LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—Advertisers are crowding us just now, and because this page is so "pre-occupied" in that direction considerable local matter usually found here will be found on other pages of this issue.

—In the February and March numbers of the Vermont Missionary there was printed a paper on "The Fulness of the Blessing of the Holy Spirit," read by Dr. Barnes before the Caledonia Association of Congregational ministers, and published by request. This was issued from the CALEDONIAN office as a booklet, and has lately been reissued in a second and revised edition, copies of which can be obtained at Mrs. Rowell's bookstore.

—However many cupsful you are "used to using," Priscilla Flour will make one-fifth more bread. At grocers.

—Rickaby & Co. have sold for E. R. Mackey his farm in Danville to John R. Rice of the same town. Possession given at once.

—Willard Chase as administrator has transferred the title of the "Stone" house on Spring street to Harrison Rollins, the transaction being negotiated through the real estate agency of Cady & Braley.

—Frank E. Harris, clothier, comes out with a big "ad" this week, the burden of which is a cut in prices in every department in his line. Read it. You can easily find it.

—As C. E. Simanton has sold out his store to another party, those who had watches and jewelry being repaired at his store can obtain their property by calling at Mr. Simanton's house, 26 Pearlstreet.

—The following flowers have been brought to the Museum since July 5: Butter and eggs, caraway, spreading dogbane, fireweed, bush honeysuckle, red lily, wild yellow lily, swamp milkweed, moneywort, monkey flower, evening primrose, common St. Johnswort, shin-leaf, black eyed Susan, lopsed. The following from Mt. Mansfield: Mountain cranberry, three-toothed cinquefoil, diaspensia lapponica, northern wild liquorice, mountain sandwort, stiff club-moss, fir club-moss.

—The macadamizing of Summer street will be completed this week, and that thoroughfare has been very much improved. No more new work of this sort will be done this season, as the cash limit has been reached, but next year no doubt, some other street will come in for its share of attention. The macadamizing plant is annually demonstrating its usefulness and the wisdom of the voters in authorizing its purchase.

—John F. Page has materially added to the attractiveness and utility of his residence on Spring street by the construction of a spacious veranda.

—The weather for the past week or ten days has been, consecutively, the hottest known for some years.

—The Fifty Club were entertained in a pleasing manner at the home of their president, Mrs. C. P. Davie, on Saturday afternoon and evening, the occasion of Mrs. Davie's birthday. After enjoying the usual literary program the company went to the Allison & Davie cafe, and did full justice to the collation which there awaited them. All wished Mrs. Davie many happy returns of the day and left a gift as a reminder of their regard.

—The trustees of the Soldiers' Home are to meet at Bennington on the 27th inst. Major N. P. Bowman of this place is a member of the board and plans to attend. Gov. Bell and wife are also expected to meet with the trustees on this occasion.

—The ice man is "the real thing," and deservedly popular, these days.

—S. D. Tilton and his force of men have arrived in town for the summer and will start on concrete walks next week. The trustees are planning for laying quite a portion of concrete on Summer street to replace the brick walk which is in a bad condition.

—The party who returned from Mitchell's camp yesterday had good fishing and were rewarded by getting very close to nature. H. A. Stanley had the rare pleasure of seeing a moose in the woods and several others in the party saw some beavers and the wonderful beaver dams.

—E. L. Hunt & Co. have a special clearance sale July 13-22, and they tell about it, in big type, elsewhere in this issue.

—For Dennison's napkins, crepe paper, lunch sets and doilies, and for crepe paper, plain and decorated, call at F. O. Clark's.

A Very Sudden Death.

Allison Daniels of Waterford, who had been in attendance as a juror at this term of court, was stricken with death on Eastern avenue shortly after one o'clock yesterday, while on his way to the court house in company with George E. Drew and George Green, fellow-jurors. He had taken dinner with them at the restaurant and appeared to be as well as he had been for some days, except that it seemed hard work for him to walk, and he complained a little of the heat. When a few steps below Hartsborn's furniture store he was stricken, and would have fallen except for the prompt action of his companions, who caught him in their arms. He was carried into Hartsborn's and laid upon a couch, but had breathed his last before he could be put there. Dr. Aldrich had been hastily summoned and arrived in a few minutes, but was of course unable to do anything, as the man was past help. Mrs. Daniels was telephoned to and reached the village within a very short time, and was naturally much prostrated by the shock of her husband's sudden death. Mr. Daniels had been suffering with a heart trouble for some time. Undertaker Stanley was called to take charge of the body.

Mr. Daniels was 54 years old, and leaves a wife and three children, two sons and one daughter. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

D. A. R. Lawn Party.

Invitations are being issued by the St. John de Crevecoeur chapter, D. A. R., for an evening in Arnold Park, Friday, July 14. Various attractions are planned for in the way of music, such as singing of patriotic songs and selections from "The Bohemian Girl" given by a Gypsy chorus, etc.

Ice cream and cake will be served for a compensation as the entertainment is planned for the purpose of raising a fund which may be used later to commemorate in some fitting manner the patriotism of the Revolutionary soldiers who lie buried in our own and adjoining cemeteries.

THEY MAKE SMILING FACES.

Everyone called him "Sour Bill,"
He had every ailment, and many beside,
That he had invented and often tried,
Until, one day, he chanced to spy
This little "ad" which caught his eye:
"Use the American Little Liver Pill."
That night he did and awoke "Smiling Bill."

MORAL:

People smile only when they have perfect health.
Perfect health comes from perfect digestion.
No one can have perfect digestion if troubled with
CONSTIPATION.

Cure constipation and enjoy perfect health by taking
