

week, but at night only.

From Briery.

August 5.—Rev. G. W. Prosser... meetings which have been held at Mt. Pleasant for the past few days, on yesterday afternoon. The attendance was good and the earnest, sound teachings could not fail to have been beneficial to all who were present. At the last two meetings the music by Rev. Mr. Damm and wife, of Farmville, was greatly enjoyed.

The farmers' picnic at Keysville on last Thursday was well attended from this community, and we congratulate Mr. and Mrs. J. Penn Redd for carrying off the prize for the handsomest married couple.

Katherine, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watts, is quite ill, but was somewhat improved on yesterday.

Mrs. George D. Davis is with Mr. F. C. Wilson and family. Mrs. Wilson and little Irene are both improving.

Mrs. Nina Hatchett, of Farmville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas W. Jones.

Mrs. Lelia B. Redd, of Waldo, and Mrs. Willie Lucy, of Richmond, enjoyed a few days of last week with their sister, Mrs. W. E. Chappell.

Miss Clara Covington was the guest last week of her aunt, Mrs. Logan Womack, of Abilene.

IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF CUMBERLAND ON THE 5th day of August, 1910:

R. O. Garrett, Plaintiff against Julia Catlett and Moscoe Catlett, her husband, and the unknown heirs at law of Henry Brown, dec'd. Defendants

The object of this suit is to make partition of a tract of 35 acres of land more or less, adjoining John Dabney and others and which Wm. J. Brown died seized and possessed of, and if in the opinion of the Court that portion cannot conveniently be made, to sell the same and divide the proceeds among parties entitled thereto. And an affidavit having been made and filed that the unknown heirs at law of Henry Brown, dec'd, who are defendants in this suit are not residents of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that they do appear here within fifteen days after due publication hereof and do what may be necessary to protect their interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published once a week for four weeks in the Farmville Herald, a newspaper published in the town of Farmville, Va., and that a copy be posted at the front door of the Courthouse of this county on the 15th day of August, 1910, that being the next succeeding rule day after this order was entered.

A copy—Teste: C. R. SANDERSON, Clerk. A. B. ARMSTRONG, p. q. Aug. 12-11.
