NATIONAL OPINION.

VOLUME 1. BRADFORD, VERMONT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1866. NUMBER 21.

BEFORE AND AFTER THE BATTLE.

It is the first that glitters so white... The wind in your eye...

MASONIC.

At the Annual Convention of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter...

M. E. Edward S. Dana, New Haven, Grand High Priest...

They parted, and the years rolled on, one after the other...

There had come with him an old thief, one of his jail companions...

At the Annual Convention of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters...

Comp. Squire Marcy, Hartford, M. P. Grand Master...

AN OLD MAN'S STORY.—"I took the pledge," said an old man...

A Maine editor says that a pumpkin in that State, grew so large...

JOHN RODMAN.

For a deed he had not done, John Rodman was arrested, tried, and found guilty...

It was an awful moment. Death has no more fearful pang...

John Rodman—John Rodman—John Rodman—could it be?

Then the memory of a time when he had had the hopes and dreams...

There had come with him an old thief, one of his jail companions...

At the Annual Convention of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters...

Comp. Squire Marcy, Hartford, M. P. Grand Master...

AN OLD MAN'S STORY.—"I took the pledge," said an old man...

A Maine editor says that a pumpkin in that State, grew so large...

He thought it was a window and that a man was looking at him through it...

It was an awful moment. Death has no more fearful pang...

"O tell me sailor, tell me true, Is my little lad, my little true...

"The other day," the sailor's eyes Stood open with great surprise...

"All this was twenty years ago, I stood on the Gray Swan's deck...

"And he has never written him, Nor sent you word nor made you sign...
