In further argument he charged the President with the possession of power which would have cost a sovereign of Europe his head, and severely reproached the progress of affairs which threatened popular liberty and rights dear to freemen.

Mr. Holman asked Mr. Vallandigham whether he was in favor of defending the integrity of the Union or of recognizing the so-called seceded States as a separate nationality?

Mr. V. replied by sending up a resolution which was read, asserting that Federal Government was the government of the people of the several States.

Mr. Holman remarked that while the gentleman censured the Administration, he and his constituents were, he supposed, for its support now.

Mr. V. replied that he was responsible to his constituents for his public course, and not to the gentleman from Louisiana, at whose instance the Holman gag was yesterday adopted.

Mr. Stevens made no remarks though the rules allowed him an hour to do so, but simply declared in favor of the House resolution, which motion prevailed.

The loan bill was then passed—yeas 149—nays 5—Messrs. Burnett, Reid, Norton, Vallandigham, and Woods.

Mr. Bingham introduced a bill for suppression of rebellion against, and resistance to the laws of the United States; to amend the act providing for calling forth the militia in certain cases, &c. Referred to Committee of Judiciary.

Mr. Van Wyck asked leave to introduce a bill to forward letters of soldiers free of postage. Mr. Burnett objected.

Mr. Van Wyck remarked that he merely intended to have the bill referred to an appropriate committee.

Mr. Morehead offered a resolution, which was adopted, for a select committee of nine to enquire and report on the expediency of establishing a national army west of the Alleghenies.

Mr. Holman offered a resolution, which was adopted, requesting the Secretary of the Navy to inform the House whether he has issued orders to accept none but American born citizens at recruiting stations, and if so, for what reasons, &c.

months from the act, a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty millions of dollars for which he is authorized to issue certificates of coupon or registered stock or treasury notes, stock to bear interest not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually redeemable for twenty years and after that period redeemable at pleasure.

The Secretary will pass the House provides that whenever it shall, in the judgment of the President, by reason of unlawful combinations of persons in opposition to the laws of the United States, become impracticable to execute the revenue laws of the United States and collect duties on imports by the ordinary means in the collection district, he is authorized to cause such duties to be collected at any port of delivery in said district until such obstructions shall cease, and in such case surveys at ports of delivery shall be clothed with all powers and be subject to all obligations of collectors at ports of entry.

The Secretary is authorized, with the approval of the President, to appoint, weighers, gaugers, &c. A custom-house for any district may be established either on land or shipboard for the collection of duties in cash.

The President is empowered to employ such part of the army, navy or militia as may be deemed necessary, and if duties on imports cannot be effectively collected, he can close the ports of entry in the district by proclamation.

The President may in his discretion license and permit commercial intercourse with any part of a State or section, the inhabitants of which are rebelled in a state of insurrection.

Col Richard Thomas, (the French lady) has been indicted by the Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court for piracy and treason. He is now in jail.

The troops quartered in the city left this afternoon for the camps on the suburbs. A report from Washington by the evening train says it was very generally credited there that reliable information had been received that Gov. Wise was shot and either killed or seriously wounded.
