SNOOK & CO.'S

Busy Ready-Made Dept.

22 inches represents the average length of this season's most fashionable jackets, the majority of which are double breasted, but a very smart showing of single breasted, fly front jackets are also here. Can fit ANYBODY—even the stoutest and most slender people. Colors most in demand are the various modes and castors, new blues, browns and blacks. Here's one business-bringing example:

$2.95 Plain navy blue double breasted cloth jackets with inlaid velvet collars, small and medium sizes. Were made to sell for considerably more money. The lot is limited and the limited price of $2.95 will make short work of them. See our great values between $10.00 and $20.00.

$14.75 is the equally limited price we ask for brown, navy and grey venetian cloth suits, skirts of which are full flounced. The jackets are lined with bright taffeta and the entire outfit is elaborately strapped—strapping inset with neat black braid. Actual value of these suits $17.75.

Now for a Big Jump—One Which Lands You in the Overflowing Notion Department.....

Here are values which will find ready takers:

75c for ladies' black wool equestrienne tights, actual value $1.25 pair. Hardly enough to supply one hundred people—better come quick.

19c for ladies' black wool hose, actual value 25c pair. Will be another quick seller.

UNDERWEAR FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY.

75c yard is the price of what we positively know to be the most artistic range of BAYEDERE ROMAN RIBBONS ever sold over any counter. They are gorgeously beautiful and all the rage for Crush Belts. As proof of their popularity we point to the fact that it took five weeks to secure this lot, and then we were limited to half pieces by the maker. New Belt Buckles to go with these.

"CRICKET AND THE HEARTH"

Given Last Evening by the Pupils of Mont de Chantal Academy.

In response to a general request to represent something from Dickens, the young ladies of Mont de Chantal gave last night "The Cricket on the Hearth." It was with many misgivings that so great an undertaking as even in a far away manner, following in the footsteps of Jefferson, was essayed, and as modestly is ever an attendant of merit, the possession of one gift often announces the other. The characters of the play were nicely conceived and pleasantly portrayed. Miss Emma Forbes, as John Peerybingle, the carrier was bluff, honest, true-hearted, every such a man. Doc, his wife, was in the hands of Miss Julia Montague, the sweet, endearing little creature Dickens meant her to be and Miss Frances Montague as Miss Tilly Showboy, did ample justice to the originality of that young lady. Caleb Plummer, played by Miss Frances McQuade, was touching in the extreme, and Miss Marion Collins as Bertha—his blind daughter gave pleasure to her audience. Tackleton—the top-merchant, taken by Miss Marcella Weimer, became the ugly cross-grained individual that an unkind fate had made him and the Stranger, Miss Mary Mae Henry, was made very welcome, as he deserved to be. The minor roles were filled by Miss Emma Reymann, as May Fielding; Miss Julia Sullivan, Mrs. Fielding; the Fairy Cricket, Miss Nellie Graham. The play was given in honor of Mother M. Stanislaus Thayer, whose feast-day was celebrated yesterday.

"INJUN SOCIAL"

Unique Entertainment at the United Presbyterian Church.

One of the most novel and amusing entertainments of the season will be given on Thursday evening of this week at the United Presbyterian church. It will be a "wigwam" or "Injun social" and the entire programme will be given by a band of Apaches, who will be in the city at that time. The public is assured of the peaceful character of these Indians, although their appearances and warlike actions may seem alarming. No one need therefore be afraid to attend this social, as the Indians are warranted not to bite. Such well known chiefs as "Rain in the Face" and "Spotted Tail," of the Black Hill Sioux, as well as others, will be on hand and will give exhibitions of the various peculiarities of their various tribes. There will also be present a number of squaws, Indian maidens and papooses, with "The ten little Injuns," of nursery fame. The members of the band will have several wigwams erected and will have interesting relics on exhibition, besides many articles of Indian manufacture for sale. Ice cream and cake and candy will be served.
