Vudor Porch Shades

Summer Pleasures without Summer Discomforts! Indoors it's sticky and moist. On the porch it's cool!—when the Vudors are down.

Why not eat, sleep, live there this summer? Thousands do it. The cool air gives appetite and forces you to dreamless sleep because it bathes the nerves while you sleep. It cures them.

Vudor Porch Shades cost little. They give air but keep out glare. You can look out through Vudors, but not in through them. They last—they keep "that new look," for they're stained, not painted, nor dipped.

A considerable stir has been created in Barre over the practice of running automobiles through the city cemeteries.

Almost everyone who has seen fit to join in the agitation has criticized the habit which some autoists have of grinding their cars around the cemeteries whenever occasion arises for going to the cemetery. Some people, and there are those who say they feel very keenly in the matter, point to the rule in other New England cities where the auto is inhibited from entering the public burial grounds. According to those who are in a position to know, Elmwood cemetery is the most frequently visited of Barre's two larger graveyards. The question of putting a stop to the practice by creating a special ordinance for that purpose has been discussed several times.

Goddard seminary and Brigham academy of Bakersfield will not meet at the campus this afternoon as the result of a telephonic communication received at the seminary this morning. The academy manager stated that his teammates desired to call the game off for to-day, although it is possible that arrangements will be made for staging a contest here next week. Brigham contemplated a trip through central Vermont with the announced purpose of strengthening its hold on the state championship, but the defeat which the seminary boys inflicted on Brigham in its home town is said to have thrown a wet blanket over the aspirations of the upstarters. Brigham has been walking away with secure their citizenship, appeared before the examiner. The other 50, augmented by many others, will make application when Clerk F. S. Platt of Rutland and U. S. Attorney A. A. Church of Boston come to town. Clerk Platt is devoting considerable time to short sessions of naturalization court in towns where the number of new citizens seldom exceeds 10 at each sitting.
