WINOOSKI.

George LaFlame of Burlington, who, a few Sundays ago, ran his automobile through the Woolen mills fence on Main street about 50 feet from the river bridge, was in court Saturday to answer to the charge of careless and negligent driving and was fined $25 and costs, which he paid, after his plea of guilty. He was brought up a day or two after it had happened, but pleaded not guilty at the time and the case was continued.

The advance in the woolen mills brings good wages to the employes and never before have they made so much money at their work. It is claimed that the smallest wage paid to cheaper help is not less than $13, while it is said that some of the weavers last week drew about $50 for their week's labor.

A special meeting of the board of village trustees was held Monday night, when Trustee George M. Smith of the east ward tendered his resignation. He has been promoted to be superintendent of the new mill recently built in Lowell, Mass. He was present at the meeting and thanked the members of the board for their kindness toward him, a junior member; and the other members, while they disliked to have him leave, appreciated the advancement and greater responsibility placed upon his shoulders in his new position. All wished him success. Mrs. L. F. Gauvreau was granted a restaurant license and the following bills were ordered paid: Burlington Light & Power company, $288.82; Stevens Machine company, $68.28; New England Telephone and Telegraph company, $5.50; Strong Hardware company, $6.38; Village Clerk John Piche, $41.46. The meeting adjourned at 8:50.

Farrah Gabriel, whose place was searched Sunday night, was in court Monday and pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor illegally and was given a sentence of not less than five nor more than eight months at the house of correction. Upon paying the costs of seizure, sentence was suspended pending his good behavior. Nelson Duvarney, who purchased a half pint of liquor from Farrah could not stand the sickness which visited him after his having taken a drink of the "stuff." Samuel Laplant, who was with Duvarney, also was sick from one drink. Both were so vexed to think that they had paid 40 cents for their booze, which they expected to be good for the money, that they entered the complaint on Farrah. The bottle which contained the liquor was a medicine bottle with a prescription label stuck upon it. The case against Mike John for breach of the peace was continued to October 20.

The local branch of the American Red Cross society during the month of September made up and has already shipped to headquarters in Boston, 879 pieces besides completing the 144 housewives and comfort bags for the members of Compank G. The men who have been drafted from this village into the new national army also have been equipped with comfort bags and housewives. The directors of the local work are Mrs. A. S. C. Hill and Mrs. H. I. Stanhope and they announce that they are much in need of workers. The rooms in the armory are opened every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and they would welcome any women who would care to assist in this good work for the boys who are in the service. They have sent the following pieces: 312 4½ inch gauze compresses; 240 nine-inch gauze compresses; 192 gauze sponges; 30 gauze rolls; 24 triangular bandages; 12 abdominal bandages; 34 handkerchiefs; 10 knit wash cloths; nine suits of pajamas; one pair of trench gloves; one scarf and two pairs of socks. There is plenty of material for any who wish to take up the work and knitting yarn may be had by calling at the work rooms or at Mrs. Hill's home.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Nash have gone to Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend the winter.
