

Poetry.

From the Round Table. The Sabbath of the Year. The sweet in woodland paths to stray...

The Free Press.

BURLINGTON FRIDAY MORNING DEC. 1 1865.

The Change in New Jersey. It is rare that in any State the vote for State officers the year after a presidential election, comes up to that of the preceding year...

Southern Anxiety.

The great anxiety, at this time, in the Southern States, is on this main question: How can we, the ruling masses of the South, under our changed condition, reach the same result which we did under our former one?

Miscellaneous.

New Items. A Cuban, named Jose Gonzalez, was horribly murdered near the Navy Yard in Brooklyn, Wednesday evening, having been stabbed some thirteen times. Some $8,000 were taken from him by the murderers.

Personal.

The Providence Journal can think of no punishment which it would like better to see inflicted on Waddell, of the Shamashah, than to have him dropped in the streets of New Bedford, and left for twenty-four hours to the tender mercies of the whaling captains.

Personal.

Tom Sayers the English pugilist, died at his residence at Camden Town on the 8th. His death has been for some time expected, lung disease and occasional haemoptysis giving him the final knock-out blow.

Personal.

For many years the French Canadians have been compelled by persecution from the English government, and, shame to say, from the hands of those from whom they naturally expected love and protection—to leave their native soil and emigrate to the United States.

Personal.

The French Canadian Movement.—In the early part of week, before a meeting of French Canadians was held in N. Y. for purposes which the accounts given of the assembly did not very clearly define.

Personal.

Judge Collamer's death was occasioned by organic disease of the heart, of which he had felt the symptoms for four or five weeks, increased by congestion of the lungs from a cold caught while attending his brother George's funeral at Montpelier.

Personal.

Wm. Raymond took the prize, as the homeliest man in the Hall at the Grand Opera's entertainment on Saturday evening. Rev. S. M. Whiting has been appointed Superintendent of Schools in Colchester.

Personal.

We are glad to learn that a project is on foot to erect a church building at Essex Junction. The church goes in that vicinity need a church, and have held several meetings to discuss in reference to the subject.

Personal.

Business Changes.—George Follett, Esq. has sold out his Provision and Grocery store in Peck's Block, to Mr. V. B. Shaw, of Stowe, who will continue the business.

Personal.

The Sale of photographic views and materials by the U. S. Marshal at the Custom House Friday, brought us, we are informed, between five and six hundred dollars. Some of our citizens got choice collections.

The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College.

The Trustees of the Vt. Agricultural College met at Montpelier on the 20th and elected, to form a part of the board of Trustees of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College, nine of their number, as follows:

Personal.

Mr. Edwin Hammond of Middlebury was elected a member of the board, and as a leading representative of the farming interest of the State, was urged to remain in it, but he declined absolutely to serve, and Mr. Herrick was chosen in his place, as above.

Personal.

Mr. Oliver P. Chandler, Woodstock, Hon. Worthington C. Smith, St. Albans, Rev. C. E. Ferrin, Esq. Hinesburg, Rev. Chas. C. Parker, Esq. Waterbury, Lewis Barnes, Esq. Burlington, J. S. Adams, Esq. Burlington, Henry Loomis, Esq. Burlington, Henry P. Hiskok, Esq. Burlington, Hon. Albert L. Cadin, Burlington.

Personal.

Mr. Elmer H. Johnson, of Montpelier, has been elected a member of the board, and as a leading representative of the farming interest of the State, was urged to remain in it, but he declined absolutely to serve, and Mr. Herrick was chosen in his place, as above.

Personal.

Mr. Elmer H. Johnson, of Montpelier, has been elected a member of the board, and as a leading representative of the farming interest of the State, was urged to remain in it, but he declined absolutely to serve, and Mr. Herrick was chosen in his place, as above.

Personal.

Mr. Elmer H. Johnson, of Montpelier, has been elected a member of the board, and as a leading representative of the farming interest of the State, was urged to remain in it, but he declined absolutely to serve, and Mr. Herrick was chosen in his place, as above.

Personal.

Mr. Elmer H. Johnson, of Montpelier, has been elected a member of the board, and as a leading representative of the farming interest of the State, was urged to remain in it, but he declined absolutely to serve, and Mr. Herrick was chosen in his place, as above.

Personal.

Mr. Elmer H. Johnson, of Montpelier, has been elected a member of the board, and as a leading representative of the farming interest of the State, was urged to remain in it, but he declined absolutely to serve, and Mr. Herrick was chosen in his place, as above.

Personal.

Mr. Elmer H. Johnson, of Montpelier, has been elected a member of the board, and as a leading representative of the farming interest of the State, was urged to remain in it, but he declined absolutely to serve, and Mr. Herrick was chosen in his place, as above.