ASK REHEARING IN REBATE CASE

Bonaparte Strikes at Grosscup and Defends Judge Landts.

CALLS FOR A NEW FINE

Charged With Stealing $173,000 From United States Sub-Treasury In Chicago—Democratic Vice Presidential Nominee Notified—Failed to Wed, Girl Is Sued — Judge Ermentrout Dead—Pennsylvania Pure Food Law Declared Unconstitutional—Baptists Form a Bible Conference.

Attorney General Bonaparte filed in the United States circuit court of appeals at Chicago his application for a rehearing in the reversal of the $29,000,000 fine decision in the Standard Oil case. The attorney general takes issue with the court on all the essential points of the ruling recently handed down here.

The government contends vigorously and with references to the record that the reversal of the case, so far as the ruling of the trial judge with reference to ignorance on the part of the shipper as a defence is concerned, is based on a misstatement by the court of the record in the case as to the admission of the evidence and to a misunderstanding by the court of what the trial judge ruled with reference to the admission of evidence, and how he really charged the jury.

It is further asserted that the court of appeals has done a great injustice to Trial Judge Landis in misstating what he did in connection with the imposition of the fine on the Standard Oil company.

The circuit court of appeals in its opinion charges that Judge Landis assumed to fine the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, and imposed the large fine for the reason that he was satisfied that the Standard Oil company of New Jersey was not a "virgin offender."

The government shows in its petition that Judge Landis never referred to the Standard Oil company of New Jersey in this connection, and that the language used was used in connection with the Standard Oil company of Indiana, and that nowhere were the proceedings directed or pretended to be directed against the Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

It appears from the record in the circuit court of appeals that the net profit of the business of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, the corporation that Judge Landis fined, for the years during which the violations of the law for which it was convicted were committed and including the year in which it was indicted, amounted to $33,583,208.80.

On this point the petition states:

"We respectfully call the attention of the court to the statement of the Standard Oil company of Indiana on file in this case, referred to by the court in its opinion and treated as proper for consideration in determining whether or not the penalty was excessive."

"The punishment therefore," Mr. Bonaparte says, "is no more severe than is inflicted upon a letter carrier who steals a letter and is sent to the penitentiary for three years, thereby depriving him of his earning capacity for that time. It is not nearly so severe as the minimum penalty of five years in the penitentiary imposed upon a banker who misapplies the funds of his bank.

The government claims that on account of the size of the fine alone there is no necessity for a retrial of the case; that the circuit court of appeals may, itself, name the fine which should be imposed, and calls upon the court to do so in case it adheres to the view that Judge Landis abused his discretion in imposing so large a fine.

To Take Mount Rose's Temperature.

Professor Alexandre G. M. Cadie, director of the weather bureau of the Pacific coast, is at Reno, Nev., to aid Professor Church, of the University of Nevada, in setting up the Ferguson meteorograph, a marvelous invention that registers automatically for forty days at a time the temperature, atmospheric pressure, humidity and other data of importance in determining weather conditions. It will be installed on Mount Rose, which is 10,800 feet high. It is one of the four or five such instruments in existence in the world. Such an instrument is on Mount Blanc, one in Rome and one in South America.

Fails to Wed, Girl Is Sued.

Miss Mary E. Barry, twenty-two years old, daughter of a widow of Hartford, Conn., finds her savings bank account attached in a suit for $3000 brought against her by Timothy J. Curtin, of Springfield. Curtin says Miss Barry's failure to keep her engagement to wed has caused him this much damage.

Pure Food Law Unconstitutional.

The Pennsylvania pure food law of 1907 was declared unconstitutional in a decision rendered by Judge Martin Bell in the Blair county court. The court holds that the law violates article 1, section 4 of the state constitution. This is the first court in the state to pass upon the constitutionality of this law.

Charged With Stealing $173,000.

The mystery of the theft of $173,000 from the United States subtreasury at Chicago a year and a half ago, one of the largest losses the government has ever suffered in this manner, is believed to have been solved by the arrest of George W. Fitzgerald. Others are believed to have been implicated in the crime, which for many months completely baffled government secret service men.

Fitzgerald was an assorting teller under Assistant United States Treasurer William Boldenweck. Suspicion at the time of the theft, Feb. 20, 1907, rested on him, but so plausible was his story and so intense his apparent interest in discovering the real culprit that interest ceased to centre in him. Much work was done on the theory that the crime had been perpetrated by a colored man. Meanwhile Fitzgerald was discharged from the government employ for culpable negligence in allowing such a theft to be consummated under his very eyes.

The theft created a sensation throughout the country, and congress at the last session was asked and refused to release Assistant Treasurer Boldenweck from liability, although it was promised that congress would again consider the matter at its next session.

Meanwhile Herbert F. Young, head of the Young secret service agency, became interested in the case, at first without official connection with the case, but later as the agent of Mr. Boldenweck. Mr. Young's attention was redirected to Fitzgerald. According to Mr. Young, Fitzgerald embarked in speculation on a scale not consistent with the size of his reputed means. There was, however, no ostentation in Fitzgerald's life. The lavish display which detectives invariably look for in tracing stolen funds was absent. Fitzgerald bought eggs for speculation and stored them. In July, 1907, he inaugurated an egg deal which ultimately, it is stated, involved an expenditure of $7000, and the following March a similar deal involved him, according to Mr. Young, to the extent of $15,000. His wife also bought a residence for $8500 in Rogers Park, a suburb of Chicago.

Assistant States Attorney Barbour was approached, and Judge Chetlain at his home issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Fitzgerald, charging him with the larceny of $173,000 from the government vaults.

John W. Kern Notified.

In the presence of William J. Bryan, the head of the Democratic party in this nation, the leaders and many of the notables of that party, and a large and enthusiastic audience, John W. Kern, of Indianapolis, accepted the nomination for the vice presidency by the Democratic party. The address formally notifying Mr. Kern of his selection as the running mate of Mr. Bryan was made by Theodore A. Bell, of California, who was temporary chairman of the Denver convention, and who spoke for the notification committee. Mr. Bell was given the closest attention of his great audience, his clear-cut, actor-like face and vivid style of oratory creating a distinct impression upon his hearers.

When Mr. Kern arose to acknowledge the high honor accorded him by his party, he was given an ovation only slightly less demonstrative than that which later was given Mr. Bryan when the latter arose to conclude the day's program with his long-awaited address on "Trusts."

After felicitously acknowledging the honor that had been conferred upon him by the Denver convention and expressing his pleasure and satisfaction in being associated with Mr. Bryan on the ticket, Mr. Kern arraigned the Republican party for what he alleged was the establishment of a "parliamentary condition in the interest of monopoly, under which the sole power to determine whether a measure should be allowed to become a law or not was lodged in the speaker" of the house of representatives, citing a number of cases in support of his contention.

Mr. Bryan's prepared address on "Trusts" concluded the day's program. The great audience literally rose to him with a swelling tide of cheers that was long in subsiding. It was a fine personal triumph for the thrice-named nominee of his party.

Noted Ball Player Dead.

Dr. Albert J. Bushong, famous as a baseball catcher when a member of the St. Louis Browns and the Brooklyn teams, died at his home in Brooklyn. Bushong was born in Philadelphia fifty-two years ago, and in the eighties vied with "King" Kelly for first honors as a backstop. He retired from baseball in 1900, taking up the profession of dentistry, and practicing in Brooklyn. He leaves a widow.

Helped Organize the Republican Party

William Seybert, one of the local organizers of the Republican party and a delegate to the first national convention, held in Pittsburg in 1856, died in Pittsburg at the age of eighty-eight years. He had been married sixty-four years.

Judge Ermentrout Dead.

ALLEN WINTER WINS $30,000

Unique Handicap Trotting Race at Readville, Mass.

THE PURSE WAS $50,000

Horses Were Placed at Marks Behind Usual Starting Point On a Handicap Based On Their Records—20,000 People Were Present and Approved the New System—Sweet Marie, 2.05, Ran Unplaced, But Gets a Share of the Money.

Readville, Mass., Aug. 26.—The well earned victory won by M. R. Reardon's Indianapolis stallion, Allen Winter, at the Readville track, thereby capturing the largest share of the $50,000 American trotting handicap from the field of thirty-three starters, is believed by many of the 20,000 followers of harness racing who saw the contest, to establish a new era in the history of the sport and ensure its rejuvenation in this country.

The race was novel in its conditions, which placed the horses at marks from one-quarter to three-eights of a mile behind the usual starting point, on a handicap based on their previous performances, and at the conclusion it appeared to be the general opinion of all who saw the two preliminary heats and the grand final that this system of racing will be popular in the future.

It was the first race in which Allen Winter had trotted this year, and Lon McDonald, his driver, sized up the field in the two preliminary heats. In the first he watched sixteen horses, placed at marks from 1220 to 1720 feet behind the usual starting line, sweep once and a quarter round the track to a grand finish, with Bervalco in the lead. In the second heat, with his own horse 1570 feet from the wire, and 6850 feet to travel, he pushed Allen Winter carefully, but surely, past three other horses, and kept ahead of the others, finishing a good third.

The first heat had been run off at a 2.08 gait for the mile, but the second was a few minutes slower.

Then came the battle for final honors and the money, with sixteen well known trotters in the field, the fastest being Sweet Marie, 2.05.

As they turned into the stretch and raced under the wire for the first time, it looked like a long procession, and there was very little change in positions.

At the quarter pole Kim drew out a little, while the entire field still seemed well strung out. At the three-eighths the horses began to bunch up, and there seemed to be four divisions, with Kim out ahead and Sweet Marie coming up fast on the outside of the last bunch. The pace to the three-quarter pole never slackened.

The slow horses up ahead were tiring fast, and the fast horses behind were coming up strong. The field came around the turn into the stretch like a Roman chariot race, with three teams abreast and twelve horses lined up for a grand dash of an eighth of a mile to the wire. At that point it seemed anybody's race, but 200 yards from the finish McDonald shot Allen Winter out of the bunch, and, urging the big stallion along at the top of his speed, drew away rapidly and won by five lengths. The next ten horses came under the wire in a bunch, and the judges were nearly ten minutes in arriving at the conclusion.

It was found that Prince C. had captured second money, San Francisco third money, Geers, who drove Teasel, and Andrews, behind Sweet Marie, were beaten about fifty feet by the place winners.

The purse of $50,000 was split up, $30,000 going to the winner, $10,000 to the second horse, $5000 to the third, $2500 to the fourth, $1500 to the fifth and $1000 to the sixth.

COULDN'T WORSHIP AMERICA'S TRINITY

Suicide Preacher Leaves a Remarkable Letter.

New York, Aug. 26.—Ill, half blind, criticising the church on the score of untruthfulness and insincerity, and declaring that he could not worship "America's trinity—success, pleasure and gold," Rev. Albert H. Trick shot and killed himself in a room in a Mills hotel. He was once pastor of a Presbyterian church in Chicago, and later had a charge at Saratoga, N. Y., but had no regular pastorate for several years, obtaining an insecure livelihood as an insurance agent.

In a remarkable letter which he left to Charles N. Dowd, of this city, who had befriended him, the former pastor declared that he was lonely, even in the church, when he attempted to "square his soul by the teachings of Jesus," and asserted that the modern church more nearly follows the example of Robert Ingersoll than those of Jesus. He then said:

"I could never worship America's trinity—success, pleasure and gold. I am too old and settled in my character to change, though my eyes have long been spent on my delusions."

Diarrhoea Cured.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle, of Philippe, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by The Winston Drug Co.

STOCK BROKERS FAIL

Firm Which Did Heavy Trading Goes to the Wall.

New York, Aug. 26.—The failures of the big brokerage firm of A. O. Brown & Co. for a sum popularly estimated as running well above $1,000,000, sent a nervous thrill through the stock market. Coming as a climax to the bewildering trading in last Saturday's market, the suspension created an extraordinary degree of public interest, but was looked upon by high stock exchange interests as offering an early solution of the tangle growing out of the most remarkable two hours' session the New York stock exchange has known in many years.

The transactions of A. O. Brown & Co. covered nearly 75 per cent. of the trading in the sensational week-end session of the stock market, and it was stated officially by a member of the firm that delivery had been made on only 277,600 of the more than 700,000 shares handled. How many of the outstanding shares represent the dealings of customers, and how many were carried on the firm's account, it was impossible to learn.

It is understood that brokerage firms who were awaiting the delivery of stock from A. O. Brown & Co. became impatient, and sent word that they would allow but a few more hours of grace. All attempts to secure further delay were futile, and the suspension followed.

EARLE ASSAULTED HIS "SOUL MATE"

Artist of Affinity Fame Goes to Jail as Wife Beater.

Middletown, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Ferdinand P. Earle, the artist of affinity fame, was arrested at his home near Monroe, charged with assault in the second degree, alleged to have been committed on his wife on or about August 16, twelve days after the birth of their child.

The complaintant was Mrs. Inez Barry, an aunt of Mrs. Earle. It is not known on what the assault charge is based. Earle pleaded guilty to the charge and was held to await the action of the grand jury, which meets in October, the magistrate before whom he appeared having no jurisdiction to dispose of this case. Preferring to be locked up rather than give bail, Earle was conveyed to the county jail at Goshen. In court Earle appeared to be very much affected, tears streaming down his cheeks during the proceedings.

Mrs. Earle, accompanied by her baby and a nurse, hurried away in an automobile towards Central Valley, where she will remain with friends for the present.

RUM AT OCEAN GROVE

Famous Camp Meeting Place Has Twenty Government Licenses.

Asbury Park, N. J., Aug. 26.—That there are twenty government licensed places for the sale of liquor in Ocean Grove, where are held the greatest Methodist camp meetings in America, and ninety in Asbury Park, all of which have been doing business, was the statement of George W. Thompson, president of the Asbury Park excise commission, before the state commission appointed by Governor Fort here.

"Just after appointment of the Ocean Grove commission," said Mr. Thompson, "complaints came in that all the hotels in the place were selling liquor. We brought these complaints to the attention of Mayor Atkins and Chief of Police Smith, but neither of them took any particular notice, and finally it became necessary for us to employ our own detectives."

It was also brought out that there are sixty-seven licenses in Long Branch.

Baby Smiles As Car Strikes Her.

Clayton, N. J., Aug. 26.—As the Atlantic City express dashed around the curve just below Franklinville station seventeen-months-old Viola Hawn, who was playing on the track, looked up at Motorman W. R. Vanneman and smiled as the train bore down upon her. Vanneman shut off the current, reversed and put on the brakes, but was too late. The child was struck in the head and thrown almost at the feet of its mother. She picked up the little one and clasped it to her breast. The baby's condition was so serious that Conductor E. S. Johnson decided to hurry her to the hospital, and made a fast run to Camden, only slowing up at Pitman to take on Dr. M. H. Lumis, who cared for the child until the train reached Cooper hospital, where she died.

Child's Hand Eaten By Hog.

Somerville, N. J., Aug. 26.—As a result of being bitten by a hog, Elizabeth Robinson, the eighteen-month-old daughter of Albert Robinson, a farmer of North Branch, may have to have her hand amputated. The child was playing in the farmyard when she stuck her hand between two boards in the pen and could not release it. A hog in the pen began chewing at the child's hand, and kept it up until her screams brought aid.

He Warned McKinley.

York, Pa., Aug. 26.—Dr. Henry S. Test, the man who is said to have warned President McKinley that he would be shot, died here as the result of a nervous breakdown. He was a religious fanatic, and was fifty years old.

A Faithful Friend.

"Ihave used Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols, of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he knows its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by The Winston Drug Co.

ROSENBLOOMS GO TO WINDBER

Wife and Daughter of Murdered Man Waive Extradition.

MADE MORE ADMISSIONS

Not Only Knew Her Husband Had Been Murdered By Her Son, But Knew the Body Had Been Placed In a Trunk and Concealed In Cellar of Her Home—Police Believe They Aided In Crime to Secure Life Insurance — Daughter Admits She Struck Her Father.

Baltimore, Aug. 26.—Under renewed and searching questioning Mrs. Bunnie Rosenbloom, wife of Samuel J. Rosenbloom, the victim of the Camden trunk mystery, followed the admissions she made to the local detectives by a still more detailed confession. Mrs. Rosenbloom, in the presence of Detective Captain Pumphrey, Chief of Police McMullen, of Windber, Pa., and members of the Baltimore detective force stated that she not only knew that her husband had been murdered by her son, Alexander Rosenbloom, but that she knew that the body had been placed in a trunk and concealed in the cellar of their home for twenty-four hours.

The daughter, Eva, sixteen years old, also admitted that she knew of her father's murder, and that the body had been concealed in the cellar of their home until their brother, Alexander, and two of his friends—Joseph and Louis Egler—took the trunk away in a wagon.

The Eglers are now in custody in New York, having been arrested by the police of that city.

While Mrs. Rosenbloom and her daughter admit that they knew of the murder, and that the body was concealed in the house, both of them strenuously deny that they had anything to do with the actual killing.

After the examination the two women, in custody of Chief McMullen, started for Windber, the prisoners having waived extradition.

The police do not believe the denials of the Rosenbloom women that they had anything to do with the actual killing, and express the belief that it was deliberately planned to secure the man's life insurance and to get possession of his store.

In the course of her examination Mrs. Rosenbloom said that she and Eva and Alexander had tried to induce Rosenbloom to leave them and to settle $2500 upon them; that he refused; that they quarreled; that during a quarrel shortly before the murder Eva struck her father in the face.

"I did strike him," said the girl. "He beat me and I struck him, that's all."

Mrs. Rosenbloom said that after Alexander told her that he had murdered his father and had put the body in the trunk he went out and got Joseph and Louis Egler. Whether he told them all about the murder is not yet known, but at any rate the Eglers arrived at the house the next night in a covered wagon.

The trunk was taken to Johnstown, Pa., and shipped to Camden, at which place they again met the trunk, secured a wagon and took it to the woods near Bell Mawr. Then they returned to Camden.

Before leaving here with Chief of Police McMullen, of Windber, Pa. Mrs. Rosenbloom acknowledged that she herself wrote the letter purporting to have been written to her by her husband subsequent to the time he was murdered, which letter directed her to discharge the clerk, Harry Freedman, the plea that Rosenbloom could not longer afford to employ him.

Died of Broken Heart.

Norristown, Pa., Aug. 26. — In St. Patrick's burying ground there was interred the body of Richard Kennedy, a man forty years old, who had died of a broken heart. He was a Pennsylvania railroad engineer, and in good health until July 3, 1905, when his only son, Leo, a promising lad of seven years, was stricken with scarlet fever and died. The father, grief-stricken, found it impossible to overcome a tendency to brood over his loss. All that skilled physicians could do did not heal the bruised heart, and he pined away, without any well-defined disease, until last Friday, when death relieved his misery.

Three-Year-Old Girl to Swim In Race.

Pittsburg, Aug. 26.—Among those who will contest in swimming races in West Park next Saturday will be Dorothy Swan Wilkins, three years old, grand-daughter of Robert Swan, a riverman. The child has shown a fondness for the river, and has attracted much attention when bathing at the swimming pool at the foot of Franklin street.

Robbed Sixteen Stages and Escaped.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 26. — A special from Lake hotel, Yellowstone Park, Wyo., says: "The lone bandit who held up sixteen stage coaches in Spring creek canyon and robbed 120 persons of at least $12,000 apparently made good his escape, according to reports received this evening by a searching party of cavalrymen."

What is Best for Indigestion?

Mr. A. Robinson, of Drumquin, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price 25, cents.
