News and Views from this Hustling Village

A Birthday Anniversary.

On the afternoon of Oct. 22d, between 50 and 60 people called upon Mrs. A. D. Chandler to extend the hand of friendship and congratulate her upon arriving in such good condition at the 90th milestone of her life. She has lived in Orleans over 53 years, beginning her career here with her husband, Lavinus L. Chandler, who was the first man engaged in buying and selling lumber in this village. His business grew and when about 22 years old his son, Edwin L. Chandler joined the firm. Then D. C. French came into the company and the industry of making piano sounding boards was introduced. Since which time and the death of E. L. Chandler, the business has greatly increased under the name of Parker-Young Co.

Since 1891 Mrs. Chandler has attended to all her business affairs, kept well posted in current events, subjects brought before the public by magazines and papers. So on her 90th birthday her mind and eyes were clear. She was physically able to accomplish a variety of useful tasks like sewing, and knitting and even cooking if necessary, for she made the loaves of fruit cake for the occasion.

She fully appreciated the gracious words and deeds performed by the many who united to make the occasion a memorable one. And she earnestly desired at this time to extend hearty thanks to all these callers and to those sending cards or letters. There were over 110 letters and cards. There were quantities of beautiful chrysanthemums, white, pink and yellow ones, begonias and roses, all given by the Eastern Star, the Book and Thimble club and neighbors and friends and from relatives living in St. Johnsbury. And these call for more thanks as well as do the gifts found upon the table, of usefulness and sweetness. Refreshments were served and the glad some social came to a close, leaving enough joy for Mrs. Chandler to ponder over at times while remaining years are hers.

It is a rare event to live to be 90 years old and still be possessed of all one's faculties as are preserved for her use. One then enjoys living and others enjoy being with such people. Thanks are especially extended to the friends who proposed the affair and so acceptably assisted in carrying out plans to make the occasion a success and so pleasant.

Eliza S. Eaton.

Mrs. Jennie Gilson.

After an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Jennie Gilson died Saturday, Oct. 18, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. H. Alden.

Mrs. Jennie Head was born in Hartland in 1842. She married Henry E. Gilson and spent a large part of her life in Quechee, where she was an active worker in the church and Sunday school and made herself a host of friends. She was a cousin of the late Martha Dana Shepard, whom she resembled in voice and features, and the two were brought up in the same family. Mrs. Shepard will be remembered as the gifted pianist who did so much to make a success of the Orleans County Musical convention while that organization flourished.

Since coming to Orleans to live several years ago, Mrs. Gilson has endeared herself to all her neighbors and acquaintances by her helpful and unselfish spirit. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends, but especially by her grandson, John Alden, who is at present in Boston, recovering from an operation. He was crippled by infantile paralysis, and from the knowledge she had gained as a school teacher Mrs. Gilson was able to train him to a scholarship far beyond his years, and a rare and beautiful friendship existed between him and "Grandma". She was "Grandma Gilson" to many others—both children and grown people—to whom her helpful sympathy will be a beautiful memory.

Gard of Thanks.—We wish to extend our most sincere thanks and appreciation to the friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses during the sickness and death of our loved one, also for the beautiful flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Alden, Priscilla Alden, Betty Alden, Helen Gilson.
