MARTIN'S FERRY.

Maps and Hitches in the Thriving City Across the River. Fifteen couples of colored people took part in the cake walk at Scheehle's hall yesterday morning. The walk commenced shortly after midnight and kept up until a few minutes after 1 o'clock. The number was reduced to five couple in order to determine which couple were the winners and the final walk was between Asbury Branson and Miss Sophia Seales, of Martin's Ferry, and George Kelsey and Miss Minnie Linsay. It was hard for the five judges to decide which couple was entitled to the cake and it was finally awarded to Branson and his lady.

The understanding was that the most graceful couple would get the cake and much grace was displayed by most of the walkers, particularly in the early stage of the game, but latterly several couples indulged in comical walking. The most comical couple was Mr. Branson and Miss Seales and their agony and actions brought forth frequent and hearty applause. The graceful movements of Kelsey and his dark complexioned friend was much admired and they were well applauded. The leader of the walk was Finkler Bands, a well known artist of Wheeling, whose monkeyshines pleased the crowd.

The cake walk was watched with much interest by those present and at times some of the colored folks became considerably excited. The announcement that Branson and his lady were the winners caused enthusiastic applause. Sixteen cake walkers arrived from Wheeling after the contest was over.

TILLMAN TALKS. Doesn't Know what he will Do About the Dispersary Law. WASHINGTON, June 1.—When Senator Tillman was asked to-day for an expression concerning the decision of Judge Simonton in the South Carolina dispensary case he said that the state undoubtedly would appeal the case to the supreme court of the United States. "There is nothing else to do," he said, "so far as this case is concerned. The state has exhausted present resources and must wait upon the supreme court and Congress." He said the decision practically annulled the Wilson act of 1890, and that if it should be sustained by the supreme court nothing would be left but to get Congress to pass another law that could be made binding.
