BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

M. F. Glesey and Fred F. Faris, architects, have opened handsome offices in rooms 11 and 12, of the Masonic building.

Parke division, A. O. H., has been called to attend the funeral of M. J. Sweeney, a member of the order, which takes place this morning.

A bunch of keys was picked up at the corner of Market and Seventh streets last night by Officer Ritz, which the owner can recover at police headquarters.

John Caylor, an employe of the Belts planing mill, had one arm badly lacerated yesterday morning. His arm got caught in the machine familiarly known as the "bumble bee." He bled profusely and the injury to the arm may be permanent.

The Wheeling Elks have decided to attend the street fair and carnival given by the Allegheny lodge on Thursday, July 13, in a body, accompanied by a band. All members desiring to go will call at Kraus Bros.' store and sign the list. Persons wishing to go along are welcome.

The executive committee of the Elks' oriental carnival did not make its report of the receipts and expenditures last night, at the meeting of Wheeling lodge, B. P. O. E., but held a meeting after the lodge adjourned, and will likely report at the lodge's next meeting. In any event, the report will be submitted to the lodge before being made public. The profits will be at least $2,000, probably more.

Big Damages Sued for by Young Dr. S. K. Hissom and

HIS FATHER IS THE DEFENDANT

In the Suit—The Declaration in the Suit was Filed Yesterday, and Enters into Many and Various Allegations Touching the Events That led up to Young Hissom Being Incarcerated on the Charge of Insanity.

Yesterday in the circuit court the declaration in the suit for $100,000 damages brought by Dr. S. K. Hissom against his father, James R. Hissom, of the Island, was entered by the plaintiff's attorneys Messrs. W. P. Hubbard and S. G. Smith. The suit was to have been entered some time since, and as all newspaper readers will know is another chapter in the litigation between father and son, which came before the public prominently when Dr. Hissom was arrested and tried on an insanity charge, preferred by his father.

There was an effort to compromise for $10,000 before the damage suit was instituted, it is said, but failed of effect. The declaration stipulates on what grounds young Hissom claims $100,000 damages, and the document, which covers six typewritten pages, alleges principally that the plaintiff's health and business prospects were injured to that extent by reason of the plaintiff's arrest on February 19, 1899, on the lunacy charge and his subsequent detention in jail and commitment to the Spencer insane asylum, whence he was released on May 4, 1899, by order of Judge Blizard.

The declaration states that the plaintiff was and is a good, quiet sane citizen and in no respect a lunatic; that he was afflicted with weak lungs and the defendant knew confinement of any sort would impair his health and tend to cause his death. He was carrying on the practice of medicine and his arrest injured his practice; his being dragged from a railroad car by officers in this city, and hauled through the streets to the jail also had the effect of injuring him in the estimation of his fellow citizens. Continuing the declaration alleges that the defendant contrived to defame, impoverish, oppress and ruin the plaintiff, and it caused the plaintiff to expend $2,500 in procuring his discharge from imprisonment "and the aiding of himself in the premises and the manifestation of his innocence and sanity in that behalf."

In brief Dr. Hissom maintains he was injured to the extent sued for on account of the lunacy charge brought against him.

UNSATISFACTORY SCHEDULE

Of the Street Car Line Said to be Result of the Eleven-Hour Day.

The new schedule of the Wheeling Railway Company is unsatisfactory to that portion of the traveling public wishing to use the cars after 11 o'clock at night, and also to those who depend on the early morning cars before 6 o'clock. The schedule went into effect yesterday, and as a consequence, last night travelers who waited in town for a car after 11 o'clock were inclined to do some of the kicking which other wards have been prone to accuse them of.

The new schedule is the outcome of the strike settlement, and it was adopted on account of the men being granted an eleven-hour day. Before the strike they worked twelve hours, and it is said a smooth working schedule can best be formed out of a twelve or nine-hour day. The first car leaves the barns now at 5:40 a. m., instead of 4:30 a. m., and the last car at 10:52 p. m., instead of 11:33 p. m. The last car under the old system was a source of joy to belated citizens. It passed the corner of Fourteenth and Main streets fifteen minutes after midnight, bound for the barns, and now passes this point at 11:28 p. m. The new schedule works a hardship on the men wanting to go to work early in the Benwood mills.

A Cigar Indian's Fate.

A fatality of the "Fourth," not hitherto recorded, befell the Indian that has rendered faithful service for years outside a Market street cigar store, not a hundred miles away from the Opera house. In sunshine and shower the bronzed brave held out cigars and incense, but Tuesday night a dealer in fireworks put fireworks in poor Lo's mouth. A match did the rest. The Indian's head was blown off and he was otherwise dispatched to his happy hunting grounds. Of the two brothers in the cigar firm, one prompted the deed, while the other's ire yesterday morning when he discovered the Indian's fate, was said to behold.

There Are Poor Storekeepers

Good storekeepers—better and best—the same way be said of store stocks and values. Those who trade here are the store's best advertisers. Ask any good dresser or anyone whom you know to be economically inclined—if they deal here they'll recommend you; if they've never tried us they cannot tell what they've missed. You'll not find a single enemy of this store—its methods—its prices—is there another in town can truthfully say the same?

We are in the business for profit—there's profit in making friends—friends are only secured by square, fair dealing.

Noble sentiments in business wouldn't have much commercial value unless accompanied by tact, talent and facilities. Judge for yourselves whether we have our share. Judge by general appearance—by comparison, by stock, style and prices.

Make any test you see fit—we'll warrant you'll select our store. Money back protects you here and demonstrates our self-confidence.
