

One Cent a Word

Advertising in this column one cent a word each insertion. Copy may be changed every week. Cash in advance required. No advertisement taken which is less than 12 words, two lines. Special terms to advertisers using from 250 to 1,000 lines within 12 consecutive months.

HELP WANTED. HOUSEKEEPER wanted, widow or middle-aged woman. Henry Sweet, 15, W. 11, Burlington, Vt.

FOR SALE. ON ACCOUNT OF ILL HEALTH I will sell farm, stock, tools, milk route and crops or farm or route separately; terms easy. Write or phone. Geo. H. Adams, South Barre, Vt.

NICE ENGLISH SHEPHERD PUPPIES, males & females, H. H. Robbins, Middlebury, Vt.

FOR RENT. A VERY PLEASANT THREE-ROOM FLAT with electric lights, toilet, garden and shed, to rent at 13 Converse square, just off North Ave.; only $7.00 per month. Inquire at 88 North Union St.

Burlington Veterinary Hospital 73 Pine St., Burlington, Vt. Veterinary Surgeon and Physician.

FOR Sale or Exchange. A modern and up-to-date hotel, on State road from Burlington to White Mountain, doing a steady good business, and tourist trade the year round, 30 rooms, all hardwood floors on first floor and some sleeping rooms, ice cream parlor, moving picture and dance hall connected. Good heavy business—horse and auto the year around. Spring water all over the house and barn, electric lights, cold storage. This is an official Blue Book Hotel and a first-class business point and only reason for selling is poor health. Immediate possession given as owner has got to live South. Enquire of A. E. DAY REAL ESTATE AGENCY, Cambridge, Vt.

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT (Continued from page one) the Congregational Church at Ferrisburg will serve a chicken-supper Wednesday evening, October 31.—Mrs. Ida L. Bell of Burlington is visiting Miss Laura Taggart and later will visit in Addison.—Casper L. Leach of Pawlet is visiting friends here.—Mrs. Frank T. Larrow and daughter, Mrs. Agnes Shortleaves, have gone to Chocomaque Falls, Mass., to spend the week with Mrs. Larrow's sister, Mrs. Loboa. A sociable will be held in the vestry of the Ferrisburg Congregational Church Friday evening.

Walter Yattaw shot a large hen-hawk that measured 51 1/2 feet from tip to tip.—Miss Julia Carter, who has been spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Joseph Carter, has gone to Barre to teach in the high school.—Alderman Levi H. Brown has returned from a business trip to Malone, N. Y.—Miss May Milo has gone to Springfield, Mass., for a few weeks.—Mrs. Alice Preston has returned from a three-weeks' visit to relatives and friends in Boston and North and is returning to Burlington and towns in New Jersey.—Miss Rose Donaway of Richmond is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Donaway.—Miss Lena Oneal, who has been spending her vacation in North Adams, Mass., has returned and resumed her duties at the Bixby Memorial Free Library.—George H. Lebeau, who has been employed in the Noyes garage, Putland, has returned here to assume the management of the restaurant of his brother, Fred W. Lebeau, who has been drafted into the U. S. service.—Paul E. Yattaw has been taking a week's vacation and Hollis Benoit has been taking his place as driver for the American Express company.—Mrs. E. S. Shannahan, who with her wife, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Jarvis, has returned to Newark, N. J. Mrs. Shannahan will remain some time longer.—R. L. Kent of Rochester, N. Y., is in town with his family.—John J. Tier, rural delivery carrier on route No. 1, is ill with pleurisy, and George H. Bestwick, Jr., is substituting for him.—The condition of Harry Hayes, who has been ill, is improving.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Davis have returned from an automobile trip to Brattleboro, where Mr. Davis purchased some thoroughbred Holstein cattle for breeding purposes.—Mrs. Harold Moore has gone to Port Edward, N. Y., where she will make her home with relatives.

The celebration of the fifth anniversary of the founding of the Bixby Memorial Free Library held last evening in the library building under the auspices of the trustees was largely attended. The guests were informally greeted by the trustees and a staff of ladies. The program consisted of an address by Judge Frank L. Fish on "The Aims and Results of the Five Years Work of the Library"; reading by Mrs. A. Haven. Vittum's orchestra of Middlebury furnished music during the evening and special solo numbers were rendered by the members of the orchestra.—The exercises were closed with the singing of patriotic songs by those present, led by the members of Company D, 1st Vermont volunteer militia, who attended the celebration in a body under command of Captain G. W. Stone. Light refreshments were served by a number of young ladies, the Misses Edith Middlebrook and Doris Sturtevant presiding at the punch bowl. The trustees of the library are C. H. Strong, Capt. C. A. Parker, Judge Frank L. Fish, A. Harrington and W. A. Warner of Vergennes and Dr. E. W. Shipman of Richmond Hill, N. Y., a former resident. Miss Edith J. Chamberlain is librarian and her assistants are the Misses Adella Ingham and Miss Lena Oneal. For the past five years under the wise management of the trustees, the success of the library has been very gratifying and its influence is felt throughout this community. The library started with about 6,000 books which has now increased to about 10,000. Besides the people of Vergennes the library is patronized by citizens in the towns of Addison, Ferrisburg, Starksboro, New Haven, Pantown, Waltham and Weybridge.—Jeremy Albert Coulter, son of Mrs. Harriet Coulter of Basin Harbor, who enlisted in the U. S. navy last April, is now at the Charleston navy yard. Mrs. John Garbo has returned from a visit to her daughters, the Misses Mary and Martha Garbo of Burlington.—Charles Walters of Worcester, Mass., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Walters.—Miss Bess Nittall of West Addison is spending a few days with Mrs. George H. Bestwick.—Robinson Free Library of Ferrisburg has received a gift of 46 books from Mrs. Rachel H. Robinson of New York city. This library is now supplying four schools with books.—Miss Emma Fuller, county home demonstrator, would like to meet the ladies of Ferrisburg at the town hall Friday afternoon at 2:30. Miss Fuller will be at North Ferrisburg in the evening.—Mrs. H. B. Field of St. Albans is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Satterly of Ferrisburg.—The Missionary society of the Ferrisburg Congregational Church has appropriated $50 with which to purchase shingles to cover the sheds belonging to the church, and the private owners, whose sheds need shingling are joining in the repair scheme. A working dinner will soon be held and the ladies will serve a dinner.—The opening number of the citizens' entertainment course will take the place of the moving pictures at the opera house Friday evening.—County Agent Bartlett will be in the town hall in Ferrisburg Friday afternoon at 2:30, and give an address on "Fertilizers." Miss Emma Fuller, county agent demonstrator, will be present and give a talk on "Home Economics."

BRISTOL. Miss Florence Smalley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smalley, who was operated upon at her home here for gall stones Friday, died Monday morning at nine o'clock. The funeral will be held at the Methodist Episcopal Church Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. G. A. Parker, the pastor, will officiate. Miss Smalley was about 29 years of age and held the esteem of a large circle of friends. She was a member of the Methodist Church, taking an active part in church work. She had been a member of the choir and was teacher of the primary class at the time of her death. She is survived by her parents and two younger sisters, Mildred and Gertrude.—Mrs. Chester Bingham was taken to Burlington Tuesday to have her eyes treated.—Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Pullman go to New Haven this week to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. E. H. Ring.—Don J. Wilson has gone to Springfield, Vt., where he has a position in the Staples drug store.—Miss Alice King of Castleton State normal school was at home over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Gove visited relatives in Cornwall Sunday.—D. W. Durfee left Wednesday for Ayer, Mass., and Putnam, Conn., to be gone one week. A few lady friends of Mrs. J. C. Norton of Ferrisburg are in town Friday day at her home.—Miss Frances Palmer has been engaged by J. W. Trudo as cashier and bookkeeper, to succeed Miss Lois Jenney.—Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Wilson went to New York Thursday morning to visit their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Dietz. The pupils of the eighth grade gave Vera Bristol a farewell party at the home of Stella Kingsley Tuesday evening Oct. 8. Miss Bristol left Thursday for her home in Denmark.

MISS CAROLINA Robinson of Montpelier spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hasseltine.—Mrs. Brainerd Lane of Middlebury is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Toscoe.—Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Buzzelle of Burlington were in town Monday.—Miss Frances Palmer has entered J. W. Trudo's grocery store as cashier and bookkeeper.—James Cardell and Miss Marion Mullings of Middlebury College were at home over Sunday. A large number of young people met Saturday afternoon with Miss Gertrude Parmelee. The band has been re-organized into Junior Treasure Seekers with Miss Parmelee as leader. After the business meeting a social time was spent and light refreshments served.—Mrs. A. C. Sumner is visiting A. W. Stevens and family in Cornwall.—Mr. and Mrs. James Dillon and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whittemore and child of Burlington spent Sunday with relatives in town.—R. D. Rider and sister, Miss Lucy Rider, of New Haven, are in town Friday to assist in celebrating the 70th birthday anniversary of their father, W. H. Rider.

LINCOLN. The chairman of the four committees of the local Red Cross branch have been chosen as follows: Finance committee, Mrs. Annette Sargent; membership committee, Mrs. Mary Davis; child relief committee, G. A. Thayer. The ladies meet for sewing every Tuesday afternoon at the library.—A report of the great patriotic rally and Vermont war conference was given Thursday evening in the town hall by Colonel Sumner of Burlington.—Mr. Ralph Denio of Bristol. A committee of five, T. K. Burnham, Charles Purinton, Luther Rhodes, Arthur Briggs and William York, were chosen to assist in the successful placing of the second Liberty Loan. A large delegation from Bristol was present at the meeting.—Edward Blanchard of Massachusetts is visiting his sister, Mrs. Walter Atkins.—Mrs. Edward Hannon of Starksboro visited at C. F. Murray's Sunday.—Charles Wright of "Lake, N. H., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. L. H. Page.—Harold Dragon and sister, Ethel, of Worcester, Mass., are visiting their brother, George Dragon.—Walter Butterfield and wife of New Haven spent the week-end in town.—District Deputy A. T. Clark of Addison visited Prospect Grange Saturday evening.—B. J. Gove left Sunday evening for Springfield, where he has employment.—Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Haslow spent Sunday with friends in New Haven.—Clarence Atwood of Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atwood.—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tucker, Jessica Stowe and Mrs. Orinda Hamilton visited in Salisburg Sunday.—Private Walter Walker of Fort Ethan Allen was an over Sunday visitor at the home of Otto Butterfield.—A. G. Murray of Warren has been visiting his brother, C. E. Murray.—Mrs. Walter King and granddaughter and Mrs. Fred Luce of Pittsfield called on friends in town the evening of the week.—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Coburn of Randolph are visiting Mrs. Coburn's mother, Mrs. A. E. Cushman, and other friends in town.—Miss Marion Morgan of Bristol spent the week-end with Mrs. Mary Morgan and other friends in town.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grant and father moved to Fair Haven Saturday to meet Mrs. Grant, who has been visiting in Stockbridge.—Word was received Tuesday morning of the death of Miss Florence Smalley of Bristol. Mr. and Mrs. Smalley are former residents of this town and the death of their daughter is a shock to their many friends.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Adams of Humboldt, Iowa, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Day the past few days.

FERRISBURG. Ferrisburg branch of the Red Cross has completed its first annual report. The branch was formed in April, 1917. The surgical dressing classes under Mrs. Boutwell's instruction, completed 254

noon, the Rev. Henry Newell of Middlebury officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Evergreen cemetery in the town of Ferrisburg. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock on Monday. Mr. Lane was born in Cornwall and Mary A. Peck Lane. He was in business in Chicago several years, but returned to town in 1887 and shortly after entered the employ of the Deering Harvester company. In 1891 he represented the town in the General Assembly. Since 1903 with the exception of three years in St. John, N. B., he has been general manager of the International Harvester company of Canada, located in Ottawa. He was genial, affable in nature and a host of friends who will deeply mourn their loss. Of his immediate family he leaves a wife and two sons, Donald and Elliott, and one brother, C. H. Lane of this town; one nephew and three nieces.

MONKTON RIDGE. The Friends' quarterly meeting, Saturday and Sunday, was well attended. The addresses by William J. Reagan, principal of Oakwood Seminary were greatly enjoyed. Those present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. H. Ferrisburg; Joseph Guindon, Lincoln; Mrs. Clara Young, Bristol; George Hazard and daughter, Evelyn, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vanvleet and little son of Charlotte; Dr. Birdsall, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, Mr. and Mrs. George Varney and Mrs. Cullen Shattuck of Starksboro.—Mrs. Eugene Cox returned Thursday from a two weeks' visit in Rutland.—Mrs. Eliza Brown and Mrs. Rebecca Tracy are visiting in Burlington.—J. A. Roosan returned Monday to his home in Union Springs, N. Y.—Mrs. John Roscoe and three children left last week for Manchester, Iowa, for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Helliger.

SALISBURY. The first entertainment of the series for the benefit of the Red Cross society was given by the White Entertainment Bureau of Boston, on Wednesday evening.—The cottage meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chase Tuesday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Holland and son, who have been spending a few days with Mrs. F. L. Hamilton, have returned to their home in Brooklyn, Mass.—An annual meeting of the Polly Anna club was held with Miss Ruth Hamilton Saturday. An interesting program was given and light refreshments served.—Mrs. Walter Whitney entertained the young people Saturday evening and considerable Red Cross work was done. The farmers' meeting will be held at the town hall Thursday evening. The county agent and the home demonstration agent will be present.—The Red Cross meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Atwood Thursday afternoon.—Miss Mildred Whitney, who is teaching in Benson, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Whitney.—Mrs. Julia Prout Waterhouse, who has been very ill, is somewhat improved.—Mr. and Mrs. Erin Nelson and F. R. Nelson and family attended the W. H. Reynolds wedding in Shorham Friday.

SHOREHAM. At the annual meeting of this chapter of the Red Cross a social committee was named, who have chosen the following ladies to take charge of each month's entertainment: January, Mrs. M. M. Sullivan; February, Mrs. F. E. Platt; March, Mrs. F. R. Guyette; April, Clover Club; May, Mrs. H. H. Preble; June, Mrs. John E. Wright; July, Mrs. Katherine Bourk; August, Miss Mable Delano; September, Mrs. S. Z. Walker.—Dr. and Mrs. Howard were in Barre last week to attend the State medical meeting.—Mrs. Walter Smith, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Anderson, returned to her home in Washington, D. C., last week.—The dates for the church fair under auspices of the Ladies' Benevolent society are December 4 and 5.—The drawing of seats for the entertainment course will be done Saturday in the Red Cross room.—The Missionary society met with Mrs. J. E. Moore Tuesday afternoon, 15 ladies being present.

ORWELL. C. D. Wright went home last Wednesday by the way of New York city, where he will hold a series of lectures for the probate, C. D. Wells accompanied him as far as New York city.—Ashley Monger and family of Peacham have been at the funeral of Frank C. Keene, who died last week.—A guest of Mrs. S. C. Bull.—Mrs. C. E. Walker of Castleton came up last week and packed their things to move to Castleton.—Miss E. A. Fuller will be at the Red Cross rooms on the 18th at 3:30 p. m.—N. D. Branch of Starksboro is in town this week to help out while his grandson, Wilson H. Clark, was at the Stock show at Springfield, Mass.—Miss Alice Jennings is assisting in the bank.—Miss Ellen Allen returned to Keene, N. H., last week.—Mrs. P. T. Wilcox of Mechanicsville, N. Y., has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kimberly.—Dr. L. B. Rowe has accepted a commission as first lieutenant in the medical section of the officers' corps.—The missionary society meeting last Wednesday at Mrs. T. E. Lillies' was well attended, 25 present. The next meeting of the fortnightly club will be held with Mrs. A. A. Monger on Tuesday the 16th. The next church will hold more copies than the usual 1-2 full.—Potatoes are not a big crop and apples are not plenty.—L. D. Ware, when the factory closes will go to Watfield for the winter to run a factory.—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Blair were in Poultney the first of the week.

WALTHAM. The N. S. club met with Mrs. G. A. Hunt Thursday afternoon. There were 13 members present and four visitors, Miss Eva Merrill and Mrs. George Everts, who came from out of town.—Mrs. R. H. Booth of Vergennes and Miss Alice Smith of Bridport. The literary program was on the armies in all countries. The ladies sewed for the Red Cross. Light refreshments were served.—C. W. Ward went duck hunting at Lake Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. Seth Cull of Bridport visited at Howard Hallock's Sunday.—Mrs. G. A. Hunt and Miss Maud Hunt were in Burlington Saturday.

HANCOCK. Mrs. Percival Clook and daughter from Crystal, N. H., are visiting her mother, Mrs. Dana Marsh.—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Comes one day last week.—Miss Ethel Curtis and her brother, Floyd, visited their sister, Mrs. Henry Wint, at Rochester last week.—John Butler has moved his goods to Bethel Lympus, where his brother has bought him a small place.—Clara Taylor visited in Rochester Hollow last week.—Mrs. L. J. Spencer had her eyes operated on at Rochester last week. The operation went as well as could be expected.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Church and little daughter from Bennington, N. H., have been visiting J. H. Church and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blair and calling on other friends in town.—Leonard Marsh was at home from Windsor for a few days last week.

SOUTH STARKSBORO. The Ladies' Home Circle will meet Thursday morning with Mrs. Andrew J. Hallock. Dinner will be served.—George Varney and family, Mrs. Cullen Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. Young and Dr. Clarence Bristol attended the friends' quarterly meeting at Monkton Ridge Sunday.—Fred Wright has moved his family to the Rose Phillips tenement.—David Polansbee stepped on a nail Sunday and is now confined with a very sore foot.

CORNWALL. The funeral of Arthur T. Lane, who died at his home in Ottawa, Can., Saturday evening, October 13, after a brief illness, was held at the home of his brother, C. H. Lane at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. Henry Newell of Middlebury officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Evergreen cemetery in the town of Ferrisburg. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock on Monday. Mr. Lane was born in Cornwall and Mary A. Peck Lane. He was in business in Chicago several years, but returned to town in 1887 and shortly after entered the employ of the Deering Harvester company. In 1891 he represented the town in the General Assembly. Since 1903 with the exception of three years in St. John, N. B., he has been general manager of the International Harvester company of Canada, located in Ottawa. He was genial, affable in nature and a host of friends who will deeply mourn their loss. Of his immediate family he leaves a wife and two sons, Donald and Elliott, and one brother, C. H. Lane of this town; one nephew and three nieces.

ESSEX JUNCTION. Frederick Stanley of Worcester, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Stanley of this place, has enlisted in the motor truck corps and is at Ayer, Mass. A son was born Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Alice Groves Street. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Parsons of Chicago are visiting their parents, Mrs. Belle Parsons of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Martini. They will return to Chicago next week.

ESSEX CENTER. The corn chowder supper and sociable given by the third and fourth years, Friday evening brought in receipts of $10.40.—Miss Myra Hanley from Enosburg Falls was at home over Sunday.—Fannie and Leslie Abair were at home over Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. James Hanley were in Underhill last week.—Mr. and Mrs. William Preston and children, Ted and Fred, and Mrs. Pearl Sears were guests of Mrs. J. B. Dart last Thursday.—Mrs. Harlow Thompson of North Royalton was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Packett Sunday.—Master Mark Flynn has been ill.—Miss Clara E. Abhey spent the week-end in St. Albans.—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wool gave them a surprise party, Monday evening, as it was their tenth wedding anniversary. Refreshments were served.—Miss Margaret Brown, who has been ill, has improved.—Mrs. Eddy and daughter Evelyn, Mrs. Butler and Mr. Smith of Montreal, have been visiting at Mrs. Ida Metcalf's.—Earl Shores is very ill.—Buxton Greene has gone to Palmer, Mass., where he has a position.

CHARLOTTE. In spite of the rain about 100 sat down at the banquet given by the Ladies' Aid in honor of Marsh Byington, who leaves soon to join the aviation corps. The tables and room were prettily decorated. The Rev. F. N. Hemenway acted as toastmaster and the following responded to these toasts: The Rev. F. Hagenborn of North Ferrisburg, "Mixed Pickles"; Mrs. J. P. Ramsey, president of the Red Cross, "On the Vicitudes of Sewing Shirts for Soldiers"; Major William Noah Frink and Miss Anna Byington were elected delegates by the Sunday school to attend the State convention at Middlebury, with power to elect their own substitutes.—Lesley Waite of Woodstock and the Misses Marion and Betty Hamilton of White River Junction were guests for the week-end of Miss Dorothy Hamilton at Mrs. J. P. Ramsey's.—Mrs. Nelson Myers was thrown from a wagon last week and suffered a sprained wrist.—There will be a school fair at the Congregational vestry Friday afternoon. The products of the children's gardens on manual training work will be on exhibition. Exhibits must be in place by 2:00 p. m.

EAST CHARLOTTE. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bacon are receiving favorable reports from the Fanny Allen hospital concerning the condition of their daughter, Miss Florence, who was taken there a week ago for surgical treatment.—Cardell Carl, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carl, is ill with pneumonia.—The Ladies' Mission Circle of the Baptist Church met at the residence of Mrs. Carnella Claxton Wednesday afternoon.—William E. Harris left home Saturday for Shushan, N. Y., where he was called by the serious condition of his wife, who is still with her sister, Mrs. King, in Shushan.—Mr. and Mrs. Alan Carpenter of Morley, Southern Colorado, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carpenter have gone to Ferrisburg Center to visit the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carpenter, who reside there.—Mr. and Mrs. A. R. White of Burlington visited friends in Charlotte October 10.—Miss Zana Sterling attended a meeting of the grange in Ferrisburg Friday evening.—Dr. Arthur E. Eno has accepted a position for one year as assistant professor of English in the University of Vermont.—Miss Grace Farrand of Burlington passed the week-end in Charlotte, the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Carpenter.

WILLISTON. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sinclair from Essex Junction were guests of Mrs. George Goodrich recently.—The King's Daughters Circle met with Mrs. C. Forbes Friday.—Mr. and Mrs. George Allen from Burlington are guests of Mrs. Allen's brother, John Casey.—Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon and daughter from Hinesburg attended the morning service here last Sunday.—Mrs. Arthur Senna and two children from New Brunswick are guests of Peter Senna, Arthur Senna and Mrs. John Forbes and the Rev. H. G. Banks were on the mountains Friday and Saturday.—Mrs. Carrie Morrill is in Burlington for a few days.—Miss Nellie Isham spent a few days with her parents in Ferrisburg. She will next week going to her work in Burlington Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Senna, who have been in Worcester, Mass., visiting friends for a week or two, have returned to their home here.—The Women's Home and Foreign Mission society met with Mrs. A. L. Bingham Wednesday afternoon.—The Sunday school will give a harvest supper in the Methodist Church vestry Friday night.—The pastor will exchange pulpits next Sunday morning with Mrs. Hinesburg pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

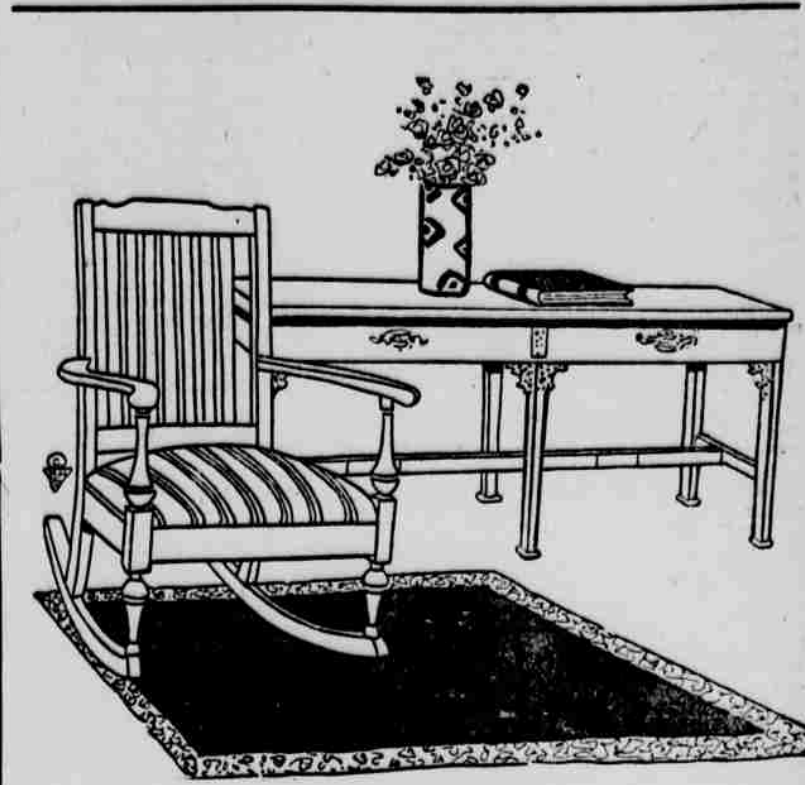

HINESBURG. Mrs. Thomas Baxter and children, who have been visiting Mrs. Baxter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goodridge, returned to her home in New Jersey last Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Thibet left Sunday night for Hartford, Conn., where they will spend the winter.—There will be an inspection of the Women's Relief Corps Wednesday morning, October 17.—The Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Edie and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell attended Monday morning meeting at New York State. They will return Friday.—Mrs. John Lessor has returned home.

HUNTINGTON. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laflore are the parents of a daughter.—There was no school Friday.—The Misses Cassidy and Rogers, going to their respective homes.—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Norton and son, Lyle, and daughter, Bertrice, of Enosburg Falls, were recent guests at Mr. Norton's father's, G. M. Norton.—Mrs. Josiah Fuller returned to Hartford, Conn. Friday.—Miss Daisy Kenyon is at home from Bethel for a few days.—Glenn Johnson came from Northfield Friday night for the week-end.

COLCHESTER. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Harvey and daughter, Dorothy, of Montpelier, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Adin Hine.—Miss Doris Wright spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wright.—Miss Edith Bisgowl is visiting in Fairfield this week.—J. B. Thompson is at the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment.—C. W. Wright was in town last week.—The Rev. C. L. Ramsey will open his evangelistic campaign at the Baptist Church this evening at eight o'clock. On Friday evening he will speak at the Orange meeting at

(Continued on page three).

THE W.G. REYNOLDS CO

Exceptional Values are offered throughout these big FURNITURE stocks in this October Sale of Furniture. Best of all you don't need all the money to pay for your purchases. Satisfactory, easy credit terms can be arranged to suit your convenience. Why not investigate?

For One Week Only WE OFFER 50 ROLLS PRO-LINO Only 39c Square Yard in handsome tile, matting and parquette effects, values 50c.

- 12-quart gray enamel preserving kettles, worth 95c, special 59 cents. 6 quart gray enamel pans, worth 49c, special 25c. 4 quart gray enamel sauce pans, worth 49c, special 25c. 7 quart white enamel mixing bowls, worth $1.00, special 69c. 5 quart gray enamel preserving kettles, worth 75c, special 49c. White enamel fruit jar fillers, worth 20c, special 15c. Aluminum bread pans, worth 50c, special 37c. Aluminum colanders, worth $1.25, special 95c. Aluminum sauce pans, 1 1-2 qt. size, worth 35c, special 25c. Aluminum lades, worth 22c, special 15c. Aluminum pie plates, worth 25c, special 18c. White cotton dry mops, 2 sizes, special 29c and 45c. Cereal and tea and coffee cans, decorated with wind mill and boat scenes, worth 38c, special 25c. Spice jars to match, worth 20c, special 15c. Jelly tumblers or moulds with tin top, 38c and 50c dozen. Amber-Lyte floor oil, 1 pt. cans 35c; 1 qt. cans 65c; 1-2 gallon cans $1.25; 1 gallon cans $2.25. 51 piece dinner set, a service for 6 people, white and gold decoration, worth $10, special $7.95 set. 100 piece dinner set, a service for 12 people, handsome floral decoration, gold lines on each piece, worth $18, special $12.50 set.

100 Piece Haviland China Dinner Set Two decorations to select from. Gold trimmed, value $35.00, special $27.50 set

Daily Special Thursday MISSION ALARM CLOCKS Value $1.75. To-day Only $1.29 Each