success, "The Show Girl," laden with humor and wearing the mystic cap which R. A. Baroni designed for her when the Boston Cadets brought her out, will smile upon the amusement seekers at the Elks Opera House next Monday.

"The Show Girl" has received careful attention, and money has been expended without stint on the costumes and scenery. A typical Whitney chorus, dazzling as to beauty and daintily arrayed, has been provided and a cast of principals said to be better than any Mr. Whitney has so far selected. The cast is headed by the following well known metropolitan favorites: John Mylie, Helen Stuart, Burt Eaton, Mary Orth, Stella Rhehart, Ellsworth Ellis, Harry Lorder, Clem Johnson and Rodney and Bartelle, also a large chorus of dancing girls.

PLACED IN BANKRUPTCY

Richmond, Va., October 15.—Judge Edmund Wadill, Jr., in the United States Court here, yesterday placed the War-Kramer Tobacco Company, of Norfolk, Va., in involuntary bankruptcy.

This concern, which conducted an independent cigarette manufacturing business, recently sued the American Tobacco Company and the Wells-Whitehead Tobacco Company, at Raleigh, N. C., claiming punitive damages to the amount of $1,000,000 for alleged acts damaging to the plaintiff company in violation of the Federal anti-trust laws.

MURDERED GIRL NOT IDENTIFIED

Iverson, Oct. 15.—The police believe that murdered girl, whose bag, 10.70 and arms were found, may be Mildred Higgins, of Boston. The examination is incomplete until the head is found. The mother says Joseph Harris, alias Burnham, chloroformed her and stole her daughter and two hundred dollars on October 5th. There is an interstate search for Burnham. The governor offers five hundred dollars reward for finding the head. Physicians say the body was chopped to pieces with an axe while still warm.

TYLER UNDER ARREST

Due to Circumstances Surrounding Death of His Supposed Wife.

Richmond, Va., October 14.—Suspicious circumstances connected with the death of Mrs. Fannie Tyler, who drank carbonic acid on Sunday dying early the following morning at the City Home Hospital, led Coroner Taylor today to direct the arrest of C. L. Tyler, who had passed as the woman's husband, on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Fannie Smith, on the night before her death.

Ball was refused Tyler pending a further inquiry, on the ground that he is charged with having made a murderous assault on a person who has since died.

The woman undoubtedly died from the immediate effects of drinking a large quantity of the poison, Tyler is said to have a wife living in King and Queen county. The woman, who was formerly Miss Fannie Smith, of this city, also has a husband living. The woman followed Tyler to the theater Saturday night, where she found him in company of another woman. A quarrel followed between the supposed husband and wife, the woman being attacked and beaten by the man.

FLORENCE GEAR BETTER THAN EVER

It is particularly gratifying to the many admirers of Florence Gear among our own theatregoers, who have watched her season by season without the holder of her chosen profession, until last season she reached the very topmost rung by her superb work in "Marrying Mary," to know that she is in no danger of falling off this season; but rather that she has obtained a more secure hold by her brilliant interpretation of the title role in "Fluffy Ruffles." Miss Gear will be seen in "Fluffy Ruffles" at the Elks Opera House on Oct. 23.
