TRIPS TO MORGUE CURE SPEED MANIA

Novel Method of Remedying a Bad Situation Proves Effective in Middle West.

Chicago, Dec. 6 (By the Associated Press).—Heavier fines, jail sentences and trips through morgues and hospitals to view dead and injured victims of reckless automobilists are being effective cures in many cities of the middle west.

A successful campaign was launched at Detroit more than a year ago, when Judge Charles L. Bartlett began sending speeders to jail for terms of one to fifteen days.

Cleveland is employing work house sentences and morgue and hospital visits as well as fines.

"DRY" FIGHT AT A CRISIS

Declared U. S. Commissioner Haynes, Asking For $9,000,000

MIGHT LESSEN CALL FOR MONEY LATER

There Are 3400 Men Employed in Prohibition Enforcement

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—The crisis in the federal prohibition enforcement fight has been reached, in the opinion of Commissioner Haynes, it was disclosed today in reports of recent hearings before a House appropriations sub-committee.

In asking $9,000,000 for the next fiscal year for his department, Mr. Haynes told the committee that if a similar amount was allowed for prohibition enforcement continuously for five or six years, a reduction then ought to be possible, but that the critical period for enforcement was now at hand.

FOUND "MUCH NEED AND SOME SUFFERING"

Special Committee Reports on Conditions Uncovered in Burlington.

Burlington, Dec. 6.—The committee appointed to investigate the condition of the poor in Burlington, following differences between the Salvation Army and Mayor Jackson, has reported that in sixty reports of destitution and need they visited 33 families in various parts of the city and "found much need and some suffering, largely caused by the use of liquor, unwillingness to work and inability to make the most of what they had."
