DISPOSING OF MILLIONAIRES

"What shall we do with our millionaires?" What a funny question Give them to the comedienne.—New York Mail.

Speaker Cannon has an idea that may head off an endorsement of him as a presidential candidate by the Illinois convention. "See here," says your uncle, "I must go stumping this fall for a republican House. If I am endorsed for the presidency my usefulness as a speaker may be impaired, for some people would insinuate that I was speaking once for the party and twice for myself."
