BROOKFIELD

Exciting Three-Mile Ride of Mrs. E. A. Glysson Behind Runaway Horse.

When Mrs. C. C. Lewis and Mrs. E. A. Glysson were returning home from East Braintree Friday afternoon, they had an exciting experience. Mrs. Lewis stopped at the home of Forrest Seymour, known as the C. B. Fisk farm, to give her horse a drink of water. She stood by its head when, suddenly, it seemed frightened and started to run, going off the dooryard bank, throwing Mrs. Glysson off from the carriage seat and partly demolishing one of the carriage wheels. The horse went on running toward home, took a clean pass by Dr. E. E. Ellis in his auto, who tried to stop the horse, going up the road by Frank Kidder's house and on at a high running speed down the hill by W. B. Col't's, turning the corner of the road by the Wilber and Callagan farms, down to and around the corner onto the Brookfield Center road, down the street on the run, till it arrived home, running into the barn, where the carriage top was demolished. Going this distance of nearly three miles, Mrs. Glysson sat in the bottom of the carriage, holding onto the dash board, with the lines dragging on the ground, expecting every moment might be her last to live. She was completely exhausted after the dreadful experience. Mrs. Lewis was taken home by Dr. Ellis in his auto, but almost crazed with anxiety about Mrs. Glysson. Everybody was thankful that there was not anyone hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan White and daughter, Edith, went Saturday to Moores Forks, N. Y., to visit relatives. They are expecting to be gone from home two weeks.

The funeral of Clay C. Foss was held from his late home Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended by friends and neighbors. His father, Mr. Foss, and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, all from North Hyde Park, were present at the funeral. He leaves his wife and a son, Gerald Foss, by his first wife, who is living with his aunt in Brandon, a sister of Mr. Foss, who was not able to be present at the funeral. Mr. Foss was a very kind and obliging neighbor and will be greatly missed by a large cirle of friends. The flowers were beautiful. The neighbors contributed a beautiful magnolia wreath, with Easter lilies and roses. Rev. James Clark officiated. The bearers were R. S. Wilcox, C. E. Milner, E. L. Mills and J. R. Norman. Burial was in the Brookfield Center cemetery.

The social features of the gathering closing the celebration of the union of the churches, held Tuesday evening, May 11, were very enjoyable, about 250 people being present. Not so much can be said of the concert given by the Norwich boys. It was entirely unworthy of the occasion, undignified and foolish. It is to be feared that Norwich university made very few friends in this locality through her representatives sent here that evening.

The county convention of Congregational churches will be held in Brookfield Wednesday and Thursday, May 26 and 27. The program is a very attractive one and has been especially arranged to suit the needs of country life. It will include addresses by the state superintendent of boys' and girls' clubs for the public schools, by the county agricultural agent, by Rev. Frank Laubach of the Philippines and by Dr. C. C. Merrill of Burlington. It will be worth our while. Remember the date, May 26 and 27.

DO NOT LOOK OLD BEFORE YOUR TIME

Old age comes quickly to those whose blood is weak and thin. When anemia, as this thin-blooded condition is called, sets in, the skin loses its color, there is loss of weight and strength, and the pains of inevitable headaches and indigestion leave their mark on the face.

If you want to get back the sparkle to your eyes, color to your cheeks and the spring of vigorous health to your step, begin treatment at once with the tonic which is so highly recommended by Mrs. Mary Barlow of No. 78 Watson street, Central Falls, R. I. She says:

"I was tired and all run down. My blood was thin and poor and I was colorless. I could hardly walk around as my limbs seemed to give out. I had severe headaches and at times experienced dizzy spells. My appetite was gone. The sight of food was distasteful to me.

"My mother had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit and recommended them to me. I felt better after taking the first box. My appetite picked up and I grew stronger. I continued the treatment and took ten boxes before I was real well. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to others, as I know their worth in anemic conditions."

Write to-day to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood." Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box.—Adv.

Rosindale Woman Recommends This Prescription

Mrs. Albert J. Patch, of Rosindale, Mass., writes: "Before taking your medicine (Dr. True's Elixir) I was troubled with what I thought stomach trouble. I had that terrible gnawing in my stomach nearly all the time. Within half an hour after eating a hearty meal, I would have that same disagreeable feeling. I was losing in weight every day. After taking your medicine (Dr. True's Elixir) I was relieved of that terrible gnawing in my stomach, expelled worms, and I felt like a new person in many ways, and would heartily recommend it to anyone suffering as I did."

Headaches, tired feeling, weakness, spots before the eyes, bad breath, sleeplessness, irritability, dizziness, constipation can be relieved, if you take the prescription known as Dr. True's Elixir, The Family Laxative and Worm Expeller.
