By the Commencement of the Trial of a Newspaper Man for

A LABEL OF THE QUEEN'S GRANDSON

He Sent to a New York Paper the Report of Prince George's Drunken Row on the Streets of Montreal and His Arrest and Imprisonment like the Common Herd of Mankind who Get into Scrapes--The Opening by the Prosecution.

MONTREAL, Sept. 25.—After having been postponed from term to term during the past year, the trial of R. N. O'Brien, accused of libeling Prince George of Wales, was begun this afternoon before Judge Cross in the Court of Queen's bench.

At a late hour while persecuting this delinquent or "doing the town" as the article reads, the Prince and his companions found themselves at the corner of St. Constant and La Gucheter streets, where they were accosted by six rascals who demanded money.

The crown would also be in position to show that this dispatch was sent by P. N. O'Brien; that he left it in hands of the Canada Pacific Telegraph Company and that it was transmitted to several papers in the United States.

The taking of testimony was then commenced, but had not made much headway when the court rose for the day.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge Votes Down an Important Proposition.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 25.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows this morning voted down a proposition made by Lieut. General Underwood to the effect that members could become eligible to the degree of patriarchs militant without going through the encampment.

A resolution was presented to remove the headquarters of the grand secretary from Columbus, O., to Baltimore, Md. It was referred to a committee. It is stated that this resolution will very likely be favorably reported and pass.

The report of the committee on patriarchs militant, on complaint of Franklin Ellis was the first question considered. Ellis is a grand representative from Ohio and the grand lodge of that State preferred the charges.

It was decided to allow the lodges to use the widows and orphan funds for the erection of an orphan's home, and to allow all lodges to make weekly payments to ill members, the minimum payment to be two dollars per week.

A LETTER FROM BLAINE.

"The Election of McKinley Means the Policy of Protection and Honest Money."

AKRON, O., Sept. 25.—Col. A. I. Conger, member of the Republican National Committee from Ohio, recently wrote to Mr. Blaine to see if he could take part in the Ohio canvass this fall.

STANWOOD, BAR HARBOR, ME., Sept. 23, 1891.

MY DEAR SIR:—Your favor received. I cannot take part in the Ohio campaign this year for many reasons which I need not give, but I hope no effort will be spared to elect McKinley.

Very sincerely, JAMES G. BLAINE.

REV. S. D. BURCHARD DEAD.

The Man who Made the Famous "Rom, Romanism and Rebellion" Speech is No More.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The Rev. Samuel D. Burchard, of New York city, who had been unconscious since early this morning, died at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Dr. Burchard came prominently before the public in 1884 when a reception to Mr. Blaine, the then Republican candidate for President, was tendered at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in New York.

Dr. Burchard left his colleagues and ascended the staircase to the stair below Mr. Blaine. An Associated Press representative stood on the step between the two men.

THE BOOM CONTINUES.

Great Prosperity Everywhere Throughout the Country.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S WEEKLY REVIEW

OF Trade.—Business Generally Good and the Proofs of General Good Times are Not Wanting.—The Improvement Noted Last Week Continues in all Branches.—The Great Industries all Doing Well, and Yet "That Awful McKinley Bill" is in Force.

New York, Sept. 25.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: No disturbances threaten to affect the general prosperity which enormous crops now promise, and the failure of a house of extraordinary repute and strength to sustain the price of corn, is at once proof of the general prosperity, and a warning that whoever gets in the wrong side when this country is growing is liable to be hurt.

The reports from other cities indicate a continuance of the general improvement in trade already noticed. At Philadelphia the iron market improves, and the demand for tin plates is especially increased.

As to money the markets are generally favorable. The great industries are doing well. There is a distinctly better demand for iron without advance in price.
