be gratified to learn that after a thorough and careful examination of their affairs by the Chicago clearing house banks the depositors of these institutions will be paid in full upon demand, the Chicago clearing house banks having pledged themselves to this result, thus putting all the resources of the Chicago banks behind the depositors of these two institutions."

"The difficulty with the institutions has been that their investments have been made in assets connected with the railway and coal enterprises of John R. Walsh. These assets were not immediately available to meet deposits in full.

At a meeting of the Chicago clearing house a board was appointed to take formal control of the Chicago National and Home Savings banks. The committee took charge at once, the officers of the institutions resigning immediately.

Chicago financiers place all of Mr. Walsh's troubles at the door of the Southern Indiana railroad. A number of years ago he purchased the Bedford stone quarries in Indiana and constructed the Southern Indiana railroad and secured an outlet for his quarry products to Terra Haute, Ind., where he came in contact with the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad for transportation north and south.

Walsh was tarred and feathered. WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—"Brother" George Huffman, representative known to be the "true prophet of Christ," was tarred and feathered at Perth, a small town near here, by a mob. After the terrible punishment was applied the man walked all night to Renfrew, Grant county, Okla., twenty miles south of here. He suffered greatly from the cold, as he was without clothing. Huffman is charged with inducing a farmer to give up his property to him so that he could regenerate the world.

Krup Is at Idaho Springs, Colo. IDAHO SPRINGS, Colo., Dec. 19.—There appears to be no doubt that John Krup, who "skipped" his bail in New York three weeks ago just as he was to have been placed on trial for voting illegally, has been located. The authorities here are also certain that a stranger who was seen in Krup's company in Idaho Springs was E. J. Cornell, chairman of the board of inspectors at the polling place where Krup was allowed to cast an illegal ballot.

Tariff War on Germany. WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Germany is given a sharp warning against tariff discrimination affecting the United States in a bill introduced by Representative McCleary of Minnesota. The bill provides an additional duty of 25 per cent on the wares of any country found discriminating against American products.

AN OPPORTUNITY. We want a wide-awake man in this locality to actively represent us in promoting the sales of the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine.

This machine is backed by fifty-eight years of success; some of the early machines built by this company are giving faithful service to-day.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN to let dividends ACCUMULATE on a Life Insurance Policy? In many companies it means NOTHING more than an agreement on the part of the policy-holder to do without dividends for fifteen or twenty years and then take whatever dividends the company may be willing to give; should you die or lapse the policy during the accumulated period, all dividends are forfeited. Dividends are declared EVERY year in the MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, and the policy-holders use them to help pay their premiums, or to buy increased insurance or to convert their policy into an endowment. IT WOULD BE to your advantage before insuring to see E. SCOTT MARTIN.
