ALBANY

Mrs. Mina Eldridge has returned to her home in Albany.

Albert Lanphear was a visitor in town Saturday and Sunday.

The church fair held Saturday was a success despite the bad weather.

Mrs. Amanda Newton, who has been on the sick list is improving.

A Christmas tree will be held in the M. E. church on Christmas Eve.

The pastor of the M. E. church will preach next Sunday morning on "The Birth of Christ."

The members of the W. H. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Andrew Loomis recently.

The Craftsbury academy basketball team defeated Barton academy Friday. The people of Albany are interested because so many of our boys belong to the team.

Don't fail to attend the Bible school Sunday. There is always something interesting for everyone.

Mrs. Honey received news Monday of the death of her nephew, Ben Butler Blake at his home in Eden, Dec. 7.

Pneumonia was the cause of death. Mr. Blake was born in Eden, Nov. 10, 1864, son of Capt. Chas. W. and Julia S. Darling Blake, and had lived nearly all his life in Eden. He represented his town in the Vermont legislature and was largely interested in the asbestos mines. He was a member of the Masonic order and was Sunday school superintendent at Eden Corners for many years. He leaves a wife, one son, three daughters and five grandchildren. Also three brothers and a sister. Mr. Blake will be greatly missed in his town.

SOUTH ALBANY

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

W. E. Craig, Pastor

Pastor's theme for Sunday, "The Birth of Christ."

The Christmas tree at the South Albany church will be held on Christmas night. Everybody come.

The annual donation supper will be held in the M. E. church here on the night of January 2d. A good lecture will be given. Remember the date.

GLOVER COMMUNITY CHURCH

Pastor, Rev. John Kimball.

Morning worship, 11 a. m.

Sunday school, 12 m.

Christian Endeavor, 7 p. m.

Sunday morning the topic of the sermon will be, "Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart."

At the Christian Endeavor meeting old Christmas carols will be sung. Everybody is cordially invited to come and join in the singing.

The Christmas tree and special program by the children will be held at the church Christmas Eve at 7.30 o'clock. Come and share the Christmas goodfellowship and good cheer.

The third number of the lecture course was given Monday evening by Rev. Donald Fraser of Wells River, who spoke on "The Open Door."

The lecture was amusing, instructive and inspiring, and was enjoyed by everybody.

The Lola Sargent Mission circle met at the parsonage on Tuesday afternoon to do some special home mission work and tie a quilt.

WEST GLOVER

Carl Ticehurst has been sick the past week.

Kenneth and Murray Stevens have the measles.

There has been good skating on the pond the past week.

Peter Collette has purchased the Albert Hinkley farm.

There will be a choir rehearsal in the church Saturday evening.

Mrs. Alice Dobb of Sherbrooke is visiting her sisters in this place.

The children are asked to be at the church Saturday afternoon for rehearsal for the Christmas tree.

Mrs. R. D. Norris and son of Newport Center are spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Archie Brown.

Everyone is requested to be present at the Sunday school as a special service, "White Gifts for the King," will be presented.

The Willing Workers will hold an all day meeting at the hall Friday. There will be work in the forenoon and an address in the afternoon by Miss Holden of the Extension service.

An interesting Farm Bureau meeting was held Friday evening. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Shaw of Newport and Mr. Robinson, principal of Orleans high school, were present. The musical program was much enjoyed.

Strange Result of Explosion.

ORLEANS LOCAL MENTION

of Mrs. A. E. Ordway. An interesting meeting with special music, was held. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eva Parker, who will be assisted by Mrs. C. E. Jenkins and Mrs. Lyon. The pictures shown Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Community Christmas tree, netted $27. The community wish to thank the management, also the Harmony orchestra, which rendered music. The flower mission of the W. C. T. U. gave $5.75 to be used in preparing the Christmas boxes which are to be distributed.

Monday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, fourteen of the friends of Miss Ruth Skinner gave a supper party in honor of her approaching marriage to Lester Bill. It was a complete surprise to her and a success in every way. The table was daintily arranged with a centerpiece of pink and white carnations, ham sandwiches, salad, jelly, cheese and coffee were served, followed by delicious fruit pudding and cake. Mrs. Ella Wilson expressed the best wishes of all present and presented her with a beautiful cut glass vase and a handsome picture of Willoughby lake. Miss Skinner feelingly responded in her pleasing, genial manner. She will be greatly missed by her many friends, who wish her happiness in her new home. Those present: Misses Mae Willey, Stella Twombly, Elsie Skinner, Sadie Lothrop, Edith Lothrop, Lillian Doe, Juline Rogers, Ruth Skinner, Jennie Young and Mesdames Hazel Willey, Edith Stoddard, Mattie Jenkins, Kate Leonard and Ella Stafford.
