Every parent is, or should be careful in giving medicine to children. Chas. Baker, Brownsville, Texas, writes: "For some years past I have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and have found it especially efficient for bad coughs of my children. I always recommend it to my friends as a safe remedy for children as it contains no opiates. My wife would not think of using any other kind of cough medicine as it is certain to bring quick and lasting relief." It checks croup. Fred D. Pierce, Barton, G. H. Hunt, Evansville.

EAST CRAFTSBURY
Rev. C. E. Garvin, who has been the faithful and efficient pastor of the U. P. church of East Craftsbury for nearly nine years, closed his labors Sunday, August 26th. When he came the congregation was worshipping in a store building. Very soon work was begun on an attractive and beautiful church which was dedicated free from debt on January 26, 1910, the result of the interest and work of the people and the zeal and inspiration of Mr. Garvin, who gave many hours of thought and attention to its plans and construction. During his pastorate the membership and congregation have greatly increased and many young people have been added. Mr. Garvin's scholarly and Christian sermons have been a source of constant help and inspiration to the members of his flock and his many kindly and friendly acts to anyone he could serve have endeared him to the community and will not soon be forgotten by his many friends in this vicinity. Mr. Garvin has served in the capacity of school director and has always taken a keen interest in educational matters. He worked untiringly in the interests of the lecture course. No place will miss him more than the homes where he was always a welcome visitor. On Tuesday evening, August 28, the church tendered him a farewell reception. The large number present testified to the esteem and affection with which he was held. That success and prosperity may attend him is the wish of his many and grateful friends.
