

POETRY.

A SONG OF MAY.

By WILLIS GAYLORD CLARKE.

The spring's scented hues all around me are smiling;
There are songs in the stream—there is health in the gale;

The young bird is out on his delicate pinion,
He timidly sails in the infinite sky;
A greeting to May, and her fair dominion;

From the wide spreading earth, from the limitless heav'n,
There have vanished an eloquent glow and gleam;
To my veil'd mind no more is the influence given;

It is shut to the glow of this present existence—
It hears, from the past, a funeral strain;
And it eagerly turns to the high seeming distance,

We copy the following thrilling stanzas from the poems of Wm. B. Tappan, Esq. To most of our readers they will doubtless be new, and to all acceptable, as articles from that source always are.—Mass. Abolitionist.

American Slavery.

Lift ye my country's banners high,
And fling abroad its gorgeous sheen;
Unroll its stripes upon the sky,

These glorious stars and stripes that led
Our lion-hearted fathers on,
Veiled only to the honored dead—

Go—let us ask of Poland's
To loose his grasp on Poland's throat—
And beg the lord of Mahomed's line

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Herald of Freedom.
Mount Auburn.

After the labors of the three days N. E. Convention, of active and enthusiastic sitting from 10
A. M. Tuesday, to 10 (or more) P. M. Thursday,

Discharging our omnibus debt at the gate way, we entered the cemetery. A wide and beautiful pathway wound before us into the depths of this last resting place of the tired city.

There was Cedar path and Maple path, Hemlock path and Beech path. Birch path and Sumac path, &c. &c. The whole woods were alive with birds,

The surrounding country shows beautifully from the various openings of the cemetery. Off toward Roxbury the broad rich swells, green as fertility and spring could make it—embowered all

We are indebted to THOMAS FOWELL BUXTON
of England, for an elegant copy of his new work on Slavery, an octavo volume, of 240 pages.

no time for musing. We mounted the summit hill of the cemetery, and our company, being in the mood of praise and thanksgiving, we united in a sacred song. We were "merry and we sung

After two hours of the briefest and swiftest time, we left the enclosure. We attempt no description of the various monuments and tombs. They are very generally executed and located with great

Hints for Abolitionists.
Anti-Slavery News is very cheering, to be sure;

It is interesting to know what the southerners are doing—and what the politicians are doing—

If you want your abolition news fresh, help make it! In this way, some abolitionists have

Not so with your real "bone and muscle" abolitionists—the "working men" of the sounding

"Compensation!"—It is said that a new business in the way of raising money has recently been

The Slave Trade.
We are indebted to THOMAS FOWELL BUXTON
of England, for an elegant copy of his new work on may be done for the suppression of this monstrous traffic by a vigorous effort on the part of the British Government to open a trade with Africa, and

DR. G. R. PHELPS'
COMPOUND
TOMATO PILLS,

A new and valuable remedy for all diseases arising from impurities of the blood, Morbid Secretions of the Liver and Stomach,

Also, a SUBSTITUTE for CALOMEL, as a CATHARTIC in FEVERS, and all Bilious diseases, and for ordinary Family Physic.

This popular Medicine which has received such general approbation as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious and Acid Stomachs, Jaundice, Heartburn, Costiveness, Headache &c. &c., and which is now prescribed by many of the

From a gentleman of high respectability;—dated
New York, Nov. 6th, 1838.
To R. G. Phelps,—Dear Sir,—I have used your Compound Tomato Pills, the past season, for the Liver complaint; and am happy to add, with decided benefit—

From the Rev. I. N. Sprague, Pastor of the fourth Congregational Church, Hartford, Conn.
Dr. G. R. Phelps,—
Sir—For several years past I have found it well to keep

The following Letter, just received, illustrates in an interesting manner, the applicability of this medicine in Tumors and scrofulous swellings, and is another evidence

The accompanying remarks of Messrs. Chesbrough & Leonard, will show that the statement of Mr. Vredenburg, is entitled to our full confidence and is without exaggeration.

ROME, April 27th, 1839.
G. R. Phelps, M. D.—Dear Sir—Herewith we send you the statement of Mr. Andrew Vredenburg, a very Second Letter from Dr. Eaton, dated Brookfield, Ms.

March 29, 1839.
Dr. Phelps—Dear Sir—Your Pills are in great demand;

For a full account of this most interesting discovery, testimonials, mode of operations, &c., see pamphlets, which may be had gratis of all who sell these Pills.

Washington, Orange, Calceonia, Essex, Orleans, Franklin Lamoille, Chittenden and Grand Isle Counties, will be promptly attended to.

A PRIME LOT OF HATS,
Just received and for sale by JEWETT, HOWES & CO.
Montpelier, January 5th, 1839.

ALLEN & POLAND,
Book, Job & Fancy Letter Press

HAVING prepared from Boston new and elegant founds of the most FASHIONABLE TYPE, are prepared to present to the above business, in all its branches; and have

C. W. STORRS having received into co-partnership with himself JAMES R. LANGDON, will continue business at the Langdon store recently occupied by Boarding House!

A FEW gentlemen boarders can be accommodated with board, with single rooms if desired, on reasonable

Wanted
In payment for The Voice of Freedom, by the subscribers, a lot of good dry Wood, also, for accommodation of

Wanted!
HAY, WOOD and LUMBER in exchange for Saddles, Trunks, &c. by CUTLER & JOHNSON.

TO HOUSE-JOINERS!
WANTED, at the Joiner and Carpenter Business, TEN good, steady and faithful workmen, to whom

TEMPERANCE HOUSE,
THREE DOORS WEST OF THE POST-OFFICE, BY A. CARTER.
Jan. 5, 1839.

TEMPERANCE HOUSE,
BY WILLIAM C. BOARDMAN,
ST. JOHNSBURY PLAIN, Vermont.

ELL SHAFTOED Riding Saddles—a new article and superior to any before offered for sale in this vicinity. Also—2 doz. Common do. manufactured from first

JOHN T. MILLER,
ARCHITECT & HOUSE CARPENTER,
BARRÉ STREET, Montpelier, Vt.
All orders promptly attended to.

MILITARY STAFF UNIFORM!
MADE up according to the present mode, established for the Militia of this State, by R. R. RIKER,
(State street, opposite the Bank.)

R. R. RIKER,
DEALER IN TAPOES,
(State street, opposite the Bank)

HAS received from New York, a prime assortment of Broad Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of superior quality and texture, which he offers to his customers

THE VOICE OF FREEDOM
Is published every Saturday morning, at $2 a year, payable in advance. If payment be delayed till the end of the year, Fifty Cents will be added.

AGENTS.
Brandon, Dr. Hale.
Derby, Dr. Richmond.
Perkinsville, W M Guilford.
Brookfield, D Kingbury Esq.
Randolph, C Carpenter, Esq.
East Bethel, E Fowler, Esq.
Waterbury, L Hutchins, Esq.
Essex, Dr J W Emery.
Westfield, O Winslow, Esq.
Canaan, Rev T G Gordon.
Barre, Rev T E Baxter.
East Ferrisburgh, W Leonard.
Walden, Peasey Foster.
Starkboro', Joel Battey.
St. Albans, E L Jones, Esq.
Rutland, R R Thrall, Esq.
Royalton, Bela Hall, C Carter.
Danville, M Carpenter.
Glazer, Dr Bates.
St. Johnsbury, Rev J Morse.
Middlebury, M D Gordon.
Cambridge, Martin Wires.
Studley, W A Williams.
Hinesburgh, John Allen.