GENERAL BUSINESS DIRECTORY

H. B. WITT, TAILOR. BRADFORD, VERMONT. Room in Hardy's Building, in rear of S. T. George's Store.

NATIONAL OPINION.

VOLUME I. BRADFORD, VERMONT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1866. NUMBER 23.

FOR FREEDOM AND FOR LOGAN.

When freedom flew, Her stars were blue, O'er treason's black dominions, And fanned the fires...

THE FRONTIER WEDDING.

BY THE MINISTER'S WIFE. One day in early winter my husband received a summons to Burke's settlement to unite a couple in the bonds of wedlock.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Rebel officers and personal friends who desire, are permitted to visit Jeff. Davis at Fortress Monroe. Unrestricted communication with Davis and his family are allowed.

A PATHETIC APPEAL.

Peterkin V. Nasby, with whose recent political relations the world has become well acquainted, says that, at the instigation of "the very highest authority," he and an eminent statesman were employed to issue an address to the Democracy of the country.

THE WEST ANDOVER ROBBER.

The operations of Floyd, the robber, at West Andover, N. H., are quite amusing. It is probable that he selected himself in the store in the evening and was looked in when the proprietors closed up to go home.

THE LAST LEAF.

I saw him once before As he passed by the door, And again in payment stones around As he totters o'er the ground With his cane.

$100,000 GONE FOR RUM.

In opening a letter at the Post Office the other day, we found a one dollar bill, on the back of which, in a neat business hand, was written the following inscription:— "This is the last dollar of a fortune of $100,000—all of which has gone for rum! What a miserable fool I have been!"

RIGHTS OF A WIFE.

Mr. —, a merchant, now residing in the city of Philadelphia, who formerly lived in rather an extravagant style, was in the habit every Monday morning of giving his wife a certain sum of money for the table and other household expenses of the week.

SCENE IN FUTURE.

In a lecture recently delivered at Chicago, Grace Greenwood adverted to a scene that will doubtless one day be a common one speaking of the future of our country, she drew a picture that probably many that read these words may live to see:

A HONORABLE RUBEYI DISMISSED.

We learn from a St. Louis Dispatch that the wedding tour of a dry goods clerk in that city lately met with an unpleasant termination near Concord, N. H.

DEAD TO POLITICS.

An ex-convict in Washington writes to the Mobile Advertiser, who sought his opinion of national affairs, as follows: "Politics! Bless your soul, I have not read a newspaper for eighteen months. I am not a citizen, and don't trouble myself about such things."

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL THE LEAST USEFUL.

It is said that the most beautiful of flowers, emits no fragrance; the Bird of Paradise the most beautiful of birds, gives no song; the cypress of Greece, the finest of trees, yields no fruit; dandies, the shuinst of men, have no sense; the ball room belles, the loveliest creatures in the world generally ditto—only more so.

ONE OF THE EDITORS OF A NEW ORLEANS PAPER.

Soon after beginning to learn the printing business, went to court a preacher's daughter. The next time he attended the meeting he was taken down at hearing the minister announce as his text: "My daughter is grievously tormented with the devil."

CORNS!

Warranted to cure all kinds of corns, blisters, and other skin diseases. Price per set of teeth on Valenzuela Rubber her base range all the way from Five to Thirty-Five Dollars, according to style and finish.

WORK WARRANTED.

BRADFORD, JUNE 13, 1866.

SARATOGA SPRING WATER.

Fresh from the spring, by the can, or in smaller quantities, at KEYS STORE, Newbury, Vt.

Oil has been discovered in Georgia.

A son of Neptune, who was in the habit of quarrelling with his better half, was one day remonstrated with by the minister of the parish, who told him he and his wife ought to live on more amicable terms, as they were both one.

Were you guarded in your conduct while in New York?

A father to his son, who had just returned home from his visit to the city. "Yes, sir, part of the time by two policemen."

The London Times thinks the King of Prussia will soon be proclaimed Emperor of Germany.

A Michigan squaw was asked if her papoose, which was quite white, was not half-breed, whereupon she replied, "No, not a drop of white blood about it—half Indian and half missionary."

A girl baby has been born at La Crosse with two tongues.

Went to her husband catch it if she lives to have one.
