NEVER FAILING REMEDY!!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr W Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years. I recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsboro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health. (Signed) J. BIRD, Draper.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMORS

—AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath,

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR,—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighborhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcers on her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the 54th Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

April 6th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & Co.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Chiego-foot	Fistulas	Sore throats

Great Inducements to Trade in St Louis.

An Undeviating One Price Cash System Established.

Ten Thousand Packages of Seasonable Dry-Goods offered for Cash, by EDDY, JAMESON & CO., at Eastern Manufacturers and Importers prices: at least, ten per cent. less than any credit house in America can afford.

THE subscriber having removed to their new store on Maine-st, erected for them by Col. Brant, at a cost of sixty thousand dollars, and being the largest store devoted to the Dry Goods Jobbing Business in the United States, offer for sale, by the piece or package, a stock of $1,200 000 of American, English, German, French and Swiss Goods, direct from American and European manufacturers.

Our long experience in the Western Trade and having a correct knowledge of the wants of the country, enables us to import such goods as are adapted to the wants of the country.

We believe we have facilities in buying, which are not enjoyed by any western house having resident partners and buyers constantly at the Manufactures and Auctions in the East, and our agents on the Continent. Purchasing our goods for cash and on short time, we are enabled to buy much lower than Eastern or Western Jobbing Houses who buy on long credit, and we are always able and prepared to take advantage of a change in the market favorable to cash buyers, which merchants who buy on credit cannot enjoy.

We can afford to sell for cash, ten per cent. less than other houses, because we do not sustain heavy losses by crediting extravagant and injudicious merchants.

Merchants who have been in the habit of visiting the Eastern cities are assured that they will see as large stocks of goods in St. Louis as can be seen in New York or Philadelphia.

We guarantee to exhibit a larger and better assorted and more elegant stock of Fancy and Staple Dry Goods and Notions, than was ever seen in one house in America.

Our Dress Goods are mostly of styles designed by ourselves, and entirely confined to use in this market.

We are prepared to offer the same inducements in Silk and White Goods as are offered by first class houses in the East who are only in this branch of business.

The country merchant will save time and trouble by purchasing his goods in St. Louis—expense and risk of traveling—loss of time, which is valuable to good merchants—expensive transportation—detention of his goods by low water—mismanagement of careless forwarding merchants, thereby subjecting himself to loss of sales and profits, and great inconvenience—a discount on money he receives from his customers—exchange which is always favor of Eastern cities—the risk of overstocking himself with too large a quantity of goods not adapted to his trade, which are sure to be depreciated and become unsalable—and being long absent from his home and family, are good reasons for the retailer to make his purchases in a home market.

We respectfully suggest these facts to merchants in the west, believing it is for their interest in every respect to make their purchases in St Louis; and that the system we have established, guaranteeing to them cheaper goods and as large stocks as can be obtained in any Eastern city, will bring to us many merchants and traders who have not heretofore seen that they could save money and time by coming to a home market for their supplies.

Our motto shall be Large Sales and Small Profits, an undeviating one Price Cash System, at least Ten per cent less than any credit house in the East or West can afford!

RICHARD M. SMITH.

CLAUDE LORRAINE immortalized his name by painting Land-scapes, which have long been the admiration of the world, but the PAINTED LAWNS which I have brought to town, in beauty of design, superiority of colorind and delicacy of texture, have never been surpassed. Call and see. RICH'D M. SMITH.

QUEEN VICTORIA has presented the English Nation with another Prince, of course the people are grateful and highly pleased with their new present, but the beautiful Merrimac PRINTS which I have just received are a great deal more useful and will not cost the people near as much. Ladies call and see my assortment of summer styles. RICHARD M. SMITH.

THE HANDKERCHIEF! THE HANDKERCHIEF!! exclaimed a son of Thespis whilst performing the part of Otheilo. "Damn the Handkerchief," called out a sailor from the pit, "blow your nose on your fingers and go on with the play." This, my friends, might have been very good advice under the circumstances but as a general thing I would not advise you to follow it; therefore I call the attention of the public to the fine assortment of Bandanna and fancy silk Handkerchiefs which I have just received from Boston.

RICHARD M. SMITH.

"——Loveliness
Needs not the foreign aid of ornament,
But is, when unadorned, adorned the most."

SO sang the poet Gray; and I acknowledge he had classical authority for what he asserted. Venus with a bustle on, for instance, would certainly be an anomaly, but who is so bold as to maintain that a modern Belle would mar the effect of her beauty by sporting a parasol, or gracefully drawing the folds of a light Summer Shawl around her shoulders. "Oh! my senses," as Fanny Fern says, "there is poetry in the very thought." Ladies are requested to call and see the assortment of Parasol's and Summer Shawls, at RICH'D M. SMITH'S.

THE hunted Deer pants for the cooling spring; and in the Spring, cool pants that are not deer, are hunted. It is a bad rule that wont work both ways. Persons in search of summer clothing, will find a good assortment at RICH'D M SMITH'S.
