Volume XII.

Middlebury, Vermont, Tuesday Morning, Nov. 16, 1847.

Number 29.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From Headley's Washington and his Generals.

SIEGE AND STORM OF SAVANNAH.

The two armies having formed a junction, proceeded to Savannah, and sat down before the town. D'Eating, with the laurals of Grenada fresh on his brow, sent a haughty summons in the name of the King of France to the English commander to surrender.

AGRICULTURAL.

ON COOKING FOOD FOR CATTLE.

We are frequently asked whether the cooking of food for stock, by steam or otherwise, would be profitable. So far as regards feeding cattle, we are without any reliable experiments which have been made in this country to test this point.

THE SCULPTOR POWERS—REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

To his Excellency the Governor of Vermont:

Respectfully report the undersigned, appointed under a resolution of the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, to correspond with the sculptor Powers concerning the execution of the statues of Ethan Allen and Thomas Chittenden, that in pursuance of said resolution, they addressed to Mr. Powers a letter, whereof the following is a copy: "BURLINGTON, VT., June 11, 1847.

The undersigned have the honor to be, &c.

REPLY OF MR. POWERS.

I had the pleasure to receive in due time, your very flattering communication of Jun 12, but not in season for an answer by the return steamer.

THE FEMALE ARMY OF SWITZERLAND.

A notice of two regiments of women of the Canton of Uri said to be literally translated thus: The two battalions, numbering four hundred females in military dress, present an aspect at the same time formidable and captivating.

THE BARK AND FILE.

The American Star, the new American paper established in the city of Mexico, thus speaks of Bark and File.

A DISEASE AND ITS CURE.

Love is a complaint of the heart, growing out of an inordinate desire for a companion. It attacks persons of both sexes, generally between the age of twelve and twenty; some have been known to be badly affected with it at the age of sixty and even older.

MRS. LAFAYETTE

In 1784, Mr. John Adams, who was afterwards President of the United States, was visiting in France for a season. His wife, who was a very worthy woman, called one day on the lady of Gen. Lafayette, and soon this lady visited Mrs. Adams in return.

WAR PICKINGS.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writing from Tampa, O., 6, says: "Col. Gates ordered to be paid from the revenue a salary to each officer of the customs, at this port, in addition to the compensation received by them from the Government, as commissioned officers."

ADVERTISING.

The Massachusetts spy, in calling the attention of its readers to the advertisement of Mr. George W. Simmons of Boston, the proprietor of Oak Hall, says: "The remarkable success which has attended the operations of this establishment, is one of the best exemplifications of the benefits of advertising, both to the seller and buyer, that can be presented."

THE FLY.

The farmers throughout this country and Laporte are very much alarmed, and in good cause, at the almost universal re-appearance of the fly in their wheat fields.
