Why Are These Shoes Priced Lower?

The special shoes displayed in our window are below our actual selling cost. These are amongst our most popular shoes, on which a few sizes cannot be quickly replaced, and we offer them far below actual worth.

These reduced prices are our loss, but your gain; for our regular prices insure full money's worth; at all times.

Orleans Concert Band Notes.

We are beginning to rub open our eyes to the fact that Orleans has another exceptionally fine band. The concerts have been high class with much quality music and the solo work has been particularly good. The following program will be given Saturday evening, July 3, at the Railroad Park band stand:
1. Brooke's Chicago Marine Band March.
2. "Martha"—Selection.
3. "Everybody Calls Me Honey," One step.
4. "In Camp," Medley of war songs.
5. "Carolina Sunshine," Singing waltz by B. O. Smith, everybody join.
6. "On the Square," march
7. Finale—Star Spangled Banner

Congregational Church Notes

R. A. Hamilton, Pastor.
There will be no preaching service at the Congregational church for the first two Sundays in July, and no preaching service at the Methodist church the last two Sundays of the month. All are cordially invited to attend the morning worship at the Methodist church next Sunday morning.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

Clarence D. Pierce, Pastor.
Morning worship at regular hour. Sunday school in regular session. As the pastor of the Congregational church is away for a vacation, the members of his congregation are cordially invited to worship at this church. The subject of the pastor's sermon will be, "The Problem of the Bible."

The regular Sunday evening services will be discontinued for the months of July and August with the exception of an occasional union sacred concert service.

Mrs. Lydia Abbott.

Mrs. Lydia (McKinty) Abbott died June 23 at the age of 74 years. She was born in Coventry and moved to Barton where she was married to Charles Abbott, who died 15 years ago. Since that time she made her home with a brother-in-law, Charles Marshall, and his family. She had been in ill health for several years, but was able to be about the house until a few days before her death, which was caused by a paralytic shock. She leaves one brother and two nephews and two nieces. Mrs. Abbott was a gentlewoman, kind and thoughtful of others, a good neighbor and a true friend. She was an exemplary Christian and member of the Methodist church. Funeral services were conducted at the home and interment was beside her husband in Pleasant View Cemetery.
