BIG POKERS.

Walthall Bros. have killed their fat' pokers, and one weighed 410, the other 493 pounds.

For a year old this is good, but the two killed last season kicked the beam at nine hundred and odd. The spare ribs are by no means spare and the sausage is not wanting in rich gravy. Of course they have lard "to burn," and the hams will be worth the price of a veal each.

The largest and best line of "wick room" goods in town. White Drug Co.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS.

Notes of Happenings and People You Know.

The court clerk says, in accents slow "You're charged with speeding Richard Rowe!"

The copper says, in accents sour: "The rate was eighteen miles an hour."

The chauffeur murmurs, with a whine: "I wasn't going over nine."

The Judge aside his law book lays, And says: "Ten dollars or ten days."

Mrs. W. R. Berkeley and the baby have gone to Baltimore for Christmas.

Dr. Paulus A. Irving made a business trip to New York last week.

Mr. F. D. Green, who has been in Ohio for some time, attending to business there is at home again.

Mr. P. H. C. Rice is still confined to his home and his friends greatly miss him from his usual walks and work.

Five banquets in Farmville during one week broke all past records, and the crown of victory rested on each of them.

Mrs. Hannibal A. William's recital of Romeo and Juliet will be given in the Normal School Auditorium tonight.

Mr. E. E. Hundley gathered ice last week more than 3 inches thick, and that's unusual for this section at this season of the year.

The Presbyterian Sunday School will have a Christmas tree for the children, and may be the grown children will be remembered too.

Miss Charley Jones, who has been teaching at the Warm Springs, Bath county, is at home for the Christmas holiday, the first of the home-comers for the season.

If some one connected with the tobacco market of Farmville will send weekly report to the Herald, it will be given to the public. This is matter of great public interest.

The ice has been of unusual thickness this season, and yet thin ice has been claiming some victims. Beware of the ice that gives out a sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Amos returned to their home in Hampton Saturday, after spending several days with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Len Amos, of Cumberland.

Mrs. J. Y. Phillips has a bush of Poinsettia, or Christmas flower, filled with rich blossoms. It is a rare bloomer with us, and is worth seeing.

Mrs. H. W. Flournoy left on Tuesday for the home of her brother, Judge Henry Wood, at Clarksville, where she will spend her Christmas.

Mr. C. T. Pickett kindly and generously supplied the ladies of the Presbyterian Church with water for use at their bazaar. Mr. L. C. Martin printed the menu cards in artistic style without cost.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hamlett and family are living temporarily in a residence near Hampden-Sidney. As since living there the family circle is larger by one. Let the name be Hampden-Sidney Hamlett.

Chief Fogus says he knows it has been unusually cold for the season, as he has never worn his overcoat so constantly in the closing days of November and the opening days of December.

Mrs. Louis Paulett has returned from a pleasant visit to her old home in Fauquier. She left twelve inches of snow in the mountains, and found it warm in Farmville in comparison. Must be rather chilly up there in the hills.

In selecting your Christmas presents don't forget the Herald for the year 1911, to be mailed regularly to some absent friend. Two cents a copy, plus the postage on a letter, and each copy will contain much more of home news than you can crowd into a letter.

Among the bankers who attended the conference of "Group 4," was Mr. Richard Cunningham, who came to Farmville in the arms of his honored father when he became president of the Normal. It seems but yesterday, and yet he's today the grown man, and occupying front rank among the younger bank officials of the State.

Mr. Julian Shafer, of Cincinnati, was in town on Wednesday, and was cordially welcomed by many friends. He began his business life here under discouraging conditions, but in spite of serious handicap has worked his way to front ranks in the business circles of his adopted city. He got his inspiration in Farmville, where so many other young men have prepared for honorable and useful life work.

Byron said he was "most religious on a sunny day," and there must not have been many such days in his life.

Hog pens and diphtheria go hand in hand in Waynesboro, Penn. No such combination should be allowed in Farmville.

Did it ever occur to you that a rabbit made his front tracks with his hind feet? Such is said to be a fact at any rate.

Some one says, "Money has relaxed and must have Christmas in its bones." May the relaxing continue until it comes this way.

If the bears increase in numbers in the woods around and about Farmville, we will have to send for "Teddy" to help us out of our troubles.

And still one of the strongest banks of Richmond is flooding this section with personal letters appealing for deposits. Advertising does pay.

A farmer up in Pennsylvania killed a bear that weighed 200 pounds. Ours was heavier still. The Pennsylvania bruin was after chickens, while ours was thought to be after children.

The leaves that have fallen in Farmville have been converted into beds for Farmville horses and cows, and so are still doing good work. In the economy of nature nothing is lost.

Farmville may be short on turkey bird, but it is long on turkey-buzzard. They crowd our trees, knock at our doors, and some of them are dying from hunger. One of our compassionate housewives scatters food for them in the back yard.

A small colored boy of Farmville was sent for one of our doctors, and he had delivered the message and named the street he was asked for the number of the house, when he promptly said: "De number is on de door."

Burnish up the skates, boys and girls too, for there's fun ahead. No sport more manly, more womanly, and none more health giving. Beware, however, of the thin ice, but fear not the fall. It is part of the fun. Get up and go again.

If there are nine miles of side walks in Farmville suppose you walk them over some afternoon and learn how long it takes you to make the rounds. The writer's record is two hours and twenty minutes.

Mr. John Richardson is enclosing with a perfect wire fence a 5 acre garden. The land hasn't been in cultivation for a number of years, is of fine quality, and with the eastern exposure catches the first rays of the morning sun, which means first vegetables for market.

"H. of B." was in town on Friday of last week, but was in such a hurry that he failed to give us the news from Buckingham, nor did he give his version of English politics. He is on the Lord's side, but what of the lords of the King's country?

The large stores in Philadelphia will close at six o'clock in the evening even during the Christmas shopping season, and this will give each an even chance and show mercy to the shop girls. And since man is enjoyed by the Maker of men to be merciful to his beast, surely the same consideration should be shown to members of the human family.

Kenbridge, over in the "Free State" of Lunenburg, is not an old town nor a large one, but is the 1st of December there has been sold in that market 1,014,146 pounds of tobacco for the season. Blackstone must feel the knock, but Farmville sends congratulations. There is room enough in Virginia for many more prosperous and progressive business centers.

A Profitable Land Investment.

Fourteen years ago Mr. Serpell and others bought a strip of land in West Virginia for $450, and have recently sold it for $20,000.

Oil and gas did it, and it may be found in this section. Why not, then, chip in a few thousand of idle capital and drill for them? This is no wild-cat suggestion.

MEETING OF SUPERVISORS.

(Continued from page one.) Farmville Herald, printing 2.50 Dr. M. E. Vest, attending luncheon 10.00 R. S. Rice, blind for C. H. 2.00 A road from Briery Station to Keysville was ordered to be opened.

Whiteside Bros. were allowed to run a telephone line along the road from Briery Station to Meberrin road, provided the poles be placed on one side of the road and not to interfere with working and drainage of the road.

It was ordered that a proper supply of antioxin be placed at Prospect with E. S. Taylor, and at the White Drug Co., Farmville, to be sold to the public at 10 per cent above cost and to the poor free of charge upon proper certificate.

The treasurer was authorized to purchase a new adding machine, not costing over $250, and an exchange of the old machine. Mr. Hart was authorized to work the new road near Womack's as seems to him the best and most economical way.

Mr. Davis was instructed to have a porch built to the new house at the Poor House, and at the most economical cost.

On motion the treasurer was instructed to advance Isaac Redford $250 on cost of erecting a new building at the Poor House, balance to be paid upon presentation of account.

The corn prizes are to be paid as follows: Loyd Rosser $25.00 Emery Dillon 15.00 Willie Carter 10.00

Obituary.

Mrs. Fannie Bass Carter passed from earth to heaven, Nov. 24th, 1910.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of which she was a faithful member, desires to express their great loss at her unexpected departure. Therefore, be it resolved:

1st. That while we humbly bow to the Divine will, we shall greatly miss her from the society, and also from the Sunday School, in which she was a prompt and efficient teacher.

2nd. That this society extends to bereaved family its sincere sympathy in this hour of sadness.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, spread on the minutes of the Aid Society, and sent to the Farmville Herald for publication.

Mrs. M. W. Marshall, Mrs. Wm. J. Shipman, Committee.

Take Care.

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My troubles started with sharp shooting pains over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Sold by all druggists.

White Drug Co. sell Foley Kidney Pills.

More Than One Hundred Years Old.

Bedford Jones, colored, who lived near the home of Mr. H. N. Madison, of this county, died on Saturday last at the age of 107 years. The age of this man is authenticated by reliable data in the hands of Mr. Madison. Uncle Bedford's mother died some years ago at Rough Creek, in Charlotte county, after attaining to the age of over 100 years.

To Have Holiday.

The Herald staff will be given Christmas week as has been the custom in the past. In the meantime the job presses will be ready to meet all demands which may be made upon them.

Be ready with your letter and bill heads for the new year, and ask now for space in the 1st issue of the Herald for 1911.

It will contain a full review of the happenings of 1910, and this means that the paper will be closely read.

Your advertisement will not escape notice.

A Little Fun.

If now and then a little fun is injected into the make up of the Herald, no one should get their dander up. Nothing is set down in malice, nor with intention to offend. A little nonsense now and then is good for most men."

And The Suit Case Opened.

A Richmond attorney was hurrying to catch the train on Tuesday morning, and reaching the depot just as the train was moving off, leaped from the buggy dragging his suit case after him. This flew open, and away went its contents in every direction. The attorney grabbed all in reach and bolted for the train.

He left, however, socks, peanuts, &c., much to the delight of a small colored boy, who leisurely gathered up the remnants, and went away singing Moral: Remember the leaving hours of trains and be on time.

J. A. Garland, Druggist. Dec-2-3

You Must Read This If You Want The Benefit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago." Sold by all druggists.

Foley's Kidney Remedy is sold by the White Drug Co. Herald and N. Y. World $1.00.

THE COUNCIL IN SESSION.

The matter of the delinquent taxes on the Lindsay property was reported un-settled and continued.

Mrs. Chick and Smith asked to be exempt from paying taxes on the furniture used in the hotels under their charge, as they were embraced under their licenses as hotel keepers. The matter was referred to the town attorney for consideration and report.

An appropriation of $1,000 was made to the Farmville high school, $500 to be paid the 1st of Jan. and a like sum the 1st of April.

The subject of the paying of county taxes by tax payers of the town, as the town cares for its own poor and streets, was again continued.

Report from the judges of the recent election on bond issue was received and asked to be spread on the records. A form of bonds to be issued was presented by the attorney for the town, and was accepted. The bonds are 30-year bonds, and are to bear 5 per cent. interest, to be paid semi-annually, July and January.

A committee of three, Messrs. Vaiden, Armistead and Wilson, were named to confer with the sewer company, and if possible to agree upon a price for the property. They will make report to a call meeting.

It had not been decided by the street committee just what character of pump was best for the well on High street.

The chamber was comfortable and the business of the body was conducted under pleasant conditions. Adjournment just before the hour of mid-night, and no banquet followed.

Friends of Chief Justice White.

Farmville will feel a special and tender interest in Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court, when it is known that he was a personal friend of the late Gov. McIlhenny, who was his guest in the mansion, and who entertained him and his family in his Louisiana home.

The gifted and learned jurist made a pet of Miss Frankie, the little girl, and sent her tokens of kindly regard. Mrs. McKinnon members him as the courtly gentleman, the welcomed guest and gracious and generous host.

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM.

Every Woman Should Read Advice And The Genuine Of Or That Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names. It is a fact that of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we can supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to test our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all snuffs, douches or live remedies for years without getting more than temporal relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows local most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general disease condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.

Rexall Mucu-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, soothes, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength. We want you to try Rexall Mucu-Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Rexall Mucu-Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at—The Rexall Store, The Winston Drug Co., Main St., Farmville, Va.

It will more than pay you for the time to read our large advertisement in this paper. Duval, Son & Co.
