See the "Cosy Comfort" Window
It's chock-full of brand new ideas for a warm bed on a chilly night.
There's a tempting display of

Maish Laminated Cotton Down Comforts

that are unquestionably the greatest values you ever saw in the Comfort line. They're actually twice as warm and twice as thick as any cotton comfort of equal weight. That's because they're filled with sanitary, pure-white, finely-curved cotton, woven into a single layer of the comfort's depth, instead of being filled with lifeless cotton as most ordinary comforts are.

MAISH COMFORTS last longer and wear best; will stand years of service, and harbor no odor or germs.

In Maishik, Maisaline, and Maisateen in many handsome patterns and shades in the standard sizes.

The intricacies of "The Master Mind" were followed by a small audience at the Barre opera house last night. However, the audience was well pleased with the presentation of the underworld drama in which the "king" of that region devoted every effort for 20 years to secure revenge on a man who as prosecuting attorney had sent "The Master Mind's" brother to execution, only to yield to the entreaties of a young woman, one of the tools in the revenge scheme, and relent in the final act. Willis Granger was "The Master Mind" and a good one, while Lettie Keith came up to the part of the young woman tool.
