

All Honor to the Heroes of 1864

Decoration Day cannot fail to bring to our minds the terrible hardships endured by the men and women of 50 years ago, while they were fighting for the right. The contrast between their mode of life and ours makes our modern conveniences seem almost luxurious. Especially noteworthy is the vast improvement which has been made in the last half-century in the manufacturing and selling of merchandise. Nowadays everyone, in every part of this great land, can purchase fashionable, up-to-the-minute apparel practically as soon as it is shown in the big cities. Particularly is this true in Barre, where Fitts is always on the alert to secure the new ideas in desirable merchandise right when they are newest.

Some 30 members of the Vermont Poultry association from Barre, Montpelier and surrounding towns held a regular meeting in the city court room last evening. In the absence of the president, E. M. Lyon occupied the chair. Practically the only business of importance came when nominations were called for a treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the death of ex-Alderman William Brown. Charles Olliver was elected to serve as treasurer during the remainder of the year.

Mrs. Carl Eisenwiler and two children of 132 Elm street left this morning for Natick, Mass., where they expect to pass several weeks with relatives. Mrs. Daniel Roach and children, who have been making an extended stay with friends in Barre and Montpelier, have gone to Syracuse, N. Y., where they are to join Mr. Roach. M. H. Eldred left this morning at 8:15 o'clock for Burlington, where he expects to remain until after Memorial day. Thomas Roark left this forenoon for Montreal, P. Q., to remain until after the holiday. Rev. Irving Towseley, who was in the city last evening to attend the Odd Fellows' anniversary, returned this morning to his home in Washington.

Inquiry here by the state officials develops the fact that Carl Dolly, the Bloomfield man who is being held for the alleged murder of Peter Poulin on the banks of the Connecticut river last week, is well known in lumbering circles hereabouts. Until last year Dolly was employed as a woodsman by the Plainfield Lumber Co. He was employed for some time by Hinman Bros. on their big logging job in the mountains of Orange and frequently came to this city to purchase supplies for the lumber camp. In the past year he has been working in the woods around Stratford, N. H., and in Essex county, this state. According to the allegation of the state, Dolly shot and killed one Peter Poulin, another woodsman, as the two, with a third man, the camp cook, were returning home from Bloomfield village. His arrest followed the discovery of the body the day after the shooting. Recently the respondent was admitted to $5,000 bail, which his friends furnished. A large number of his acquaintances have circulated a subscription paper with which they hope to obtain a defense fund, when the case comes to trial in the fall. Here in this locality Dolly had a good reputation among the lumbermen.

Not an Isolated Case
Many Similar Cases in Barre and Vicinity

This Barre woman's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year, our neighbors are telling similar good news.

Mrs. N. M. Nelson, 20 Mer-chant St., Barre, Vt., says: "A severe attack of la grippe left my kidneys weak and instead of getting better, I became worse. The slightest housework tired me, and if I was on my feet for an hour or so, sharp pains across my back made me stop and rest. I paid out over one hundred dollars for doctors' treatment and medicine, but got no relief and finally became discouraged. Doan's Kidney Pills were then brought to my attention and I used them. They removed the trouble and I have never been without a supply on hand since."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
